

Senior Girls are Feted at Mt. Angel

MOUNT ANGEL—High school senior girls from Willamette Valley schools were invited to attend a Senior Day program at Mount Angel Women's college Saturday. To give the visiting students a glimpse of college and campus life in action.

The all-day program began with registration from 10 to 11 o'clock in the morning, followed by acquainted sessions, tour of the campus, lunch, skits on college life, slides, and glimpses of several actual classes in session.

Miss Pat Anderson, Mount Angel, general chairman, was assisted by Misses Frances Dieker and Carol Wachter, Mount Angel; Dona Knauf, Donna Lorenzen and Carol Brandt, Silverton; and Betty Lanning, Gervais, on the planning committee.

Miss Dorothy Huber, Mount Angel, assisted by her committee, Misses Barbara O'Halloran, Mount Angel; Grace Foltz, Hubbard; and Gertrude Fox, Watertown, South Dak., headed a general display committee, with bulletin boards and room displays portraying college activities.

Tea Success

SPRING VALLEY—A successful affair was the Valentine silver tea, given by the Lincoln Zena parents club at the Spring Valley home of Mrs. P. H. Thede last week. Mrs. Philip M. Brandt, Jr. was in charge of the benefit. Background music was presented by Mrs. James S. Smart.

Serving guests were Shirley Thede, Karen Greshman, Jean Coleman, Iola Hubbs and Justina Friesen, students from Lincoln school. Among the guests were wives and secretaries of legislators. Mrs. Dorothy Killey was in charge of the pre-school and primary kindergarten at the community center.

MACLEAY—Mrs. Wilber Miller and Mrs. W. F. Coli were hostesses to members of the Macleay Women's club for a dessert Thursday, at the Miller home.

At the business meeting a cash donation was approved for the Children's Farm home near Corvallis, the hospital fund and for the March of Dimes.

Mrs. A. C. Hoover, Raymond, Wash., was a guest. The March meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Harry Martin, Sr., with Mrs. Harry Martin, Jr., and Mrs. Robert Anderson, co-hostesses.

District Event of Star at Woodburn

WOODBURN—A district meeting of Gervais chapter No. 118 and Evergreen chapter No. 41, Order of the Eastern Star, was Thursday night, at the Masonic temple in Woodburn, when Mrs. Louise R. Irving, worthy grand matron of the grand chapter of Oregon, made her official visit.

In charge of the meeting were Mrs. Ellen Dean, worthy matron and J. Pierre Aspinwall, worthy patron, for Gervais chapter, Mrs. Dorothy Garren, worthy matron and Arthur M. Burt, worthy patron, for Evergreen chapter.

Mrs. Irving was introduced, escorted to the east, and greeted with the grand honors. Also honored in the east were Mrs. Ellen Elford, grand marshal of the grand chapter, Mrs. Mabel Dixon of Evergreen chapter, grand representative of Maine, and Mrs. Florence Burr, Gervais chapter, grand representative of Washington, and Clifford O. Wilson, worthy patron of Portland chapter No. 97.

Gervais chapter conducted the opening, escort, good of the order and closing ceremonies. Evergreen chapter exemplified the ballot and put on the initiatory work.

Under good of the order, a clever degree was put on by the officers of Gervais chapter, honoring Mrs. Irving and a gift was presented to her from the two chapters. A humorous skit "Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf?" was put on by a group from Evergreen chapter for Mrs. Irving and she was presented with a piggy bank. Mrs. Irving gave an address. There were also talks by other honored guests.

Refreshments were served by a committee from the two chapters, including Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harper, Mrs. Adelaide Toomb, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Evans of Gervais chapter, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Thompson, Mrs. Ruby Peyton and Miss Laura Bonney of Evergreen chapter.

BPW Group

WOODBURN—A social meeting of the Woodburn Business and Professional Women's club was Thursday night at the library with 23 members and guests present.

Guests were Mrs. Peter Clark, Mrs. Frank Wagenveld, Mrs. Edward DeHaan, Mrs. Betty Meick, Mrs. John Zerzan, Mrs. Estella Kerns and Mrs. George Rogers, and Mrs. Richard Williams of Gervais.

The program committee, including Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Burkert, Mrs. Vickers, Mrs. Molly Hunt and Miss Thompson, was in charge of the evening. Mrs. Burkert led the games, Mrs. Muir led the group singing with Mrs. J. Melvin Ringo at the piano. Miss Judy Cornwell played piano solos.

Mrs. Sam Smith conducted the grab bag from which gifts were distributed. Refreshments were served by the committee.

The monthly business meeting will be March 3 at the library and the international relations committee will be in charge of activities for March. Members of the committee are Mrs. John Dickson, Mrs. George Timm, Mrs. Frank Bentley, Mrs. Veola Farmer, and Mrs. Clara Stange.

STAYTON—Andrea Dozler entertained a group of friends at a Valentine party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dozler on Shaff road.

Guests were Doris Adams, Mary and Marilyn Welter, Janice Fery, Mary Ann Foltz, Lois Van Handel, Janice Kreitzer, Jeannette Fery, Janice Adams, Geraldine Frost, and Carol Dozler.

District Association of Scouts Meets

SILVERTON—Silvertown district Girl Scout association met recently at the home of Mrs. Lillian McEwen. Mrs. Jerry Gastineau, district chairman, presided.

Mrs. Frank Hubbs, member of the Santiam Area camp committee, reported that the Girl Scout camp at Smith Creek will be in session from June 26 to August 13 with registration set at $18 per girl per week.

It was announced that if former Girl Scouts have uniforms to sell they may contact Mrs. Gastineau. The district is also asking for adults with special hobbies and interests who would be interested in teaching or explaining these hobbies to any scout troop, to volunteer their names to Mrs. Gastineau.

Mrs. R. F. Schmidt was named cookie sale chairman with the starting date to be March 11.

Plans were made for an all-scout program, tentatively set for March 10 at Eugene Field school at 7:30 p.m. Each troop is to make up a display of its accomplishments and to furnish a part of the program. At this meeting the leaders and co-leaders will be especially honored. The refreshment committee is headed by Mrs. W. E. Grodrian.

A change in the regular meeting night to the second Thursday of each month was effected at the meeting.

WOODBURN—The annual pancake and waffle supper, sponsored by the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will be on Shrove Tuesday, February 22, at the church. Supper will be served from 5 to 7:30 p.m.

Committees include Mrs. W. M. Burke, general chairman; Mrs. Ralph Sebern, Mrs. Mary Beard and Mrs. David Fields, kitchen;

Mrs. Al White and Mrs. James Livesay, dining room. This is a benefit affair and the public is invited.
