Salem Heights Scouts Camp

SALEM HEIGHTS—Boy Scout troop 19 of Salem Heights spent Saturday night at Joryville park camping out.

The group left the community hall early Saturday morning for the park where they spent the day working. Work was done on a point system, for credits for the patrols. Each patrol was assigned certain duties. Committees accompanied the boys and were in charge of the projects. Charles Rybloom and his crew were in charge of clearing brush and lavatory sites; Bruce Crandall and his crew cleared the brush at the camp site and O. K. Neilson and his crew built the steps up to the camp site for carrying water and camping supplies into camp.

Sunday morning they held church services at a chapel area that had been cleared and the cross set up. O. K. Neilson was in charge of the services.

Some of the fathers came out to the camp-out over the week-end and assisted the boys and ate some of their meals in camp. Those attending were Marion Miller, Ercel Meyer, O. G. Gorton and Stanley Teston.

Boys camping out were: Buck patrol, Bill Crandall; Jay patrol, Darrall Rybloom, William Rector, Emmett Meyer, Dale Gorton, Rodney Raymond, Jerry Burger and Olin Teston; Pine Squirrel patrol, Don Miller, Don Norris, Jerry Reiwald, Kenny Miller and Bobby Miller; Owl patrol, Dennis Neilson and Russell Bartlett. John Kinney, scoutmaster, also camped with the boys over the week-end.

Silverton Council Orders Park Kitchen Construction

SILVERTON—In line of regular city council business Monday at the city hall, with Carl Hande, Jr., as substitute mayor in the absence of Harry Carson, several items of importance were featured.

The report of the recently elected police judge, Attorney Quintin Estell, a gain to the city of $317.50 for the past month was gleaned from 17 court cases.

The contract for the building of the municipal park kitchen was awarded to the lowest bidder, John Pfeifer of Silverton, the consideration, $1,169. Four contractors submitted bids. Plans in detail of building were discussed by the aldermen.

Ordinance No. 417, was passed on first reading. This specified terms and revenues on the acceptance of the 20-year gas franchise with three officials from the Portland Gas & Coke company present, as parties to the agreement for the granting of the franchise.

The city agreed to continue as of last year with a donation of $255 as the town's share of the Civil Defense Marion county disaster emergency fund covering needs from destruction from fires, floods or war.

In a letter from the PGE company, figures of gross income from Silverton area in 1953, and a statement of the 3 per cent that is to be paid the city, was read.

Encouragement was sensed for the city's help for the James Ave. street improvement in a paving project, with the city of Silverton asked to make application again, the aid to come from a portion of the annual $250,000 tax fund allocated for benefit of smaller cities. A 34-foot width street up to the James Ave. bridge was suggested by the authorities. The official suggestions will be compiled with immediately.

The councilmen favored the request for better lighting for the Barger and Johnson street area, where larger lights and more extended arm light supports will be installed. This was the only extra light request before the council at this meeting.

The city manager, Robert Borland, was authorized by the aldermen to proceed with certain pipe line adjustments for the city water system and for the installation of certain pumping equipment to assure sufficient water for the West Hill tank during the dry season.

The request of Immanuel Lutheran officials to remove a small portion of curbing near the center of the drive-out lane on Oak street, that circles the church from the parking space, making a 41 foot space in a termed, "commercial driveway," was approved by the council.

Police Chief R. R. Main will be re-imburshed for necessary cost of trips to Salem in line of his duties when he must use his own car.

Choir and Orchestra Offer 'The Red Mill'

The Salem High school and choir and orchestra are preparing for the musical production "The Red Mill" by Victor Herbert which will be given to the public May 11 and 12. Tryouts are now being held for the roles. "The Red Mill" was written in 1906 and was presented that year in New York. Among the songs in the production are "Moonbeams," "Every Day Is Ladies' Day," "In Old New York," and "The Isle of Our Dreams."

Albany Building in January Slumps

ALBANY — February brought somewhat of a building slump in Albany, but the $16,800 in construction values represented by February building permits is still somewhat above the $14,050 January, 1953, figure which launched Albany's biggest construction year in history.

February of a year ago witnessed issuance of permits for $30,400 in construction.
