Silverton

SILVERTON — The Yoder clan of Yoder, are to meet in annual reunion at the Silverton park, Sunday, Aug. 1 Mrs. George Christenson, announced.

Dr. E. L. Henkel has reported the plans of the Willamette Valley Veterinarians to meet Sunday afternoon for a picnic dinner and annual meeting at Silverton city park.

F. M. Powell, chairman of the local Lions club "whisker committee," has assigned the job of Saturday evening, August 7, of judging for recipients of cash awards for winners, to the members of the Salem Marion County Court.

The judging will be following the parade.

Two home purchases announced include the Emil Loes, who bought the Ed R. Adams home on Coolidge St., and are moving from their 18-acre farm this week, which has been sold to the Clarence Whitteys. Mrs. Adams is located at an apartment residence on Fisk St. owned by her son, Ralph Adams.

Mrs. Irene Roubal, member of the high school faculty, has written friends of her visiting for a fortnight at Lake Chautauque, N. Y., in company with her mother. Her son, Theodore, is in the Monmouth, N. J. Army Signal Corps. Mrs. Theodore Roubal and baby daughter, Diane, are remaining in Portland for the summer at the home of her parents.

Miss Ruth Lorenzen is announcing the meeting of the Deardorff clan in annual picnic to be at Champoog Park Sunday, Aug. 1, dinner to be at 12 noon, in Section "B", no-host, and guests to bring own table service.

Lyons

LYONS — Several from Lyons motored to Redmond Sunday afternoon to attend the wedding of Miss Shirley Johnston and Everett Smyth of that city, held at the Presbyterian community church. Shirley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnston, former residents of Lyons. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Power, with Mrs. Power soloist for the wedding; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Julian and Glen Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Johnston and Kathryn; Mrs. Floyd Bassett, Mrs. Alice Huber, Mrs. Clyde Bressler and Mrs. Alex Bodaker and their father Elmer Hiatt, who visited with his brother Charles Hiatt of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Nydegger, Beverly and Mabel and Ronnie Lengacher were week end guests at Elgin, Oregon.

Cecil Bassett, Brent Bentley and Bob Roy left Saturday on a few days vacation trip. They will go as far south as the red woods by way of Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Berry and son, Donald, of Tillamook, were weekend guests in Lyons at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Berry. They also visited her mother, Mrs. Susie Haynes of Mill City. Additional Sunday guests at the Berry home were Mr. and Mrs. Willard Berry and sons from Sweet Home.

Mrs. Shirley Emery from Westville, Ill., is visiting at the home of her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Palmer.

Mrs. Leora Z. Stevens, chairman of the community project committee of the Santiam Valley Grange Home Economics club, has announced that the State Highway Commission has reconsidered and allowed a walk to be built along one side of the bridge between Meama and Lyons.

This walk was presented to the Home Economics Club early in the year as its community project by Mrs. Stevens, after her personal efforts for this walk had failed.

The Altar Society of the St. Patrick Catholic church held a meeting at the Catholic hall with plans made for the annual bazaar and dinner which will be held Aug. 29.

Mill City

MILL CITY—Visiting last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Morrison was her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Foster, of Doylestown, Penn., and Miss Bertha Dawson of Philadelphia. The two elderly ladies made the trip by auto. They had not seen the Morrises for 42 years.

Mrs. Mabel Parker, worthy Matron of the Eastern Star Chapter in Mill City, entertained a group of her officers at her Detroit home last Thursday. Attending the luncheon were Dorothy Harris, Betty Shaw, Addie French, Jacqueline Smith, Opal McRoberts, Mary Tuers and Laura Worthington.
