Baptists Give Missions Funds

The 25th annual business meeting of the Calvary Baptist church was held in the Hall of Youth, Wednesday evening. Reports of Boards and officers were held. Time was given to the consideration of the week-day religious education program proposed by the Ministerial Association. Mr. B. J. Holland, secretary of the Released Time program, presented this issue.

The major report of the evening was concerned with the church's achievement of its anniversary goal to give half of its income to missions. Nearly $24,000 was given by the church for missions and benevolences during the past year. This was 53 per cent of the total amount of the church's expenditure.

The church again voted to its operating expenses, although extra budgets were set up for building and improvement funds. D. R. Peterson, charter member of the church, was elected moderator to succeed D. A. Emerson who served during the anniversary year. Another action of the church was the granting of a license to preach to Jack Kiekel who has completed his first year of study at Berkeley Baptist seminary.

Rev. L. H. Randle will conduct the morning worship service this Sunday in the absence of the pastor, Rev. Omar N. Barth, who is attending the American Baptist convention sessions in Minneapolis.

Special Mission Day At Pratum Sunday

The Misses Lillian Beutler and Carmen Lyons, missionaries in the work of Jewish Evangelism in Brooklyn and Manhattan, New York, will speak at both morning and evening services of the Pratum Mennonite Church, Sunday.

Both Miss Beutler and Miss Lyons will speak at each service, reporting on the progress, problems as well as prospects of Jewish Evangelism in the greater New York City area. The subject for the evening service: Progress of Jewish Evangelism in Brooklyn and Manhattan, will be supplemented by the use of color slides.

Miss Beutler, a native of the Pratum community, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Beutler of Salem, Route 6, and Miss Lyons, a converted Jewess, met in New York where the latter was engaged in teaching Jewish evangelism in a special training course. They have been engaged in their present method of work for five years — open-air meetings, street meetings, children's meetings and Bible study groups. The story of their work is full of thrills, excitement and sometimes of "near riot." Their courage and persistence is attested by the fact that they are now the only evangelical team holding regularly-scheduled street meetings in the whole city of New York.

Both of these workers receive their support from the Pratum Mennonite church. The church extends a cordial invitation to the public for both of these meetings on Sunday.
