8 Coast Teams to Play Loop Rivals

Rose Bowl Prospect Should Be Clarified

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A bunch of big fat question marks pop into view as the Pacific Coast Conference settles down to the bulk of its circuit schedule. The biggest, of course, is the Rose Bowl.

Intersectional contests don't count in Rose Bowl bids, and those have taken up the bulk of the schedule so far. Most of the Coast teams have yet to meet each other.

Eight of the nine outfits tangle with Coast rivals Saturday. USC hosts California, Washington travels to Stanford, Washington State and Idaho tangle in their annual battle at Pullman, and mighty UCLA visits Oregon State. Oregon and independent San Jose State knock heads on the Ducks' home grounds.

Logical choice for the Rose Bowl would be the Uclans—if the rules would let them repeat their New Year's Day visit of 1954. They are undefeated and lead the circuit in six of 10 statistical categories.

USC seems to be the first eligible choice, with a perfect conference record of two victories. But California and Washington, both with 1-1 histories, are possibilities.

Wednesday's practice sessions didn't seem to indicate much except gloomy rain up north and sunny confidence in California.

Rain was the outlook for guest UCLA at Oregon State, but it's not expected to hamper the Bruins bowl'em-over ground attack.

South of the rain belt, Coach Lynn (Pappy) Waldorf, had rare praise for his inexperienced California team.

"I'm pleased with the advance we've made in defense and I've noted an improvement in our blocking," he said.

And the further south you go, the sunnier it gets. Led by tackle Ed French and end Leon Clarke, the USC varsity consistently smashed the California attack as displayed by the reserves.

Shaw has a total of 845 yards in five games, 748 of them by passing. The Webfoot ace has completed 53 of 106 passes.

Larson has completed 54 of 86 passes, although his yardage total is 678. Larson's total offense figure, good enough for second best in the country, is 673 yards, since he has lost three rushing.

Dick James of Oregon is second nationally in pass receptions with 19 for 256 yards, behind Jim Hanft of California who has 22 for 269 yards.

Oregon State's Jim Withrow is third nationally in punting with a 43.2 average.

Vikings To Host No. 10

Gray Lists Lineup Vs. Favored Gresham

While the North Salem high school Vikings go into Friday night's game here as underdogs to Gresham Gophers, Coach Al Gray said today that his gridders are improving with every game and stand a good chance against the team rated 10th in the state.

Gresham has lost only one game in five—12-0 to sixth-ranked Milwaukie and sports its usual heavy line anchored by 250-pound tackle Jack Stone. There also is tackle Lee Provoll, 225.

The Gophers, coached this year by Brad Ecklund, a University of Oregon all-conference lineman of the past under Coach Jim Aiken, are using the T formation in the Aiken style. Last year Gresham was rated equally tough but fell before the rampaging Vikings then coached by Ray Segale and Bud Monnes.

Coach Gray put the Vikings through a hard practice Tuesday and drilled them on punting and running under punts, plus execution of plays, Wednesday. He listed no serious injuries and no changes in starting offensive lineup.

North Salem ran into tough luck last Friday as the Bend Lava Bears beat them, 27-20, being on the four-yard line as the game ended. The Viki beat Sweet Home, 39-0, almost equaling South Salem's 46-7 win over Sweet Home. Losses have been to Jefferson of Portland, Corvallis, Lebanon and Bend. Only one game, with Corvallis, 0-12, was decided by more than one touchdown.

After Friday night the Vikings must face Albany and finish against South Salem.

Lineup:
LE—Del Funk.
LT—Jim Coates.
LG—Fred DeLapp.
C—Ken Karl.
RG—Jim Gordon.
RT—Bill Jacobson.
RE—Nick Error.
QB—Jim Backstrand.
RB—Bobby Cotner.
LB—Jim Norval.
FB—Terry Salisbury.

SALEM ACADEMY'S football squad has stressed defense and polishing of plays this week in hopes of getting on the victory wagon in Capitol league play Friday.

The Crusaders will go to Stayton for an 8 p.m. game against the team which last week lost to league-leading Central, 19-0, after holding Central 0-0 at halftime. Salem Academy has two games more, at Central and against Netucca here.

Coach Bob Funk said today he was undecided about whether to start Darrel Buhler or Loran Franke at right tackle and that his regular fullback, Jon Knaupp, has an injury which may hinder him. Dave Phillips would take over.

His starters:
LE—Delmar Workentin, 165.
LT—Virgil Rogers, 170.
LG—Ken McClain, 155.
C—Dick Voth, 150.
RG—Gene Penrod, 160.
RT—Darrel Buhler, 145, or Loran Franke, 175.
RE—Bruce Dalke, 165, or Glen Pfla, 165.
QB—Glen Hodges, 160.
RB—Jim Wallace, 170.
FB—Dave Phillips, 150, or Jon Knaupp, 135.
LB—Larry Ediger, 140, or Rhodes Pringle, 155.

James Slated To Play Sat.
EUGENE, Ore. (U-P) — The news that halfback Dick James will be able to play against San Jose State here Saturday cheered Oregon supporters Wednesday.

James injured a wrist in the game with Southern California last weekend and it had been uncertain whether he would be in the lineup against the Spartans.

Despite a heavy rain, the Ducks held their regular drills and concentrated on improving their already potent passing attack. Quarterback George Shaw, the nation's No. 2 college passer, did the throwing.

Bearcats Dale Greenlee (left), hometown football product, and Ken Cooper, Portland senior, will be in the Willamette university line Saturday night against Linfield at McCulloch stadium when the Bearcats return after a month's absence. Greenlee is a starting sophomore tackle and Cooper the first string center.

Linfield to Boast 3 Running Threats

Bearcats May Be Full Strength Saturday

Three running threats will pace the Linfield Wildcats against Willamette university Saturday night at McCulloch stadium in what the invaders hope will be the end of narrow defeats.

The Bearcats, playing before a Parent's Week-end crowd, are planning to turn loose their Pony Express backfield on the visitors who last year scored three fourth-quarter touchdowns to beat Willamette 21-7 and win second place in the conference.

Coach Ted T. Ogdahl of W.U. said today that he has instructed his players to go out and score an "insurmountable" number of points before the fourth quarter opens. His line has been warned about the running of Al Tarpington, Vern Marshall and Jerry LeBlanc.

LeBlanc, on the other hand, is leading scorer in the conference with 36 points and there is a freshman quarterback third in the league in passing and who also is the Wildcat's leading ground-gainer. He is Ron Parrish, a yearling from Prineville's fabulous prep team.

Parrish has completed 411 per cent of his passes for 253 yards, just behind Willamette's sophomore passer, Harvey Nefendorf, who has connected on 547 for 260 yards. Joe Brock is Parrish's leading receiver.

Ogdahl further related that Guard Bobby Dyer will be able to start at left guard despite an ankle injury but that Gordon Chang, stout No. 3 guard, will be lost this week from a head injury.

Bearcat speedsters when it comes to moving the ball around are Windy Sequiera, Bobby Zoelch, George Bardsley and Lou Lofland, all between 140 and 165 pounds.

The South Salem high cross country squad goes after its fourth win in five starts Friday afternoon when they meet the Corvallis Spartans at South Salem.

South Salem beat Albany in their first meet and then beat both Gates and North Marion in the second race. Then they lost to Eugene and last week trimmed North Salem.

The 1-2-3-4 runners for the Saxons are Cliff Willmarth, Ken Hopkins, Gary Ramsden, and Larry Rosen. Hank Juran is the coach.

A. P. "Picker" Likes Ohio, Okla., Ucla, Minn., Army
By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW YORK (U-P) — Hurricane Hazel smashed our crystal bowl and this week's football selections are made by sticking an old-fashioned hat pin into tomorrow's paper.

No matter what method of picking, it should be an improvement over last week's efforts, when there were 17 misses in 48 picks for a puny 646 average. That lowered the seasonal mark to 728 with 166 correct and 63 wrong.

This week's forecast:
Oklahoma over Kansas State: Here's wishing the entire list could be as easy.

Ohio State over Wisconsin: The Ohio State line, the game's big question mark, to get inspiration from the Buckeye fans. But it will be bruising task to keep Alan Ameche, Jim Miller and Jim Hanuska in check.

UCLA over Oregon State: Jack Ellens, UCLA tackle, one of best in country, and all his mates are above average.

Mississippi over Arkansas: A contest featuring two of the country's unbeaten elevens. Statistics show that Mississippi has the strongest offense, the best passing and 3 the nation's stingiest when it comes to yielding yardage. That's a rugged combination.

Minnesota over Michigan: The McNamara brothers make the difference.

Army over Columbia: To win this one, Columbia needs 11 Claude Benhams and has only one.

The others without comment:
THURSDAY
South Carolina over Clemson
Friday Night
Furman over Davidson, Wichita over Denver, Detroit over Tulsa, George Washington over William & Mary, Maryland over Miami
SATURDAY
EAST: Boston College over Springfield, Brown over Temple, Delaware over Connecticut, Harvard over Dartmouth, Boston University over Holy Cross, Rutgers over Lehigh, Navy over Penn, Pittsburgh over Northwestern,

Saxons To Play 6th Club

South Salem Goes To Milwaukie Friday

South Salem high's Saxons and the Milwaukie Mustangs, two of the best teams in the state, meet at Milwaukie Friday night in the feature game in Oregon high school football.

The second ranked Saxons and sixth ranked Milwaukie team have both won six straight games this season and are leading their respective districts. One of Milwaukie's wins was over Gresham, another highly rated team.

South Salem defeated Lebanon 34-13 last week end but dropped to second place in the Associated Press poll as Medford took over first place.

South Salem's victory string started with Washington high of Portland with Albany, Sweet Home, Bend, Eugene and Lebanon following. Their win over Eugene was the toughest as they won in the final quarter.

Jim Anderson, starting Saxon halfback who missed the Lebanon game because of a sprained ankle, will probably be back in action. He was replaced by Bill McDonald who will see plenty of action tomorrow night.

The probable starters are:
Ends—Phil Burkland and Ed Keech. Tackles—Jerry Walling and Bob Griffin. Guards—Larry Newsum and Rod McClellan. Center—Gil Stewart or Bob Smith. Quarterback—Herb Juran. Halfback—Jim Anderson and Neal Scheidel. Fullback—LaMoyné Mapes.

Dallas Looks Like Champion

The Dallas Dragons look like the 1954 Willamette Valley league champions this week but must tangle with Silverton, Canby and Sandy before the title is secure.

The Sandy Pioneers have bounced up into league contention to second place and must wind up against Estacada, Molalla and Dallas. The Dallas-Sandy game could be decisive.

This Friday will find Dallas at Silverton, and Estacada at Sandy. Coach Keith Marshall's Canby Cougars are possible darkhorse material, as they knocked off second place Silverton last week. The Cougars will host Woodburn this week, and Molalla will entertain seventh place Mt. Angel.
