

Some Notations . . .

By M. L. F.

A colorful affair Tuesday was the luncheon and style show sponsored by Salem Women's Army and Navy league in the Gold room at the Marion hotel, more than 200 attending . . . It was the first of a series of spring fashion shows, Johnson's store presenting the styles for this one . . . It was nicely handled—bows to Mrs. William C. Dyer, Jr. and Mrs. Max Denton, co-chairmen—Mrs. Bruce F. Pickett did a nifty job as commentator . . . In addition to the center platform, there was another at one side of the room, thus enabling those in the other sections to see the styles under spotlights . . . And the models took a longer route through the crowd than usual, giving all a chance for a close-up look . . . The models were Mrs. C. A. Schaefer, Mrs. Donald Fisher, Mrs. Joseph Svejkosky, Mrs. Charles A. Barclay, Mrs. Phil Brownell, Mrs. Robert M. Brownell, Mrs. H. C. Saalfeld, Mrs. Claybourne Dyer, Mrs. Maurice H. Saffron, Mrs. Burl Cox, Mrs. Willis Ross, Mrs. Thomas Roberts, Mrs. Richard Chambers, Mrs. Harry S. Dorman, Mrs. George H. Swift, Mrs. William H. Hammond, Mrs. Sigfrid B. Unander . . .

There were swim suits, golf outfits, play clothes and patio attire shown, all kinds of informal and more dressy afternoon frocks, smart suits and coats, and glamorous summer formals and cocktail dresses . . . All the hats shown were made especially to go with the costumes worn, and the shoes, too, were carefully selected to go with each outfit . . . It was an interesting display of beautiful cotton materials and fabrics, as well as paper silks, tie silks, prints, sheers, etc.; and the new nylon coats . . . Many of the full skirted dresses were shown with their matching petticoats . . .

Among those spotted at our end of the room, Mrs. Raymond Busick, Mrs. Wallace Hug, Mrs. Carl Steelhammer, Mrs. Paul Killever, Mrs. George Bagnall, Mrs. William J. Braun, Mrs. L. O. Arens, Mrs. E. A. Linden, Mrs. Charles E. Wagner, Mrs. Ward R. Davis, Mrs. Edward Roth, Mrs. Gene Vandeneysde, Miss Esther Fuenning, Mrs. Mark Hillary, Mrs. Homer Smith, Jr., Mrs. William C. Perry, Mrs. David H. Cameron, Mrs. Douglas Hay, Mrs. Ed Lewis, Mrs. Kenneth Potts, Mrs. James Allenby, Mrs. V. D. McMullen, Mrs. Hunt Clark, Mrs. Seth P. Amith, Mrs. Albert C. Gragg, Mrs. James G. Watts, Mrs. Irvin B. Hill, Mrs. Chester Lee, Mrs. Arthur A. Atherton, Mrs. Harvey Lathan and her mother-in-law, Mrs. L. C. Lathan of Portland; also from Portland, Mrs. Ira D. Miller, president of the Portland Women's Army and Navy league . . .

At the Tuesday meeting of Salem General Hospital auxiliary, it was reported a sum of $700 was cleared on the group's recent rummage sale, the most successful sale in the auxiliary's history . . . Mrs. Floyd Utter and Mrs. John R. Wood were co-chairmen for the event . . .

The auxiliary project this year, as for last year, is renovation of the kitchen in the old hospital building . . . Miss Lillian McDonald, superintendent of the hospital, reported the kitchen project will go ahead as soon as the fund is completed . . .

The big activity of the spring for the group is the annual membership drive, Mrs. Frank H. Spears and Mrs. Clarence Byrd as co-chairmen . . .

The annual lily sale sponsored by Salem City Panhellenic will be March 28 and 29 . . . The proceeds go to the Oregon Society for Crippled Children and Adults . . . Panhellenic has carried on the sale since first organized here . . . Mrs. Marens Maltby, Panhellenic president, soon will announce plans for the sale . . .

Wedding at Stayton on Feb. 19

A bride of Friday, February 19, was Miss Delores Ivone Ostrem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Walsh of Aumsville. She was married at an 8 o'clock ceremony at the Stayton Baptist church to Lee Floyd Metcalfe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fines Metcalfe of Turner.

The Rev. Nick Neufeld performed the ceremony. Miss Laina Selnes and Miss Betty Jo Metcalfe in lavender taffeta frocks were the candlelighters. Mrs. Helen Sawyer sang several numbers accompanied by Mrs. P. B. Collins.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin brocade wedding dress. The veil was of nylon net and held in place by a Juliet cap of white satin brocade. The bride carried yellow roses and white bouvardia for a wedding bouquet.

Miss Betty Walsh, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and she wore a yellow net and taffeta frock. She carried a nosegay of vanda orchids and white carnations. Mrs. Rex Ostrem, sister-in-law of the bride, was the bridesmaid and her dress was styled like that of the maid of honor.

Joe Metcalfe was best man for her brother. Tom Metcalfe and Jack Metcalfe, brothers of the bridegroom, as well as Don Gulbranson and Ron Walsh ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Walsh wore a violet nylon lace dress with pink accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds. Mrs. Metcalfe wore a navy blue crepe frock with blue accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

A reception followed at the church with Mrs. Fred Prentice, an aunt of the bride, cutting the cake. Mrs. Jack Metcalfe poured the punch and Mrs. Fred Klein handled the coffee. Miss Lillian Bales, Miss Mary Jo Lacey and Miss Mary Ellen Whitman assisted. Miss Astrid Severin was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Arnold Selnes took care of the gift room.

For a short trip to the coast the bride wore a blue and yellow checked suit with red accessories. She wore a yellow rosebud corsage. The couple are now at home at 1224 N. 16th street, Salem.

St. Paul Knights Delay Meeting

ST. PAUL—The regular March meeting of the St. Paul Knights of Columbus which was set for Wednesday, March 3, in the City hall has been postponed one week until Wednesday, March 10. This change in the night for the regular meeting was made necessary by conflicting events.

Grand Knight H. W. Bowers has announced that the meeting will start immediately following evening Lenten evotions at the church on Wednesday, March 10. It will be the first meeting for six new Knights, Jerry Connor, Leslie Weatherill, Willis Fenton, Bernard McNamee, Carl Van Dyke and Joseph Pohlschneider who were initiated into the Council at ceremony held in Stayton last Sunday.

New regulations will be discussed that will affect the council. Also, council proceedings will be explained to the new members.

Chairman of the refreshment committee for the meeting is William Smith with Pat McCarthy, Ted VanDyke and Ray Cooke assisting.

The good of the order for the evening will be conducted by Ross Coleman and S. J. Smith.

The Archbishop Blanchette Council 2221 of the St. Paul

Knights of Columbus now numbers 116 members.

The Ladies' Nights was sponsored by the K.C.s on Sunday night.

Following the stage show, the members and their guests played cards with the following winning prizes: Contract bridge — men first, James Smith, and women first, Bernice Kirk; a auction bridge — women first, Louise Manegre, and men first, Ray Smith; pinochle — ladies first, Mrs. Ted VanDyke, and men first, Jack Mullen; five hundred — men first, Frank Vachter, and ladies first, Mrs. James Davidson.
