Salt Creek

SALT CREEK—The Salt Creek school had graduation exercises on Friday evening with Dr. Chas. Noxon of O.C.E. as the speaker. There were several readings and the harmony and rhythm bands played.

Marvin Fast, as chairman of the board of directors, presented the diplomas to Timothy Buhler and Dale Britt. Mrs. Nada Hassler of Monmouth is the teacher of the school.

Graduation exercises for the eighth graders at the Salem Academy were held on Friday evening too. Richard Voth was one of the 20 graduating and they had as their speaker Rev. William Clay. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Loewen and Jimmy and David were among those attending the meeting.

Norman Britton received his diploma from the S.D.A. College at College Place, Washington this weekend too. He had finished the required amount of work the last semester and he with his wife and children have been staying here with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Britton and Mrs. H. S. Miller went to College Place, Wash., over the weekend to be at the graduation exercises. On the way they planned to stay all night and with an aunt in Hood River but arrived there after the aunt had retired and since she is hard of hearing found it impossible to awaken her and so kept on driving. On the way back they stopped at Pasco, Wash. to visit with Mrs. Britton's two brothers. Mr. and Mrs. Lindon Bahnsen and children of Woodburn did the chores. Mrs. Bahnsen was formerly Virginia Britton.

The Orchard school is having open house on Tuesday afternoon from 1 to 2 o'clock when some of the work done during the year will be shown. Thursday is the last day of school for both the Orchard and Salt Creek schools. Miss Lena May is the teacher of the Orchard schools. Both schools are having a picnic on the last day.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Fleiselman attended the services of the Baptist church at Monmouth of which Rev. Roy Campbell is the pastor on Sunday. They formerly lived near Monmouth and were members of the church there. They were guests for dinner and the afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fleiselman. Ed and Gus are brothers.

Mrs. Robert Penner and the children accompanied Rev. Penner to Portland to visit with her parents while he finishes his school work at the Western Conservative Baptist Seminary. They came back on Wednesday.

The Men's Fellowship met in the Fellowship room of the Salt Creek Baptist Church on Monday evening, with the president, Walter Schmitke, in charge. After the devotion which were led by a president, a quartet consisting of Loren Lange, Orval Aebi, Marvin May and Walter Schmitke sang. Don Harger, sports writer for the Statesman, was the speaker of the evening.

Miss Peggy Hoekstre graduated from the Emanuel Hospital school of nursing on Sunday afternoon. She is not related to the Hoekstres here, but they were drawn together since their names are the same and both are of Holland descent. Peggy's mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hagga of London, Wash., her fiancé, David Jenkins of Portland, visited with the Hoekstres here on Saturday. Peggy plans to keep on working at the Emanuel Hospital for awhile.

Verna and Esther Hoekstre of Salem spent the weekend with their parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry
