

Rebekah Lodge Observes Flag Day

SILVERTON — Flag day was observed in historic and patriotic honors at the Thursday evening program of Tryphena Rebekah lodge No. 38. Mrs. Wilbert Peron, noble grand, presented the briefs of historical origins of the several different flags of suggestive interest, as well as the one pattern of "Old Glory," throughout the years. Assisting Mrs. Peron was Mrs. Ida Makinster who displayed paper replicas of the types of flags, during the descriptive reading. Mrs. Walter Larson of Salem played the piano.

Mrs. I. L. Stewart was escorted and honored as district deputy president. Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor were accepted into Tryphena Rebekah lodge from Adah Rebekah lodge No. 80, of Boise, Ida.

The highlight of the local year is to be the official visit to Silverton Tryphena Rebekah lodge of the state president of the Rebekah assembly, Mrs. Edna Bradley, on June 23, for the regular meeting.

During the social hour, members whose birthday anniversaries are from January through June, were specially complimented at tables centered with a decorated cake, and were served by Mrs. J. A. Monson, Mrs. Gertrude Moen, Mrs. L. Meyer, Mrs. Ernest Southmayde, Mrs. Rex McCurdy and Mrs. Wilbert Peron.

As a budget builder for buying new robes to be used in the degree work, the Triple Link club members sponsored a "silent auction" during the social hour, netting $18.65.

Mrs. Chancy Beesley and Mrs. I. L. Stewart greeted the guests. Mrs. James Taylor and G. E. Weatherby arranged the hall and table decorations in early summer flowers and greenery. Mrs. Will Kregg invited the members of the Triple Link club to her country home on Wednesday evening, June 22, for a 6:30 picnic supper and a social evening. All members and friends are welcome to attend.

Silver Anniversary

MONMOUTH—The silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lauerman was observed at a party at their home west of town recently with seventy-five guests calling. Couple Observe 60th Anniversary

MONMOUTH — Mr. and Mrs. Frank Powers were honored at an open house recently on their 60th wedding anniversary. Mrs. Delmar Powers of West Fir, a daughter-in-law, presided at the coffee urn assisted by Mrs. Emma Parker. At the punch bowl was Mrs. Nelson Powers, daughter-in-law of Wichita, Kansas, and assisting was Mrs. Hugh Smith. Mrs. Anna Riddell served the cake. Members of Mrs. Powers' Sunday School class assisted.

The couple renewed their vows before the Rev. Lynnton Elwell, and after the ceremony Mrs. Earl Jaynes sang.

Mr. and Mrs. Powers were married in Palouse, Wash., June 5, 1895. They have lived here for 17 years. They have two sons, Delmar Powers, Wichita, Kansas and Nelson Powers, Westfir, also four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

WANTED: DREAM GIRL

I'm looking for a girl to share my dreams. She can be fat, homely and a poor cook—just so she gives me a pair of action-tailored Rough Rider Slacks every year for a Father's Day present. Rough Rider Slacks fit better, look better, wear better. Remember... Rough Rider Slacks for Father's Day, June 19.
