Red Chinese Big Build-up

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Qualified sources here, both Nationalist Chinese and American, Saturday discounted reports of a big Communist buildup on the mainland area opposite Matsu Island. Information regarded here as trustworthy suggests that recent reports of the transfer of Red jets to air bases in Fukien Province, off which both Matsu and Quemoy are situated, are unfounded. One of these reports had it that an air division was being moved from Manchuria to Fukien and would include MIG17s, an improvement over the MIG15 the Communists used in Korea. The feeling is developing that even if the Communists plan to risk a collision with the United States over Matsu and Quemoy, it might take them six months or more to get into a position to strike at those islands with adequate air cover. The only action reported Saturday was the Nationalist air force claim that patrol planes sank a 150-ton Communist gunboat Saturday morning off Wenchow Bay, 175 miles north of Formosa.
