Bethel

BETHEL — O. B. Chapman who four weeks ago fell through the opening left for the fireplace chimney in the roof of their new home which he was building, is now recovering and able to get around slowly.

He was knocked unconscious and had four ribs broken and one lung punctured and was very badly bruised. Pieces of shiplap which had been nailed over the opening in the floor below, broke under his weight and fell through into the concrete slab beneath the house.

The Chapman's new home is being built near the Mackay highway on land belonging to his aunt, Mrs. Mabel Chapman, and near to her home. Last fall they sold their farm on East Street road to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bolt
