Miss Evans Recent Bride at Woodburn

AURORA — Miss JoAnne Marie Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Evans of Aurora, was wed to Joseph Stephen Jessel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jessel, of Vancouver, B.C., at St. Luke's Catholic church, Woodburn, Saturday morning, June 12. The Rev. Father Michael Fleming officiated. White candles and baskets of white gladioluses and pink peonies decorated the altar.

The bride chose a dress of white slipper satin for her wedding. It was fashioned with a train, net yoke and seed pearls around the neckline. Her fingertip tulle veil extended from a white satin crown ornamented with white pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with two white orchids. Mr. Evans gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Barbara Evans, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a white lace and net over pink taffeta dress with matching lace cap, and carried an arm bouquet of pink peonies and white gladioluses. Bridesmaids were Miss Madeline Jessel, Portland, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Lila Herzberg, McMinnville, Miss Mary Wettstein and Miss Frankie McLaren, Aurora. They were dressed identically in white lace over aqua taffeta dresses, lace caps and carried arm bouquets like the honor attendant's.

Donna White, Portland, was flower girl. She wore a white dotted nylon Swiss over pink taffeta dress. Ellen Borschowa, Portland and Michael Borschowa, Portland, were ring bearers.

Dale Callaway, Hubbard, was best man. Ushers were Richard Thagon, Canby; Larry Cole and Charles Ferguson, Aurora, and Merlin Kliever, Hubbard.

Mrs. Evans wore a white wool dress, with navy jacket and hat. Her corsage was pink cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Jessel chose a gray floral print dress and corsage of lavender cymbidium orchids.

Pink and white peonies and gladioluses decorated the parish hall for the reception. Mrs. B. F. Morse of Canby and Mrs. Michael Borschowa, Portland, cut the bride's cake. Mrs. John Killinger, Salem and Mrs. Duane Zacher, Canby, assisted. Mrs. Tom Cannel, Canby, and Mrs. William Bacon, Albany, were at the punch bowl. Miss Charlotte Anderson and Miss Maryanna Seikauf, Aurora, served the coffee. Miss Bette Lou Bacon, Albany, passed the guest book. In charge of gifts were Misses Lorraine and Gertrude Jessel of Vancouver, B. C. Jackie Pinkham of Hubbard and Loretta Ferguson, of Aurora.

After a trip to the Oregon beaches. Mr. and Mrs. Jessel will be at home in the Arden Hams cottage at Lone Elder.

SILVERTON — Mr. and Mrs. William Hanson are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, Jeffrey William, Saturday morning, June 19, at Silverton hospital.

LEBANON—At the Berlin Union church on June 11, Miss Fay Wheeler, daughter of Mrs. Cleo Wheeler, and Davia Alan Blacketer, son of Mrs. Dorothy Blacketer, were wed at evening rites. Both families are Lebanon residents.

The Rev. Walter Rowlee read the service at the altar decorated with roses and ferns. Soloists were Mrs. Harry Seelye and Paul Blacketer, who accompanied at the organ by Mrs. A. J. Landstrom.

The bride, dressed in white slipper satin and carrying red roses, was given in marriage by her uncle, Harold Leach.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Richard Smith.

Best man was Richard Smith, and ushers were Harry Seelye and Edward Landstrom.

A church reception followed the wedding. On their return from a wedding trip the newlyweds will be at home in Berlin.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to stop bleeding—without surgery.

In case after case, pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. Now this new healing substance is offered in ointment form under the name of Preparation H. Ask for it at all drug stores—money back guarantee.
