

Miss Casey, Lt. Field Are Wed In Albany; to Live in Virginia

ALBANY — One of the season's attractive brides was Miss Sharon Marie Casey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Stephen Casey, who was wed to 2nd Lt. Ronald Bruce Field, son of Mrs. M. L. Field, and Robert Field, of Arcadia, Calif. The nuptial vows were exchanged on Saturday evening, June 12, at 8 o'clock, at the First Presbyterian church, with the Rev. Morton L. Booth, D. D., officiating at the double ring service.

Preceding the ceremony, Robert Koehler, Corvallis, sang, accompanied by Mrs. Olga Kurtz, who also played the wedding marches. The chancel was decorated with large baskets of garnet and white gladioluses, and palms. The chancel rail was arranged with greenery and white daisies. Spiraled candelabums and other candelabums were also used inside the chancel. Tapers were lighted by Rex Verne Casey, brother of the bride, and William Arnett.

The bride was attractive in her wedding dress that was designed with lace bodice and long sleeves, and scalloped, boat-shaped neckline, trimmed with seed pearls and rhinestones. The skirt of pleated nylon tulle fell over a satin sheath with a slight train. The bride's veil was handmade applied lace from Brussels, Belgium and was held in place with a Juliet cap with scalloped halo effect outlined with pearls and rhinestones. The bride carried her white Rainbow Bible, with a center of white orchid, and stephanotis.

Miss Alice Allison Kropp was the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Jimmie Doerfler, Mrs. Roger Reid, and Miss Jo Ann Casey of McMinnville, cousin of the bride. The attendants were dressed alike, in frocks of aqua-shaded organdie styled with fitted bodices, boat-shaped necklines with daisy applique trim and full embroidered skirts. Each carried a heart-shaped bouquet of aqua shaded tulle with garnet-colored rosebuds. Lt. Robert L. Field, San Diego, Calif., brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Lt. Clarence Kaufman, Portland; Lt. Richard McCullough, Tacoma, Wash.; Lt. Jerry McConkie, Union and Lt. Willis E. Wilson, Grants Pass.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Casey was attired in a dress of aqua chiffon over taffeta, made with lace bodice and trimmed with pearls. With it, she wore a matching Juliet cap and mitts, and a white orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a cocoa-shaded net dress with lace bodice, matching mitts and hat, and her corsage was of Talisman roses.

Immediately following the ceremony there was a reception in the church social hall. The bride's table was centered with a five-tiered wedding cake surrounded with a wreath of garnet colored roses. On the fireplace mantel an arrangement of Calla lilies and white tapers in candelabums added to the scene. The receiving line was formed in front of the fireplace.

Pouring were Mrs. Neal E. Saling and Miss Ann Deinama, both of Corvallis. Serving the bride's cake were Mrs. Walter Kropp of Albany and Mrs. Clyde Gideon of Portland. Mrs. Robert A. Field, of Arcadia, Calif., served the bridegroom's cake. At the punch bowl were Mrs. Guy Casey, McMinnville, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Arthur A. Pyfer. Hostesses at the reception were Mrs. Harold Arnett, Mrs. George Fretland and Mrs. Dan Johnstone. Mrs. Howard Keishner was in charge of the guest book. Those who served were: Miss Ginia Campbell and Miss Janet Dahl, both of Portland; Miss Charlotte Nygren, Miss Mary Arnett, both of Albany and Miss Sandra Jane Salner, Corvallis.

After the reception, the couple left on a wedding trip and are now enroute to Quantico, Va., by automobile, where Lt. Field is stationed, with the U. S. Marines. For traveling, the bride wore a heavenly blue silk shantung two-piece costume made on princess lines with which she wore white accessories and carried a pink faille coat. She also wore a white orchid corsage.
