

GETS THREE YEARS

Handcuffed Harvey Matusow leaves U. S. Courthouse at El Paso, Tex., after being sentenced to three years for contempt. In passing sentence, the judge said he was convinced that Matusow is lying in recanting testimony against accused Communists. (UP Telephoto.)

Woodburn JC's Plan Road-e-o

WOODBURN — Plans were further discussed at the meeting of the Woodburn Junior Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night at the library club rooms for the "Teen-age Road-e-o" which the club is sponsoring in May. Charles Sauvain and Louis Turin are in charge of this project, and the plans are well under way.

It was reported that the street signs for the city have been cut out and painted and are now being stenciled and lettered at the high school. Posts for the signs are to be set in the near future.

Twenty members of the local group are planning to attend a banquet in Portland Tuesday evening, March 22, when Lamar Buckner of Tulsa, Oklahoma, national president, will be honored.

The installation banquet is tentatively set for April 30 when new officers are to be installed. The nominating committee has been appointed and will submit nominations for the officers at the next meeting, April 5.

Don Thompson acted as secretary at the meeting in the absence of Walter Scarborough Jr. Refreshments were served by Dr. Lucas Sprinker and Ben Workman.

Lebanon to Hear Legislative Women

LEBANON — Three of Oregon's women legislators will be in Lebanon Monday evening, March 21, to address a public meeting in the city hall auditorium.

Commenting on current events in the legislature will be Maurine Neuberger, Jean L. Lewis and Kay Merrivether, all of Multnomah county. They are being brought to Lebanon under sponsorship of the democratic central committee.

The meeting will be open to all interested, announced Eva Sylvester, county chairman, and will begin at 8 p.m.

Spring Opening at Molalla on April 16

MOLALLA — Red Dunning of Radio station KOIN definitely will be in Molalla the day of the spring opening, April 16, announced Chamber of Commerce committee in charge. A free breakfast or lunch, as the case may be, will be served downtown at 11 a.m.; a free drawing at 3 p.m.; a queen's ball will be given in the evening with Heck Harper's orchestra.

The latest announcement for the spring opening day will be the formal opening and dedication of the new city hall, now being used.

Mrs. Ethel Blatchford will be setting librarians until Mrs. Mary Fennie, recovering from recent surgery, is able to be back at her job again. The library is not open at present, as it is in the process of being set up in its new quarters in the city hall.

Woodburn Rotarians Hear Impersonation

WOODBURN — Don Critchley of Portland entertained the Woodburn Rotary club at the luncheon meeting Thursday noon with an impersonation of Dr. Karl Hoffman, professor of drama of the University of Berlin. He talked in dialect on the impressions of America as compared to Germany. Lyman Seely was program chairman.

Next Thursday Dr. Delbert Reed will be program chairman and will present the superintendent of the Chemawa Indian school as the speaker.

MISSIONARY GUESTS SMITHFIELD — Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hiest and Verna who are missionaries from South America were Thursday evening dinner guests of the Smithfield Stouffes and family.

MAGEE HARBOR — Mrs. Louis W. Magee gave Sunday dinner guests of her home, Mrs. Mary Nechols of Seattle Hills where 10 members of the Magee family were assembled.
