5:00 p.m., Disneyland—"Monsters of the Deep," combination live action-cartoon animation program explaining the story of creatures, real and fanciful, through the ages. Peter Lorre and Kirk Douglas co-guest star on the show.

6:00 p.m., You Are There—General Robert E. Lee's Army of Northern Virginia has just won another battle against the Army of the Potomac, which is defending Washington, this time at Chancellorsville, and the fall of the capital city seems imminent. The floodtide on which the Southern Confederacy hopes to ride to ultimate victory over the United States of America is soon to turn against them, however, on May 10, 1863, to witness an event which was a presage of the coming disaster, "The Death of 'Stonewall' Jackson."

7:00 p.m., Jack Benny—Singing star Gisele MacKenzie flies from New York to Hollywood to guest appear. On this program Jack finds that his violin is missing from the dressing room. The ensuing search that he and Rochester go through for the fiddle is hilariously complicated and typical of Benny's humor. Miss MacKenzie, with a singing chorus, does "Mr. Sandman." It also will feature her little-publicized ability to play the piano.

8:00 p.m., Toast of the Town—Ed Sullivan's guests: Robert Taylor, and scenes from his forthcoming "Many Rivers to Cross" which features Eleanor Parker; Tony and Sally DeMarco, dance team; a tribute to Jerome Kern with Metropolitan Opera star Roberta Peters in a medley of Kern tunes; William Warfield, vocalist; the Alfidi Accordionist Symphony Band; and Sybil Bowen, comedienne.

9:00 p.m., G. E. Theater—"The Martyr," a stirring story of the aftermath of the Irish Civil War in 1922, with Ronald Regan and Brian Ahern in co-starring roles. Reagan plays a member of the group that has made peace with England—Captain Hartnett, who turns informer to save his own life when he is accused of a crime.

9:30 p.m., Your Favorite Playhouse—Brian Ahern and Joan Evans co-star in "The Old Flame." With a marriage proposal in mind, a successful businessman visits his first and only sweetheart, now a wealthy widow. Complications arise when the widow's 24-year-old niece falls in love with the middle-aged suitor.

10:00 p.m., Father Knows Best—When Jim Anderson makes a promise to get daughter Kathy to take her measle medicine, he winds up spending the night in her playhouse. Co-starring Robert Young and Jane Wyatt.

Water Resources in Polk County Studied

DALLAS — General development of water resources in the Willamette Basin, particularly in Polk county, was discussed Friday at a meeting held in the Knights of Pythias hall called by Ivan Oakes, executive secretary of the Willamette Basin Commission.

Emphasis was placed upon types of government assistance available to farmers collectively and individually in development of water resources and providing drainage in low areas, according to N. John Hansen, Polk county agricultural agent, who explained the purpose of the meeting.

Survey of a proposed irrigation district in Polk county between Independence and Dallas pumping water from the Willamette river also came up for discussion.

Scheduled speakers included R. M. Walker, member of the commission from Polk county; LaSelle Coles, member of the Willamette Basin Project committee; Kenneth Sawyer, state director, Farmers Home Administration; Col. James U. Moorhead, district engineer, Corps of Engineers, U.S. Army; Harold T. Nelson, regional director, U.S. Bureau of Reclamation; Lee McAllister, bureau area engineer; and Glenn Hogg, chairman of the resolution committee, Hollis Smith and Case Barendrecht; and Geo. G. West, engineering division, Portland District, Corps of Engineers.

Sponsoring the meeting with Oakes were Hogg, chairman of the Polk County Water Development Committee, and Walker.

The group met with the Dallas Chamber of Commerce for luncheon, with Nelson the scheduled speaker.

Weisfield's Plan to Open in Mid-March

Mid-March opening for the Weisfield's Inc. store in Salem is planned, H. R. Rendahl, Seattle, a representative of the jewelry firm said Thursday.

The lower floor of the Nelson building at North Liberty and Chemeketa streets is now being remodeled as a site of the new store here.

Manager of the Salem Weisfield's store will be D. W. Flaks, manager of the company's Klamath Falls store.

Grave Service Here For Isabelle Roberts

Graveside services will be held at the City View cemetery Monday, January 24, at 10:30 a.m. for Mrs. Isabelle A. Roberts, former resident of Salem for many years, who died in Grants Pass Friday. Services will be under the direction of W. T. Rigdon company.

Mrs. Roberts, who was born on the Isle of Man in 1864 and came to the United States with her parents at the age of three years, had been making her home in Grants Pass with her son, Glenn E. Roberts. Her husband, Ephriam Roberts, preceded her in death. She was a life member of the Methodist church.

Surviving besides the son are three grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Navy Transport Muir Stuck, Columbia Bar

PORTLAND (AP) — The Navy transport Gen. C. H. Muir, being towed to San Diego to go into the mothball fleet, ran aground at the mouth of the Columbia River Thursday.

The powerful tug, Salvage Chief, was called to the scene to try to pull the big vessel free from sands opposite Point Adams.

Wall Street

NEW YORK (AP) — The Stock Market advanced Friday, and the volume of business expanded a little under encouragement of the higher trend.

Most gains in the list were small with a few key issues up between 1 and 2 points. Losses usually were fractional.

Volume mounted to an estimated 2½ million shares as compared with 2,210,000 shares traded Thursday.

Tornadoes have been reported in every U. S. state and in every month of the year.

Thornton Hits At Enemies

PENDLETON (AP) — Robert Y. Thornton, Oregon's Democratic attorney general, Friday was quick to oppose a bill to let the governor appoint the attorney general.

State Sen. Warren Gill, Lebanon Republican, has said in Salem he will introduce such a measure.

Thornton said in a statement, "I do not think the people of Oregon will look with favor upon any proposal to deprive them of the right to elect their own attorney general by making it purely an appointive political job."

Referring to Gill's statement that "it is just good business to let the governor pick his own chief law officer," Thornton said:

"The attorney general—whether Republican or Democratic—is not merely the governor's lawyer; he is the people's lawyer."

Chamber to Entertain Legislature Jan. 31

A buffet reception for members of the state legislature will be given by the Salem Chamber of Commerce at 6:30 p.m. January 31 at the Marion Hotel.

A committee headed by W. J. Braun has made arrangements for the affair with Stanley Schofield as liason member from the Chamber board of directors which decided to plan the party.

The affair is open to all members and friends of the chamber with ticket price for non-legislators set at $2.50.

Norblad Continues To Get Large Vote

November election figures just released by the clerk of the U.S. house of representatives show that with the exception of the statewide at-large seat in the state of Washington, Representative Walter Norblad of Oregon again for the fifth consecutive time obtained the largest majority of all house members from the four Pacific Northwest states.

These compilations also show that his majority was one of the biggest in the United States.
