Sublimity — A bride last Saturday, May 14, at St. Boniface Catholic church, was Miss Darlene Marie Kintz, daughter of Mrs. Myles Kintz, and the late Mr. Kintz. She was wed to Herman Louis Hendricks, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Hendricks, Sublimity. The Rev. Joseph Schubring officiated at the service at 11 a.m.

Apple blossoms and Dutch irises decorated the altar, with blue and white satin bows and white bells at alternate pews. The St. Boniface high school choir sang, with Miss Geraldine Heuberger accompanist. Miss Margaret Laux played the processional and recessional marches.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her brother, Errol Kintz. Her dress was of nylon tulle and imported Chantilly lace over satin. The bodice had scalloped lace and tulle with iridescent sequins. Ruffled tiers of nylon tulle and tiers of lace were around the bottom of the bouffant skirt.

The finger veil of pure silk illusion fell from a headpiece of nylon tulle ruffles edged with princess lace and was sprinkled with stardust pearls. The bride's bouquet was of stephanotis and lilies of the valley, centered with a white orchid. The bride wore a gold cross worn by her mother at her first communion.

Mrs. Wilfred F. Ditter, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Lovelle Kintz, niece of the bride, Mrs. Gerald Roberts, Miss Geraldine Hartmann and Miss Sharon Lambrecht, cousin of the bride. They were dressed identically in white over blue dresses, with a lace rose pattern of net on the bodice, halfway down the blue nylon tulle skirts. They all carried rosaries of stephanotis, the honor attendants in blue with white and the bridesmaids' white with blue, all with large gold crosses.

Best man was Leonard Hendricks, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were Francis Hendricks and Cletus Hendricks, both brothers of the bridegroom, Eugene Laux, Frederick Ripp and Vincent Etzel.

Altar boys were Allen Hendricks, brother of the bridegroom, Jackie Ditter, Eugene Hendricks and Kenneth Lambrecht. The bride's mother wore a teal blue suit dress with beige accessories and corsage of pink cymbidium orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore a charcoal gray suit with white and black accessories and a corsage of pink cymbidium orchids.

Following the service, the couple went to the side altar, and while the choir sang "Mother at Thy Feet We're Kneeling," the bride placed a rosary of white stephanotis at the feet of the Blessed Mother statue.

A reception was given in the parish hall of the church. Blue and white were used in the decorations. The table was covered with an ice blue cloth with white net flounce and blue and white satin bows and white bells, and it was centered with the bride's cake. Cutting the cake was Mrs. Carl Podrabsky, godmother and aunt of the bride. Pouring were Mrs. Harold Wolf, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Errol Kintz. Others assisting were Mrs. Margaret Kintz, Mrs. Sim Etzel, Miss Isabell Ditter, Mrs. Phillip Albus, Mrs. Leland Manning, Lyons, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Delbert J. Ditter, Miss Kathy Hartmann and Miss Jeannette Kintz, Mrs. J. H. Ditter, Mrs. Marnie Laux, Mrs. Glycer Kintz. Serving were Misses Diane and Marlene Podrabsky, Mery Jo and Irene Hendricks, Anita and Rosemarie Leverman, Charlotte Kintz and Lola Boedighemer. Mrs. Andy Kintz was in charge of the dining room. All those assisting wore white daisy corsages.

For a trip south, the bride wore a British tan silk suit with white accessories and a white orchid. After May 26, the couple will be at home in Sublimity.
