

Easter Day Wedding At Church

JORDAN — The Methodist church in Independence was the scene of a wedding Sunday afternoon, when Miss Joyce Hargreaves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Hargreaves of Monmouth, was married to Robert Walls of Newport, at an impressive double ring ceremony performed at 4 o'clock, the Rev. Walter Nyberg officiating.

Large bouquets of white stock and spirea in tall white baskets decorated the church altar. The brunette bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding dress of white satin bodice with short bolero jacket, and a floor-length gathered nylon net over satin bouffant skirt. On a white Bible she carried a white orchid with tiny orchids tied in the white satin streamers. The full-length veil cascaded from a rhinestone and pearl-edged Juliet cap of white satin.

Mrs. Stanley L. Starr of Portland, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, wearing a pink taffeta dress. She carried a bouquet of pink perfection camellias and white hyacinths. The three bridesmaids were Miss Helen Walls of Newport, sister of the bridegroom, who wore a yellow nylon net and taffeta frock and carried a bouquet of yellow daffodils and white hyacinths tied with yellow satin; Miss Helen Booth of Salem, who wore a mint green satin and nylon net dress and carried a green carnation and white hyacinth bouquet tied with green satin; and Miss Donna Stewart of Salem, who was attired in a powder blue dress of taffeta and nylon net, and carried a bouquet of blue Dutch irises and white hyacinths tied with blue satin.

Each attendant wore a satin bolero jacket like the bride's. Pamela and Sheryl Starr of Portland, nieces of the bride, were flower girls. They wore pink taffeta floor-length frocks, and carried pink camellias and white hyacinth bouquets.

Wally Walls of Newport, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man. Darrell Johnson, Klamath Falls; Bob Beebe, Coos Bay, and Donald Boatman of Blidgett, were the ushers. Bob Beebe lighted the candles just before the service.

Mrs. Don McLaughlin of Monmouth sang during the ceremony. Stanley L. Starr of Portland, brother-in-law of the bride, was the organist.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hargreaves chose a gray suit with navy blue accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a dark plum suit and matching hat, with black accessories. Both mothers wore purple orchid corsages.

Following the service, the reception was in the church reception rooms. Miss Sally Studnick of Jordan passed the guest book. Miss Diana Stewart of Salem was in charge of the gift table. The four-tiered white wedding cake, topped with a bride and bridegroom, centered the table covered with a pink cloth. Tall white tapers in silver candleholders flanked each side of the cake. Pink camellias and white hyacinths decorated the table.

For traveling, the bride wore a pink suit with navy blue accessories and a white orchid. The couple will make their home at Santa Ana, Calif., where the bridegroom is attending college. The bride is a graduate of Stayton union high school and attended college in Berkeley and Monmouth.

The bridegroom graduated from Seio high school and has served two years in the army stationed overseas.

WOODBURN—The monthly dinner meeting of the Woodburn Past Matrons club will be Wednesday, April 21, at the Masonic temple. Dinner will be served at 7 p.m. with Mrs. Evelyn Morris, Mrs. Maude Scott and Mrs. Minnie Richards as hostesses. A social meeting will follow.

Wedding at Unionvale

UNIONVALE — Yellow daffodils and snapdragons, Easter lilies and candlelight made the setting for a pretty wedding in the Unionvale Evangelical United Brethren church, Saturday evening, April 17, when Miss Phyllis Finnicum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Finnicum of the Webfoot district, was married to Charles L. Lundberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lundberg, Salem.

The Rev. Clyde Dollar, pastor, officiated at the 3 o'clock double ring ceremony in the presence of 200 relatives and friends.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding dress of white lace and tulle. The fingertip length veil was held by a crown. The bride's flowers were yellow and white rosebuds in cascade bouquet with white satin streamers on a white Bible.

Miss Donna Finnicum of McMinnville was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a lavender brocade organdy frock. Mrs. Robert Shelburne, sister of the bride, McMinnville, and Mrs. Bryan Lundberg of Salem, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. They wore lime green dresses and carried yellow carnation nosegays with streamers.

Bryan Lundberg of Salem was best man for his brother.

Ushers were Ollie Boline and Freeman Finnicum and they were also candlelighters and groomsmen.

Mrs. Zane May was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Clarence King and Mrs. Earl McCollum were in charge of gifts.

Following the ceremony a reception was given by the bride's parents at the Unionvale church gymnasium.

Mrs. Marion Boulden of Unionvale and Miss Doris Braat of Portland cut the cake. Both are aunts of the bride. Mrs. Dale Fowler of Grand Island was at the coffee urn; Mrs. Jones Prater of McMinnville at the punch bowl. Both also are aunts of the bride.

Assisting with serving were Mrs. J. R. Bell, Mrs. Clarence S. Crawley, Mrs. Clyde Dollar, Mrs. Ersel Gubser, Mrs. Louis Magee, Mrs. Clark Noble and Mrs. Raleigh Worthington.

Mrs. Finnicum wore a black and white two piece dress with red accessories for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue and white two piece dress with blue accessories. Both wore rosebud corsages.

For going away the bride wore a beige suit and cocoa and beige accessories. Upon their return from a wedding trip to California
