

Capital Women

Edited by MARIAN LOWRY FISCHER

Miss Toycen Engaged to Mr. Buswell

Announcement is being made by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Toycen of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Pauline Toycen, to John W. Buswell, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Buswell of Amarillo, Texas. The bride-elect has completed her freshman year at Oregon State college. Mr. Buswell will be a junior at OSC next year and is a member of Phi Kappa Tau fraternity. No date is announced for the wedding.

Miss Fleming Bride on Friday

The wedding of Miss May Fleming, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fleming, and Richard Frank Thurman, son of Mrs. Florence Thurman, was an event of Friday night in the First Congregational church, Dr. Julian J. Keiser officiating at the 8 o'clock rites. The bride wore a slate blue suit with white hat and navy blue accessories, and a corsage of white orchids. Miss Nancy Ladd attended the bride. She wore a pink suit with corsage of pink sweet peas. Donald Thurman was best man. The reception was at the home of the bride's parents. The couple will be at home at 1254 Highland Avenue, Salem.

Toastmistress Club Installs Officers

Final meeting of the Chemeketa Toastmistress club was last week. The following officers were installed: Mrs. Eric Nelte, president; Mrs. James Ervin, vice president; Miss Nancy Stuart, recording secretary; Mrs. A. S. Tussing, corresponding secretary; Mrs. E. W. Hillstrom, treasurer; Mrs. B. L. Treland, club representative. Mrs. L. C. Tennis is outgoing president.

The group met for a no-host dinner at the home of Mrs. E. W. Hillstrom. Table topics chairman was Mrs. C. E. Jaqua, toastmistress, Mrs. B. L. Treland. A gift was presented to Miss Nancy Stuart, who is leaving June 26, for Louisville, Kentucky, where she will represent Oregon, Canada, Washington, Idaho, and Alaska, in the International Toastmistress club speech contest. Miss Stuart is director of information and alumni affairs at the Willamette university.

CDA Event

WOODBURN — The final meeting until fall for Court Victory No. 793, Catholic Daughters of America, was last week at St. Luke's hall, with Mrs. John Doubrava, vice grand regent, presiding, in the absence of Mrs. Alvah G. Cowan. Mrs. Killian Smith, junior chairman for the past year, reported on the activities of the junior troops. It was voted to have the year-books printed again this year. Activities for the coming year were discussed.

Refreshments were served by a committee, with Mrs. Howard Schutz, chairman. Others on the committee were Mrs. John Zeran, Mrs. Joe Sowa, Mrs. Robert Vandehey, Mrs. A. J. Bleha, Mrs. Ben Baune, Mrs. Mary Hanel, Mrs. A. M. Heidt and Mrs. Harry Kestell.

PAST MATRONS club, Order of Eastern Star, met Friday night for the final event of the season. Mrs. Russell E. Pratt showed pictures, and talked of her recent trip to the south and east.

In July, the group has been invited to the home of Mrs. Byron B. Herrick, for a picnic in the garden.

In August, the club will go to Lincoln, for a Sunday picnic at the home of Mrs. and Mrs. W. L. Lewis.

MRS. E. F. HOBBS and son, Bobby, of Fresno, Calif., formerly of Salem, are visiting here as guests of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Bray.

VISITING in the capital are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Black and family of Los Angeles, former residents of Salem. Mr. Black some years ago was on the advertising staff of the Capital Journal.

MR. AND MRS. John Keller, of Logan, Ohio, have been visiting at the home of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Karl V. Pease. The Kellers are traveling in the west, and left Friday morning for Los Angeles, Calif.

DO YOU KNOW?

Goodwill Industries is a sheltered workshop for handicapped people. Your discarded clothing and household items will keep them independent. Phone 4-2248 for Tuesday pickups in West Salem and South of Center St. Fridays North of Center St.

Parties Given for Visitor From Eugene

Mrs. Kenneth Barker and daughter, Linda, formerly of Salem, left Saturday for their home in Eugene following a few days visit here at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Dayl Burres. On Friday morning, Mrs. Burres invited a group in for coffee for Mrs. Barker. In the group were Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Leonard Rowan, Mrs. Frank Gerdon, Mrs. Earl Viesko, Mrs. Gerald Fisher, Mrs. Willard Thompson, Mrs. Ora Harter and the hostess.

Mrs. Robert White entertained Thursday evening at bridge for Mrs. Barker. In the group were Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Burres, Mrs. Earl Viesko, Mrs. Chester Pickens, Mrs. Wesley Ritchie, Mrs. John Ritchey, Mrs. Charles D. Wood, Mrs. Ed Johnston, Mrs. Delwin Finley and the hostess.

Trinity Chapter Concludes Season

Final meeting of the season for Trinity chapter, No. 175, Order of Eastern Star, was Friday night. A special program was given for father's day and T. E. Burns was honored as father of the evening. Cyril Parker sang and Mrs. J. E. VanWynegarden read the story of Father's day.

New members received into the chapter were Mrs. Dale Taylor, Mrs. Carl Dixon, Mrs. Ernest Knapp and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Conrad. Mrs. Jack French, mother adviser of Cherry assembly, Rainbow, announced the formation of a mothers club for the assembly. Reports of the grand chapter meeting in Portland last week, were given by Steven Rosenbaum and Mrs. Betty Gear. Trinity chapter is to be co-host with Venus and Evergreen chapters for the annual picnic of the Willamette Valley matrons' and patron's association, to be July 25, at the Harnsberger farm near Independence. Announcement was also made of a no-host supper to be at a later date at the D. M. Eby's.

Betrothal Told

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Robert are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Joan Elaine Robert, to Ernest (Pat) Holman, son of Mrs. Grace Holman, Dallas. The wedding is planned for the fall.

Encampment Auxiliary

Willamette Encampment and auxiliary, met for a no-host dinner, Friday night, at the IOOF temple, with lodge session following.

Monday, June 28, the auxiliary is presenting a program and refreshments for the Rebekah lodge. Mrs. Cora Van Felt is arranging the program. Refreshment committee includes: Mrs. Charley Neubauer, Miss Wilda Siegmund, Mrs. Victoria Stiffler, Mrs. Howard Hunsaker, and Mrs. Floyd West.

At the auxiliary meeting, July 2, the losing team of the contest will serve refreshments to the winning team.

Club Wins Award

LEBANON — The national certificate for achievement in home and garden was awarded the Lebanon club for its annual herb tea. The presentation was made to Mrs. Peter F. Smith, local club president, last week, in Ashland, at the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs annual convention and award banquet.

In 1948 the Lebanon club was the recipient of a national purple ribbon for the herb tea. The Lebanon exhibit at the convention was a miniature herb garden modeled after the V. E. Wilson garden at 1284 Filbert street Lebanon.

Attending the conference from this area were Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. F. S. Moody, Mrs. Phil Lanning, Mrs. Thomas Dilard, Mrs. Howard Gearhart and Miss Helen Clem.

HERE over Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. William Judvine, recently of California and now to live in Portland. They were guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Davies.

HERE over the week-end from The Dalles were Judge and Mrs. F. Laurence Phipps. They were among guests at the wedding of Miss Evelyn Johnson and Richard Max Page.

WOODBURN — Members of St. Mary's court No. 393, Women's Catholic Order of Foresters, plan a picnic on Tuesday, June 22, at 2 p.m. at Settler's park. Juvenile members will be guests. Mrs. Clarence Hagenaue, chief ranger, is chairman of the committee in charge and will be assisted by other officers.

Laughter-Manning Rites Event of Sunday Afternoon

Calvary Baptist church was the scene of a beautifully arranged wedding Sunday afternoon when Miss Edna Manning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Manning, was married to Robert James Laughter, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Laughter of Fresno, Calif.

The altar was banked with lighted tapers in candelabrams and baskets of white gladioluses, peonies, Ester Reed daisies and blue delphiniums. The pews were marked with the gossamer and pale blue delphiniums and closed with white satin cord.

The Rev. Omar Barth officiated at the 4 o'clock ceremony. Miss Coralie Doughton sang, and Mrs. James Frances was organist. Michael Rear, Eugene, and Glenn Allen Rear, Reedsport, both cousins of the bride, lighted the tapers. Closing the aisles before the service were Misses Suzanne and Janet Rear, cousins of the bride. They wore pale blue organdie over taffeta dresses.

Mr. Manning presented his daughter in marriage. The bride wore a dress of white Chantilly lace over taffeta, styled with boat-shaped neckline and fitted sleeves, ending in an applied lace finish over tulle. The bouffant skirt was tulle, with an overskirt of lace. The fingertip illusion veil was lined with blue illusion, and cascaded from a jeweled tiara. The bride carried a white Job's Daughters Bible, marked with a white orchid and stephanotis.

Attendees in Blue Miss Cathryn Laughter, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. Her dress was delphinium blue organdie over taffeta, with scalloped bouffant skirt, edged with deep pleating in taffeta. She carried a parasol of American beauty satin and tulle, with white marguerites and delphiniums.

Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Weber, Albany, and Miss Janet MacDonald, both Delta Gamma sorority sisters of the bride. Their dresses were medium blue, styled like the honor attendant's. They also carried parasols of American beauty satin and tulle, filled with marguerites and blue delphiniums. Flower girl was Margaret Long of Pendleton. Her dress was like the honor attendant's, and she carried a small parasol like the other attendants. The bride designed all the dresses, and made her wedding dress.

Donald Laughter, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Kent Laughter, brother of the bridegroom, Edward Ball, and Robert Keller. Mrs. Manning attended her daughter's wedding in a dress of coral lace and tulle over taffeta, with white accessories and a white orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose a navy blue tulle over matching taffeta dress, powder blue accessories, and a white orchid corsage.

The reception was at the Delta Gamma sorority house at Willamette university. The rooms were decorated in blue and white. The receiving line was in front of the fireplace. The bride's table was covered with an Italian cut work cloth, edged in lace. The bride's cake was ice blue and white, flanked by tall white tapers in silver candleholders and pleated tulle. The cake was surrounded by white carnations sprinkled with silver. The bridegroom's cake and ice cream balls were served from a table covered with white organdie over blue, surrounded by Ester Reed daisies.

Assist at Reception Cutting the bride's cake was Mrs. Malcolm MacDonald. Cutting the bridegroom's cake were Mrs. C. R. King, Santa Cruz, Calif., aunt of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Harold Messinger, McMinnville, cousin of the bride. Pouring were Mrs. C. G. Rear, Eugene, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Ray Cleverger, McMinnville, Mrs. Robert Manning, Philomath, aunts of the bride, and Mrs. Don Fulmer, Fresno, grandmother of the bridegroom. Mrs. Jerrol Arnold and Miss Nancy Rear, Eugene, cousin of the bride, served the punch. Miss Lois Archibald was at the door, assisted by Miss Mary Lou MacDonald. Miss Jo Taylor, Portland, passed the guest book. Serving were Misses Charlen Woods, Jackie Prall, Lorene Phillipi, Salmie, Janet DeLoe, Camas, Wash., Claudia Yunker, Milwaukie, Beverly Orkton, Beaverton, Sharon Duffy, Portland, Dagny Pedersen, Astoria, Mrs. Dick Goff, Portland, all sorority sisters of the bride, and Mrs. Wilbur Green, Eugene, cousin of the bride. Passing rice bags were Misses Joan Long, Pendleton, Kathleen Rear, Mary Rear, and Elizabeth Rear, Eugene, cousins of the bride. In charge of gifts were Miss Marilee Rear, Eugene and Alonah Rear, Reedsport, cousins of the bride.

When the couple left for a trip to the Oregon beaches, the bride wore a pink boucle coat lined with white over matching taffeta dress, pink flowered hat and shoes, and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. In the fall, the couple will be in Columbus, Ohio, where Mr. Laughter will enter graduate school at Ohio State university.

Engagement Told—The engagement of Miss Cora Smith, above, Salem, daughter of Mrs. Martha Smith of Bellingham, Wash., to David Lee Cooley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Cooley of Salem, has been announced. (Jesten-Miller studio picture)

MR. AND MRS. Jay Walter Johnson of LaGrande are the parents of a son, Richard Arnold, born June 18. The grandmothers are Mrs. Arnold Johnson of Salem and Mrs. E. Reynolds of Monmouth. Mrs. Johnson is leaving today for LaGrande to greet her new grandson and will remain for two weeks.

AMONG Salem women at the Aero club guest day on Wednesday at Oswego Country club will be Mrs. Leon Perry and Mrs. Edward Roth. There will be golf, a luncheon, bridge and dinner.

THE PEERLESS BAKERY Bakers for her Majesty the Housewife 244 Green Stamps 170 N. Commercial

Good-Bye Corns! No Other Method Does All This: 1. Relieves pain in a jiffy... 2. Removes Corns one of the fastest ways known to medical science... 3. Stops Corns before they can develop... 4. Prevents Sore Toes, Blisters... 5. Excess New or Tight Shoes. At Drug, Shoe, Department and 5-10¢ Stores. Super-soft Dr. Scholl's Zino-pads

State Board Of Group Meets Here

State board of the Oregon Federation of Republican Women met in Salem Saturday for luncheon at the home of Mrs. Leon Perry, president of the Salem unit.

Plans were made for the group's part in the biennial national convention to be in Los Angeles in September. Mrs. Clark C. McCall, state president, and Mrs. Perry will attend from Salem.

Attending the luncheon were Mrs. H. A. Pallady, Mrs. William M. Burns, Mrs. Roy T. Bishop, Mrs. William S. Roberts, all of Portland; Mrs. Edward O. Stader, Sr., of Bend; Miss Ethel Hajek of Portland, Mrs. B. M. LeFevre of Newberg, Mrs. R. L. Davis of Portland, Mrs. Eva A. Moore of Tigard, Mrs. H. D. Rohde and Mrs. E. H. Wright, both of Albany; Mrs. George Batters of Tigard; Mrs. C. H. Hilton of Freewater; Mrs. Frank Colcord and Mrs. Myrtle Wilson, both of Newberg; Mrs. Clark C. McCall, Mrs. William L. Phillips, Sr., Mrs. Henry H. Marsden, Mrs. Ed Lewis, Mrs. E. F. Kirkwood, Mrs. Perry, all of Salem.

Several from Salem attended the third annual Theta Rho assembly at Pilot Butte inn in Bend over the week end. Attending from here as distinguished guests were Mrs. Lawrence McClure, vice president of the F. L. Girls of Oregon; Mrs. Charles Neubauer, treasurer of the Ladies auxiliary, Patriarchs Militant; George Naderman, past grand patriarch of the Grand Encampment; W. Robert Massey, deputy grand master of the grand lodge of Odd Fellows; Mrs. Clarence Townsend, past president of the Ladies auxiliary, Patriarchs Militant.

Among new officers for the state group is Miss Jeanne Roth of Salem as warden. Next year's assembly will be at Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Wackerbarth are celebrating their silver wedding anniversary June 27, with a reception at the home, 1180 Alpine Drive, from 2 to 6 p.m.

HONORING Miss Lillian McDonald, who will be leaving the first of July for her home in Nelson, B.C., two parties have been given recently.

Dr. Helen Pearce, Miss Dorothy Pearce and Mrs. Margaret Rosecrans entertained Saturday night at the Pearce home for Miss McDonald.

Another hostess feasting Miss McDonald last week was Miss Selma Hilmer, who entertained at a dinner party.

HOSTS at a family dinner on Friday evening were Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Hilfiker, the affair honoring their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Evelyn Peterson (Evejin Hilfiker). The Petersons are leaving to reside in Ogden, Utah, where Dr. Peterson will practice dentistry.

IN PORTLAND, Sunday, was Mrs. Clark C. McCall, state president of the Oregon Federation of Republican Women, to attend the silver tea given by the Business Women's unit of the federation at the home of Misses Harriet and Florence Leach.

SHOCK YOUR FRIENDS TODAY They'll see you looking much lovelier than you looked yesterday

More than astonishing. It's astounding! In 20 seconds you appear to have suddenly grown an entirely new and flawless skin. Lanolin Plus Liquid Make-Up covers the sins of your own skin that will. And it makes you look so pert and vivacious because each of the five shades is a living color that looks alive. Also, Lanolin Plus Liquid Make-Up helps make your skin softer and smoother looking. $1 plus tax.

Lanolin Plus LIQUID MAKE-UP

Don't Let Acid Stomach Ruin Your Good Times

A roll of Tums costs only a dime. But it's worth its weight in gold when playing golf, hunting or relaxing over the weekend. You never know when acid indigestion or sour stomach are going to spoil your fun. But Tums neutralize excess acid almost before it starts. Eat 1 or 2 Tums after meals or whenever over-indigestion causes distress. Get Tums today. 24¢ only 10¢ a roll.

Miss Dorothy Pederson is Bride Here on Saturday

Blonde Dorothy Jane Pederson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Pederson, was a pretty bride of Saturday when her marriage to Clyde Herbert Fahlman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Fahlman of Eugene, was solemnized in St. Paul's Episcopal church. The service was at 8 o'clock in the evening. The Rev. George H. Swift officiating.

Baskets of white gladioluses and white and pink snapdragons were arranged at the church chancel rail for the service and on the altar were vases of sweet peas and pink and white snapdragons.

Ronald Craven was soloist, Miss Ruth Bedford playing the organ. Acolytes for the service were David Bradshaw and Steven Berglund.

The bride's dress was of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over taffeta. The bodice was designed with square neckline, outlined by cutouts of the lace, and there was pleated nylon tulle across, both in front and back. The long pointed sleeves tapered over the hands. Lace trimmed the front of the skirt, extending in scallops to the back and into the chapel length train. The fingertip veil of nylon tulle was arranged from a bandeau of lace that was trimmed with seed pearls. The bride carried her Rainbow Bible with a white orchid and ribbon streamers caught with stephanotis. She wore the gift from the bridegroom, a watch matching her rings. Mr. Pederson gave his daughter in marriage.

Six Attendants Miss Edna Manning (who became Mrs. Robert James Laughter on Sunday afternoon) was honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Miss Phyllis Pearson of Portland, Miss Audrey Campbell of Oswego, Miss Sue Riddelsbarger of Eugene and Mrs. Jerrol Arnold of Salem.

All attendants wore turquoise silk shantung frocks, ballerina length, a fold of the material around the square necklines forming the short sleeves, and very full skirts extending from the fitted bodices with a bow at one side. All carried cascade bouquets of daisies and sweet peas, ribbons matching the dresses. They also wore daisies in their hair.

Young Miss Karen Pederson, sister of the bride, was junior attendant. She wore a floor length frock in the same color as those worn by the other attendants, and she also carried the bouquet of daisies and sweet peas.

Donald Collin of Portland was best man. The ushers were Arnold Pederson, brother of the bride, Andrew Berwick of Eugene, Fred Turner of Portland and James Crittenden. The bride's mother wore a dusty rose lace dress with white accessories and corsage of white roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue shantung dress with white trim, white and navy accessories and corsage of white roses.

At Reception The reception following was in the church parish hall. Cutting the cake were Mrs. John Loeven, Mrs. John Meir, Mrs. Floyd McCall, Mrs. Arthur Krohn of McMinnville. Pouring were Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. David Eason, Mrs. Wayne Henry, Mrs. W. Wells Baum. Assisting were Miss Mary Schoewler, Miss Dorothy Carlson, Miss Joan Rademacher, Miss Norma Wilson, Mrs. Julius Haugenson, Mrs. J. B. Haugenson, Miss Ann Dielschneider, Miss Barbara Ospain, Miss Sue Raiston, Miss Alexa Forne, Miss Janet Wolf, Miss Doris Jean, Miss Nancy Walker, Miss Marilyn Land, Miss Linda Meier, Mrs. Gary McCall, Miss Rosalie Blickenstaff, Thomas Smith. Daisies and sweet peas decorated the reception room and bride's table.

For going away the bride wore a sky blue summer suit, outlined in pearls around the neckline, black taffeta hat, white jacket and black and white accessories. The couple will drive across country following a trip to the beaches and Portland, and will be in Georgia, Mr. Fahlman to be at Fort Benning.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Millhouse of Williston, N. D., grandparents of the bride, and her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Haugenson of Minot, N. D., and their daughter, Mrs. Robert Smith and her two sons.

LEAVING Monday morning for her home in Vancouver, B. C., following a visit here was Mrs. Jeannette Jones, formerly of Salem.

Salem Trio To Attend Convention

Three Salem women will be leaving Wednesday morning by car for Sun Valley, Idaho, to attend the 26th biennial convention of Delta Gamma sorority to be at Sun Valley, June 23-30.

Mrs. Lloyd G. Hammel, delegate from Salem alumnae group of Delta Gamma, Mrs. Jack Miller and Mrs. Eugene Booth will be leaving from here. The Willamette university chapter delegate is Miss Gail Urdike of Portland.

Principal convention speaker will be Inez Callaway Robb, columnist for Scripps Howard and United Features Syndicates. The national fraternity projects, include aid to blind and visually handicapped, a nursery school, sight-saving classes and vision testing programs.

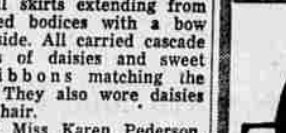

ARRIVING Saturday from Sacramento, Calif., were Dr. and Mrs. William S. Parker and children, Kathy, Susan and Randy. They are visiting for a week at the home of Dr. Parker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Parker.

On Sunday, guests at the Parker home also were Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Endicott of Coos Bay, brother-in-law and sister of Mrs. C. W. Parker.

TALLMAN PIANO STORES 395 S. 12th, Salem

Woman Tortured On Main Street "They're killing me," she cried, "I'm burning, caloused feet!" But why moan about it when every medicated Ice-Mint with soothing lanolin does such a grand comforting job. Starts with amazing speed to soften, soothe, cool and calm. So cooling, restfully refreshing for tired, burning feet. Get Ice-Mint today.

Cleaning Repairing Restyling No fur coat too old to be restyled or traded on something new.

Miller's FRIGID FUR STORAGE

Come in for your free beauty analysis and gift from Helena Rubinstein!

Helena Rubinstein's personal representative is here from the New York Salon to tell you everything about your make-up and your skin care, give you an individual beauty analysis, and present you with a $100 size beauty mask for your individual skin type—at absolutely no cost to you!

Here this week only. Make your appointment today.

CAPITAL DRUG STORE 405 State St. Corner of Liberty WE GIVE 244 GREEN STAMPS