

Embargo on Bonus Home Runs Saves Giants Money

2 Hit Pinch Homers in One Inning

By JACK HAND
AP Sports Writer

Warren Giles' embargo on the $100 home run bonus came just in time to save Leo Durocher a lot of money.

Yesterday two Giant pinch hitters, Bobby Hofman and Dusty Rhodes, tied a record by hitting pinch homers in the same inning.

of New York's 7-6 victory over St. Louis. Wes Westrum also homered in the sixth inning and Al Dark hit one earlier.

If Giles hadn't sounded a warning, Leo probably still would be handing out $100 bills as he did last week to Bill Taylor and Hank Thompson.

The Giant homers yesterday routed Vic Raschi and hung a defeat on Cot Deal. But the New Yorkers' lead was sliced to one half game by Brooklyn's double victory.

The Dodgers again fell back on relief pitching as they knocked off Chicago twice, 6-4 and 6-5. Clem Labine batted out the first game and Bob Milliken and Ben Wade held the fort in the second after Billy Loes left.

For the first time since Sept. 6, 1953, Pittsburgh actually won a double-header, downing Milwaukee 2-1 in 10 innings when Lew Burdette hit Curt Roberts with a pitched ball with the bases loaded. Fair Allie's three-run homer gave the Pirates the second game, 6-3 over Bob Buhl.

Cincinnati bumped off Philadelphia twice, 4-3 and 15-6, chasing their old teammate, Herm Wehrmeister. The Redlegs scored nine runs in the first inning of the second game.

Cleveland hiked its American League lead to four games by beating their old Boston spartan around the head 3-1 and 9-2 while New York and Chicago were dividing two. Bobby Feller's five-hitter and Art Houtteman's 10-hitter both had home runs help from Al Smith.

The Yankees managed 20 hits, including home runs by Bill Skowron, Gil McDougald, Mickey Vernon and Joe Collins in thumping Chicago 16-6 in the first game. Then Bob Keegan squared matters for the White Sox 7-3, becoming the first American League pitcher to win 10 games this year. The second game was held to eight innings by darkness. Sherm Lollar's two-run homer in the seventh was the big blow.

Baltimore's losing streak stretched to eight straight when Washington's Connie Marrero and Dean Stone pitched the Senators to a double victory, 7-1 and 7-2.

A Philadelphia-at-Detroit double-header was rained out.

It was 6-3 in favor of St. Louis when the Giants cut loose in the sixth. After Willie Mays singled with one out, Hofman batted for Billy Gardner and homered. Westrum slammed the ball out to the left field cut, ending Raschi's day, Rhodes, batting for Marv Grassom, the eventual winner, blasted reliever Deal's first pitch into the lower right field stands for the winning run.

Roy Campanella collected a bunt single, double and triple and Carl Furillo hit a three-run homer in Brooklyn's first-game triumph, in which Labine's stylish relief work saved the day for Carl Erskine. Milliken and Wade allowed three hits in the last 6-2 innings after Loes departed in the second game.

Pittsburgh's Max Surkont, former Milwaukee Brave, defeated his old mates for the third time when Burdette plunked Roberts with a pitch. Allie, a 221 hitter before the double-header, was the big blow of a six-run rally in the seventh inning that chased Buhl with his fifth defeat of a non-winning season.

Gus Bell and Tex Lukszewski hit successive doubles in the seventh inning for Cincinnati's first game success at Philadelphia. Wehrmeister walked four men and contributed a wild pitch to the nine-run inning before he gave way to a stream of successors. The big inning took 55 minutes as Cincy scored nine

How Good Is Hollywood? All-Star Tilt May Tell

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Just how good the league-leading Hollywood baseball team really is will be indicated Monday night in Gilmore Field, Hollywood, when the Stars take on the best of the rest of the league in a revival of the all-star game.

Only twice before in the 11-year series has one team taken on the field, and only once has one team won.

San Francisco beat an all-league team 2-0 in 1946.

Hollywood manager Bobby Bragan, whose players topped San Francisco, 5-4 and 8-1 Sunday, will pitch Roger Bowman. Seal manager Tommy Heath has five top hurlers to pick from. Six players on the all-league squad but over 300.

In other contests Sunday, San Diego took two grueling games from Seattle by the identical score, 7-4. Oakland beat Los Angeles twice, 4-2 and 6-3. And Portland whipped Sacramento 8-3 and 6-4.

This week Hollywood plays at Seattle, Sacramento at Los Angeles, Portland at Oakland and San Francisco at San Diego.

San Diego's Earl Rapp personally took care of Seattle in their hard-fought double header. Rapp singled in the winning run in a two-run ninth inning of the first game. He doubled in the 12th inning of the scheduled seven-inning nightcap, then scored the winning run on Harry Elliott's single.

Cellar-dwelling Portland jumped off to a 5-run lead in the first two innings and pounded four Sacramento pitchers for a victory in the first game. Walt Judnich smashed his 12th homer for Portland in the ninth.

His 13th, in the fourth inning of the second game, and a two-run sixth inning helped the Beavers win again.

Boys' Ball Leagues Filled Out

With the addition of the Downtown Lions Club as a sponsor in the "B" League, the roster of coaches and sponsors has been completed in both leagues. The Lions Club sponsors the B League team district one which is being coached by Bill Bevens, former pitcher with the New York Yankees who narrowly missed a no-hitter in the 1947 World Series.

Play will begin in the "C" League Monday, June 28, and in the "B" League Tuesday, June 29.

The completed roster of sponsors and coaches in the "B" League is: Downtown Lions Club (Bill Bevens), Master Service Stations (Jack Malmin and Don Kelly), Salem Laundry (Tony Vitton), Trux Oil (Andy Goldsby), Four Corners Merchants (Bob Fleury), Vista Market (Lee Shinn), and West Salem Machinery (Lee Fallin and Wally Gibson).

The "C" League roster is: Steink's (Bruce Williams and Otto Skopp), Legion Post 136 (Les Beard), Nameless Food Market (Short Barnett), Jackson Jewellers (Bill Greif), Berg's (Kizer Market), Bob Barrett's, Four Corners 20-30 Club (Howard Elwood), Dickson's Market (Lloyd Jones), and West Salem Lions (Stu Fredericks).

Woodburn Tops Salem Legion 5-1

WOODBURN — Bob Jantze's single in the seventh inning spoiled pitcher Johnny Beck's no-hitter as Woodburn downed Salem 5-1 here Sunday afternoon in American Legion junior baseball play.

The Salem Downtown Merchants team scored their lone run in the third inning as Bob Beals walked and then stole second, third, and home.

Only three men reached first base off Beck with the other one coming on an error in the first inning. The hit off Beck by Jantze was with two outs and the next man, Myron Bredahl, grounded out to end the game.

Salem pitcher Johnny Fredericks also had a fine game going as he allowed no runs and one hit in the first four innings but Woodburn reached him for one hit and one run in the fifth.

Woodburn scores once in the sixth and then added three more in the seventh inning. Salem was scheduled to play at home but couldn't find a field to use so the game was switched here and Salem was the home team.

Knox Defending Tennis Title in Spokane Match

SPOKANE — The 14th annual Inland Empire Tennis Tournament opened here Monday with top Pacific Northwest net stars shooting for the singles title last year by Clyde Knox of Portland.

Knox was on hand to defend the title and was seeded No. 1. Don Flye of Seattle was seeded No. 2 and Les Patten of Spokane No. 3.

Norman Merrill, Portland, was seeded first in junior men's singles, and Flye and John Dupriest, Tacoma, drew the top rating in men's doubles.

Stan Musial returned to first base for the first time since 1952 because of rookie Tom Alston's batting slump.

Partly Crippled Furgol Wins US Open With 284

By ORLO ROBERTSON

SPRINGFIELD, N. J. — Probably the most unattractive golfer ever to trod a fairway is the new U.S. Open golf champion and he can credit much to a crippled left arm.

Ed Furgol, a lean, 37-year-old professional from Clayton, Mo., put together consistent rounds of 71, 70, 71, and 72 over the long par-70 Baltusrol course for a 284 — good enough to finish one stroke in front of 23-year-old Gene Littler, 1953 amateur champion from Palm Springs, Calif., now playing as a pro.

Hogan Five Strokes Back

"My left elbow was a little stronger than Hogan's," said Furgol jokingly afterwards. "I kept one out of the rough." Defending champion Ben Hogan, seeking his fifth title, ended five strokes off the pace with a 289.

Furgol injured his left elbow at the age of 12 when he fell off parallel bars at Utica, N.Y. The injury never healed correctly and he was left with a crooked, cocked arm. Acting on doctors' orders, he took up golf to strengthen the arm and became an outstanding amateur before turning pro in 1945.

"But I never could afford 300 lessons," he said. "What I learned about the game came from watching others and constant practice."

The stiff left arm, however, proved valuable. He didn't have to learn to hold it that way as he guided the club head into the ball. He did develop something of an unorthodox swing.

His left arm came in good stead, however, on the 18th when he hooked his drive into the trees. For a moment it looked as if the title was going to elude him. But the crooked arm guided a seven iron true as he came out on a fairway of another course, hit the green from the side and took two putts to get down.

However, not until he had clinched the title, when Littler failed to drop an eight-foot putt on the 18th for a tie, did Furgol start talking. Not once during the three days did he engage in a conversation of more than two or three words as paced off the distance between shots. He was a tight-lipped man with a purpose.

Caddy Gets $1000

"Golf is my life," he said, "and I didn't want anything to distract me from a shot that might make a difference. That is why I never talked to anybody, not even my caddy." The caddy received $1,000 of Furgol's $8,000 first prize.

Between Littler and Hogan in the final standings came Dick Mayer, St. Petersburg, Fla., and Lloyd Mangrum, Niles, Ill., 286; Bobby Locke, Johannesburg, 288; Tommy Bolt, Houston, Fred Haas, New Orleans, Shelley Mayfield, Saguin, Tex., and amateur Billy Joe Patton, Morgantown, S. C., 289. Sammy Snead had 290.

Hurley May Get Return Go With Britain's Cockell

SEATTLE (UP)—Deacon Jack Hurley, manager of Harry (Kid) Matthews, may get the return bout with Don Cockell he has been stumping for.

Seattle promoters indicated during the weekend they are trying to get a return bout between Matthews and the British heavyweight fighter for some time later this summer.

Bob Richards Sets AAU Pole Vault Record on Final Try

ST. LOUIS — The Rev. Bob Richards, last-minute pole vault record wrote an exciting finish to the National AAU track and field championships. New meet records were set in 13 of the 21 events to make the 66th running one of the best.

Richards, competing for the winning Los Angeles Athletic Club, cleared the bar at 15 feet 3 1/2 inches on his final attempt Saturday night.

His record, an inch above the mark set in 1942 by Californian Cornelius Warmerdam, was the ninth in 12 events Saturday. Five marks were surpassed Friday and one of those, the 880-yard run, was bettered again in the finals Saturday by Mal Whitfield of Los Angeles AC, who ran 1:50.8.

Three double winners, headed by Art Bragg, former star of Morgan State of Baltimore, set five new marks. Bragg's 9.4-second 100 in Friday's preliminaries was a record. In the 220 finals, his 21.1 was a new mark.

Jack Davis of Los Angeles AC won the 120-yard high hurdles in 14 seconds and set a record of 23.2 seconds in the 220 low hurdles. Bob Backus, New York AC established records of 42 feet 5 1/2 inches in the 56-pound weight throw and 189 feet 3 inches in the hammer throw.

Jim Lea, Los Angeles AC, ignored the humid, 90-plus weather and ran the grueling 440 in 46.6

Landy Sets a New Mile Record With 3:58 Time

TURKU, Finland — Australian miler John Landy became the mile record holder in the world on Monday as he set a new world record with a clocking of three minutes 58.0 seconds.

Roger Bannister of England was the first to break the four-minute barrier. He ran the mile in 3:59.4 on May 6 at Oxford, England.

Landy's best previous mile was 4:01.6, which he did twice — the first at Turku May 31 and the second time a week later.

Landy also set a world record for 1,500 meters Monday with three minutes 41.8 seconds in the Turku Stadium.

Before Bannister and Landy began their assault this year, the mile record was held by Sweden's Gundar Haegg. Haegg's time was 4:01.4, set in 1945.

Landy's time still is subject to recognition by the International Amateur Athletic Federation. Bannister's 3:59.4 was formally recognized June 15.

America's Wes Santee, University of Kansas student, has made several strong stabs at the four-minute mile but has never quite broken through the barrier.

On June 4, he ran the mile in 4:00.6 in the Compton (Calif.) Relays.

Halbrook Will Be Ineligible Until January

CORVALLIS (UP) — Wade (Swede) Halbrook, the 7-foot-3-inch Oregon State basketball star who lead the Beavers to a Northern Division title last season, will be ineligible next season at least until January, Coach Slats Gill said today.

Gill said Halbrook did not accumulate enough credits during spring term and thus would not be eligible for pre-season drills or games.

The coach said, however, that Halbrook would go to summer school and that he could be eligible to play when the Northern Division season opens January 7.
