6 Boston Reds Under Arrest

BOSTON (AP) — Three men and three women faced Superior Court action today on charges of conspiring to overthrow by force or violence the government of Massachusetts or the United States.

All were arrested last night after a Suffolk County grand jury investigating communism in Boston returned seven secret indictments. Still being sought is Daniel Boone Schirmer, 39, once an avowed member of the Communist party of Massachusetts.

Otis Arthur Hood, 54, four times Communist party candidate for governor and self-admitted titular head of the party in Massachusetts for many years, was arrested in his Boston home.
Ann Burlak Timpon, 43, also of Boston, known as the "Red Flame" when she led demonstrating striking textile workers in the early depression years, said her arrest was "a campaign stunt by Dist. Atty. Garrett H. Byrne, who believes the way to get elected is to prosecute Reds."

The two other women seized and taken to the Suffolk County jail are Mrs. Barbara Bennett Rosenkrantz, 31, of Springfield, and Mrs. Edith Abber, 33, of Boston.
Also arrested were Franklin P. Collier Jr., 48, of Melrose, head of the party's bookstore on Boston's Beach Street for many years, and Herbert I. Zimmerman, 29, who authorities said was education director of the Communist party in the Greater Boston area.

Stephen Speaks Here To Laundry Operators

The importance of reducing unit cost of services supplied to the public was emphasized by Hugh Stephen, Victoria, B.C., at the morning session of the 32nd Annual Convention of the Oregon State Laundry Owner's Association being held at the Senator Hotel Friday and Saturday.

Stephen said that by an infinite capacity for taking pains to effect the reduction of costs, the one-tenth of one percent saved here and the one-tenth save there would soon add up to over one percent saved. He stated that an important item considering the margin of profit upon which a laundryman works.

Ed Christie, Puyallup, Wash., was the other morning speaker and he told the gathered laundry owners how important it was to rely more upon doing things in one's city for the other citizens. He said that this would pay dividends faster than would straight advertising of his business.

As an example, he explained how, during his city's daffodil festival, he decorated his laundry office with more flowers than were used for decoration by the entire remainder of the city. He said he also gave ponies to various institutions including the home for mentally retarded children.

NAM Officials Greeted Here

A forecast of industrial and economical development on the Pacific Coast in the next 20 years was made at a conference at the Marion Hotel today between representatives of the National Association of Manufacturers and Salem industrialists, businessmen and Chamber of Commerce executives.

James Douthat of Washington, D. C., assistant vice-president of the NAM, was here to talk about national legislation. He was accompanied by Jack Shields and Tal Jones of the Portland office of the NAM. In a resume of preparedness plans of the national association Shields predicted that by 1975 the coast states population would have increased to 60 million people, which would be reflected in schools, jobs, necessary city services to the people.

Douthat, speaking about legislation in Washington, mentioned reform among other things desired by the NMA.
Mention was made of a film picture recently made of the Eyerly Aircraft operation in Salem, which later is to be shown on television throughout the nation.

HUK LEADER FACES CHARGES
MANILA (AP) — Communist Huk Leader Luis Taruc was charged Friday with 24 counts of rebellion, murder and other crimes. The 40-year-old Huk chief, who surrendered Sunday could get a death sentence if convicted.

Public Works Bid Approved

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Armed Services Committee Friday approved an $75-million dollar military public works construction program.
The measure authorized the construction but does not appropriate money to pay for it. The money will be provided in another bill.
Debate of the authorization bill is to begin in the House Wednesday.

Involved are projects at nearly 200 military installations in 48 states and the District of Columbia. In addition are projects in Alaska, Hawaii, the Marshall Islands, Philippine Islands, Japan, Iceland, Cuba, Okinawa and at undisclosed locations.

Russian Sub Strength 400

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy Friday estimated Russian submarine strength at more than 400—a figure a half hundred higher than the Navy has used for several years.

Rear Adm. W. G. Schindler, assistant chief of naval operations, disclosed the new estimate in picturing "chaos" he said could result if a Russian submarine penetrated an American harbor filled with war shipping. "Think what would happen if the explosive were a nuclear weapon," he said.

He also said that American submarines could approach an enemy coast and launch missiles "which may contain atomic warheads."
The admiral's remarks were prepared for an Armed Forces Chemical Assn. meeting here.

Axe and Fire

The murderer entered the house, armed with an ax, and crept into Cofran's room, then occupied by Lt. Rosewater. He struck the sleeping Rosewater with the axe before discovering his error. Then he went to an adjoining bedroom and attacked Capt. Wessler, believing he was Cofran. When he learned of his second mistake, he went upstairs to the attic where Cofran slept on a spare bed. Cofran was then bludgeoned with the ax.

Then the slayer set fire to the house and fled.
Canfield recalled what he said were the following facts in the investigation which prompted him to push the charges:
Leech had been friendly with a German girl secretary who was discharged by Cofran. Cofran also cancelled an order which would have provided business funds to her father "and financially ruined the old man."

An ax identified as one usually kept in the basement of Leech's home was found by German divers in the river at Passau shortly after the killings.

1. Sen. Gillette (D-Iowa) took the Senate floor to lambast both the present McCarthy-Army hearings and the kind of hearings McCarthy has run in the past. He said American prestige has been damaged. The "so-called McCarthy subcommittee," Gillette declared, has violated constitutional rights of citizens. And the Senate has the power and the obligation to meet that situation, he said.

Bidaud went to the nine-party session prepared to sidetrack for the moment the questions of Laos and Cambodia and concentrate on Viet Nam, where Communist-led forces are threatening the Red River delta.

Before Thursday's recess, the conference came to a dead stop over French demands for an immediate withdrawal of Red troops from Laos and Cambodia. France insists the problem of these two kingdoms be treated separately from the proposed cease-fire in Viet Nam.
