Silverton

SILVERTON—The meeting Monday evening at the Eugene Field library room for the Parents' Council for Handicapped, Retarded Children and Adults, with Mrs. John Main, president, in charge, was well attended. Mrs. R. C. Cook served as secretary.

A polo educational film, "Born in the White House" was shown, with discussions following.

For the June meeting, a 2 o'clock afternoon no-host dinner will be served at the Silver Falls State park, with any one interested welcome. The date is Sunday, June 6.

Mrs. Main has received a number of entry blanks for summer camp at Camp Easter on the coast at North Lake, called Tenmile lake area, at Lakeside, Ore. A 10-day stay at this camp for a handicapped youngster with nurse and protective care, can be reserved for a minimum fee by individuals or organized groups who wish to contribute to the unfortunate.

Replacing the usual annual May Spring Festival, the Eugene Field grade school pupils are planning a centennial parade at 1 p.m. Friday, May 14.

The youngsters are planning an all-out dress-up affair and are sending invitations to schools out of Silverton to attend the affair as guests.

The talent show, with a number of local young folk and Salem musicians and baton twirlers, as well as Stayton and Mill City entertainers, contributing largely to the pleasures of the evening, was a success.

The many business houses of Silverton sponsored the show that was arranged by Roy Davenport, president, and his assisting committee members of the recently organized Past Commanders club of Delbert Reeves American Legion post No. 7.

SILVERTON — All windows and electric light bulbs and fixtures were demolished in the large hop drier and storage building by vandals, on the old Salem-Silverton road. The owner is Paul Stadel, who feels that at least legal restitution of damaged property should be required of the offender, for whom a warrant has been issued.

Lee Collier, chairman, is announcing to the teenagers of town that he has application blanks for the local "Road-e" car-driving contest, at McGinnis field, Sunday, May 16, after the ball game. Drivers must hold a drivers' permit. The JayCeers are sponsors.
