Miss Motter Bride at Albany

ALBANY — A bride of the late winter season was Miss Beverly June Motter, daughter of Mrs. Nellie Motter, Albany, who exchanged her nuptial vows Saturday at 8 o'clock in the evening with Vernon Lee Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith of Brownsville. The wedding was at the First Evangelical United Brethren church, with the Rev. J. Robert Wetzel officiating at the double ring service.

Two large baskets filled with daffodils and white stock, and lighted candles in spiral candelabras, formed a background for the ceremony. Sprays of daffodils marked the pews down the bridal aisle.

Mrs. Elmer Club was organist and played the wedding marches and was accompanist for Sidney Burt, who sang.

Lighting the candles were Miss Pat Dooley and Miss Barbara Howard dressed in cream and green choir robes.

The bride was presented in marriage by her uncle, Jesse Johnson. She wore a dress made with tight bodice of Chantilly lace, long pointed sleeves, high neckline with tulle yoke, and a peplum of the lace extending in a V down the back of the skirt. The skirt was of tulle over satin and terminated in a full train. The veil of tulle was fingertip length and was held in place with a halo trimmed with seed pearls. The bride carried a white Bible with a white orchid center and a cluster of freesias tied with white satin ribbon streamers.

Miss Lois Prohaska was the maid of honor and wore a dress of yellow with lace bodice, the skirt of tulle over taffeta. She carried a ring of yellow tulle with a cluster of daffodils and narcissuses with ribbon streamers. A bandeau of tulle with a cluster of narcissuses was worn in her hair.

Miss Sandra Motter, sister of the bride, and Miss Phyllis Hedlund, of Portland, formerly of Brownsville, were bridesmaids. Miss Motter and Miss Hedlund wore dresses made identically to that of the maid of honor's but they were of Nile green. Each also wore the same type head-dress to match her dress and carried flowers like those of the maid of honor's.

Miss Mary Kropp was the flower girl and wore a yellow taffeta dress and carried a basket of yellow narcissuses.

Darle Cowdry of Brownsville was best man and ushers were Earl Liles of Albany and Jack Wynne of Brownsville.

For her daughter's wedding

Goldenweds—Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Glaze, above, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last Sunday and were honored at a reception given by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Glaze. (A. A. Taylor picture)

Mrs. Motter wore an aqua shaded dress with matching accessories and her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue and white dress with her accessories also matching her costume. Her flowers were red rosebuds.

Immediately following the ceremony the reception was in the church parlors. The room was decorated with daffodils and stock. The bride's table was set with a tiered wedding cake, white candles and a green taffeta tablecloth. Mrs. Arlow Dunford, aunt of the bride, presided at the coffee urn and Miss Paula Engel was at the punch bowl.

Pythian Sisters Fete Visitors

Honored guest at the dinner and meeting of the Pythian Sisters of Centralia temple, Wednesday night, at the Beaver hall was Mrs. Carrie Broxson of Milton-Freewater, grand chief of Oregon. One hundred thirty members and visiting members were present.

Knights of Pythias grand officers present were Don R. Judson, grand chancellor of Oregon. Past grand officers present were Herbert Thompson, Oregon City; O. C. Harris, and Elmer Patrick, Corvallis.

Visitors attended from Dallas, Albany, Eugene, Corvallis, Oregon City, Milton-Freewater, Portland, Prineville, Yamhill, St. Helens, Redmond, Walla Walla and Vancouver, Washington. Four new members, Mrs. Laura Schmidt, Mrs. Jean B. Walker, Salem; Mrs. Ora Coe, and Mrs. Lavina Kurk, Milton-Freewater were initiated into the order.

High School Group Sponsors Social

MT. ANGEL — High school seniors arranged the social evening for the members of the Young People's Sodality of St. Mary's church after the March business meeting Monday evening in the St. Mary's school. Games and dancing was enjoyed in the auditorium, and refreshments were served. Special guests were the probation members who held their meeting in the music room. The probation members will be received into the Sodality at the annual reception ceremonies of new members in May.

Conducting the meeting were the officers, James Fessler, Laura Schmitz, Marlene Diehl and Raymond Schmitz. The Rev. Clement Frank, O.S.B., Sodality moderator, was guest speaker.

Committee chairmen giving reports were Beth Heiter, dance committee; Ernest Kimlinger, eucharistic committee and Shirley Ebner, sick committee.

Members of the Sodality will take part in the opening ceremonies of the Forty Hours Devotions which will begin in St. Mary's church Friday evening, March 5, at 7:30 o'clock. Members will meet at 7:15 p.m. at St. Mary's school, preceding the church services.

During Marian Year, this year, the Sodality will sponsor two pilgrimages every month, on the second and fourth Saturdays. The next scheduled pilgrimage will be March 15, and the group will meet at 7:15 o'clock at the City hall.

Instead of a social for the April meeting which will be during Lent a film will be shown.

Mrs. Alvin Smith, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, served the wedding cake, Miss Louise Harrison assisting. Hostesses for the reception were Mrs. Jesse Johnson, Brownsville, aunt of the bride and Mrs. Elva Burns of Albany. The couple left on a wedding trip by automobile for California to be gone a week. For her going-away costume the bride wore a dusty rose wool suit with rose velvet trim, a rose and navy blue straw hat, and navy accessories. Pinned to the shoulder of her suit was the white orchid from her bridal bouquet. They will be at home in Albany after March 7.
