Briggs Loses, 4-1, On Special Night

Munger of Stars Defeats Sacs; Suds Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Oakland batters belted homers out of the ballpark with reckless abandon Wednesday night but it wasn't enough to prevent a 5-4 loss to the league-leading Seattle Rainiers in the Pacific Coast League.

The victory edged the Rainiers into a full game lead over San Diego. The Padres and San Francisco were idle Wednesday night. In the two other contests, third-place Hollywood defeated Sacramento, 4-1, and Portland shut out Los Angeles, 4-0.

At Sacramento, George Munger allowed the Solons 11 hits but managed to keep them well-scattered. It was "Johnny Briggs Night" but the 21-year-old Sacramento pitcher yielded 11 hits and was handicapped by his mates' two errors.

At Los Angeles, Portland's Bill Werle recorded his third win without a defeat with a neat, sixth-inning performance. Werle's control was outstanding. He didn't issue a walk and only in one inning, the seventh, were the Angels able to put two hits together.

Meanwhile, Portland's second

Coach Is Sold on Salem Site of Training

By A. C. JONES
Things began to stir for sure this afternoon at McCulloch stadium when large football players on the New York Football Giants rookie roster had their first workout.

Not much was going on this morning in the way of physical examinations or equipment issue before noon, but Dr. Francis J. Sweeney gave a checkup to each of the 19 rookies and the five veterans who are helping the coaching staff to scout the newcomers.

Head coach Jim Lee Howell arrived Wednesday night glowing with good feelings about Salem as a training site. "The weather, the people and the food were perfect for us last year in Salem," he testified. He said that New York has a fine crop of rookies, led by Mel Triplett, fullback from Toledo, and halfback Joe Heap of Notre Dame, who were among four on the college All-Star team.

There is plenty of weight among the pro freshmen. Greg Blyler, Bucknell tackle, weighs 285; Rex Boggan, Mississippi tackle, tilts the scales at 245; Roosevelt Crier, Penn State tackle, weighs 261 and Chuck Kubes of Minnesota tilts 245, just ahead of another tackle, Howie Lehman of Mississippi Southern, 235.

Rookie backs who are on hand include Jim Patton of Mississippi, Matt Vujevic of San Jose, Larry Weaver of Fullerton, all halfbacks; Fred Blyler, Georgia fullback; and George Washington, Tyler, Tex., fullback who stretches the imagination at 253 pounds.

One rookie quarterback is here—Al Doggett of LSU, who has tough competition with three veterans for the usual two signal calling jobs. Three quarterbacking vets are here to help the rookies work out: Charley Conerly, the old pro; Bobby Clatterback and Don Heinrich, both in their second year.

Halfback Kyle Rote, co-captain, and center Ray Wietha are the other two vets helping Howell to get an extra look at the newcomers.

Howell has one new aide this year, Ken Kavanaugh, end coach who replaces Bill Swacki. Others are Ed Kolman, line coach; Tom Landry, player-defensive coach; and Vince Lombardi, the offense-minded assistant.

More than 50 will be staying at Baxter Hall on the Willamette university campus when next Monday rolls around and the entire squad will commence training. All have been warned to report in good condition, Howell commented.

Ben Agagianian, kicking star, and Jim Shafor, rookie guard, will be a week or two late.

Hunting Regulations To Be Heard Friday
The final hunting regulations will be adopted by the State Game Commission Friday in a public hearing at its Portland office. The hearing is at 10 a. m.

Changes in the tentative regulations adopted July 8 will be discussed.
