Some Notations . .

By M. L. F.

A gay and busy period is ahead within the coming month for legislative folk, plans shaping up now for some of the "official" entertaining as well as the traditional events given by town groups and legislative delegations . . . Already dated are the informal coffee, of Mrs. Elmo E. Smith for senate wives this coming Saturday; the informal coffee of Mrs. Lee Ohmart next Tuesday morning for wives of all senate and house members; the Town and Gown tea for wives of senate and house members and of state officials, January 27; the Medical Society auxiliary tea for legislative wives on February 10; the Salem Woman's club tea for the legislators' wives on February 11; the "legislative day" and tea of Oregon Federation of Republican Women on February 14. Other events drawing large groups of legislators and their wives will be the treks to Eugene, Corvallis and other points for out-of-town entertainment; the luncheon and dinner planned in conjunction with the state-wide meeting for the Republican State Central committee on February 3; as well as varied other events to which legislative groups are invited . . .

Among special events will be the traditional party given by the senate president and his wife, Senator and Mrs. Elmo E. Smith planning theirs for all senators and wives and state officials on February 9; the party given by the speaker of the house and his wife for all house members and their wives, Representative and Mrs. Edward A. Geary planning their party for mid-February, probably the 15th; and the traditional events given for the legislators' wives by the governor's wife, Mrs. Paul L. Patterson planning her events for mid-March . . .

• • •

Along with the busy schedule that comes with legislature, it will be a very busy period for Mrs. Earl T. Newbry, wife of the secretary of state, the Newbrys having sold their East Rural street home to the Robert Spragues, and so moving time looms about mid-February . . . And speaking of moving time, we note in the last Zonta club's bulletin that Dr. Helen and Miss Dorothy Pearce have purchased the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Garnjobst on Oak, although they are not contemplating moving for some time yet . . .

• • •

State Representative Maurine Neuberger moved into the Lee apartments during the mid-week, occupying the apartment of Mrs. A. L. Adolphson, the latter joining the many mid-winter vacationers for a trip to Hawaii . . .

If anyone saw or heard two hot-rod motor boats churning the water at Devil's Lake last Sunday they no doubt recognized the Tom Allens and Graham Sharkeys. The two families took their boats to the lake and report having a wonderful time and beautiful weather.

Bus Youngquist took his son, Mike, and Roy Stangeby skiing last Saturday. They went to Santiam Lodge and the boys did just fine but Bus came limping home. ever knew about skiing and that he had better stick to horses.

Harely Cordray, night patrolman with the Merchant Patrol, was back on the job Monday night after a twelve day stay at Salem Memorial hospital. During his illness another man substituted for him so the bars was patrolled as usual.

Don't know what kind boy which Olive Murray served Roy Steender when the Murrays entertained the Wards and Stenders at dinner last Sunday night, but Roy is still praising her cooking ability, and what nicer compliments can a hostess receive?

The Junior drill group plans another meeting and drill this Saturday afternoon, and urges all Junior members to come out. Unless more members show an interest in the group they will disband.

Tonight's fun night hosts will be the George Stenders and the Ivan Suttens.

A good, snappy fun night was provided by Beth Needham and Nancy Smith last Friday. Both young girls being such honest little souls, they were most determined to run a fair and honest fun night. Much to the enjoyment of the spectators they were especially watchful during the cracker eating contest. Perish the thought that any of the club members would fudge in a game, but when it's all
