

McCarthy's Tax Refund Denounced by Watkins

By ED CREAGH

WASHINGTON — Sen. Watkins (R-Utah) said today a $1,036,75 tax refund check produced by Sen. McCarthy in no way clears the Wisconsin Republican of improper conduct charges made by the senate.

McCarthy showed the check at two news conferences yesterday. He said it proves his financial affairs have been in apple pie order — and that the Watkins Committee is "completely dishonest" in investigating him.

The Wisconsin senator said the Watkins Committee and an elections subcommittee which raised questions about his financial affairs in 1951-52 "owe an apology, not to me but to the American people."

Watkins, chairman of a special committee that recommended censure of McCarthy last year, commented in a hand-written statement to a reporter:

"The senate has condemned McCarthy for misconduct toward two of its committees and the senate itself."

"He has not been purged of contempt."

"No apologies are in order from"

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune in the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the re- grid and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. The letters under the checked figures give you...
