

(Jessen-Miller studio picture)

GERMAN STUDENT ARRIVES HERE

WELCOMED to Salem this week for a year's stay here was Miss Sigrid H. Bruhl, right above, who is an exchange student from Germany. She will be a senior at North Salem High school. With her in the picture is Miss Judy Ohmart, daughter of State Senator and Mrs. Lee Ohmart, Miss Bruhl to make her home with the Ohmarts. Miss Bruhl came from Massenbach, Wuertemberg, Germany.

MISS GAYLE JUVE

THE ENGAGEMENT of Miss Gayle Juve, above, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice N. Juve, Salem, to Lt. Roy Elliot Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy O. Nelson of Park Ridge, Ill., was announced recently in Nagoya, Japan, where the bride-elect is with the American Red Cross. Lt. Nelson is with the Air Force at Taipei, Formosa.

(Jessen-Miller studio picture)

MRS. JERRY WHIPPLE AND CHILDREN

AMONG newcomers being welcomed to Salem are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Whipple and family. Mr. Whipple being director of development on the administrative office staff at Willamette university. Mrs. Whipple and the children are pictured above, Joan, at left, and Edward. The family resides on South Cottage.

2 Entertain At Coffee Next Tuesday Morning

One of the coming week's larger parties will be the coffee for which Mrs. Coburn Grabenhorst and Mrs. Bruce Williams are to entertain on Tuesday morning at the Grabenhorst home on Alvarado Terrace, Candalaria Heights.

Friends are invited to call between 9:30 a.m. and 1 p.m.

At the door at different hours will be Mrs. Fred Williams, Miss Kaye Tomlinson and Miss JoAnn Hoover.

Pouring during the different periods will be Mrs. John R. Caughell, Mrs. Earl C. Latourette, Mrs. Walter L. Tooze. At the punch bowl will be Mrs. Lee Ohmart, Mrs. Chester Lee, Mrs. Otto Skopil, Jr., Mrs. Robert B. Ebersole.

Others assisting about the rooms and in serving will be Mrs. Glenn Stevens, Mrs. Val Sloper, Mrs. Claybourne Dyer, Mrs. Arnold Krueger, Mrs. A. A. Schramm, Mrs. Roscoe Wilson, Mrs. Seth P. Smith, Mrs. John R. Wood, Mrs. Woodson Bennett, Mrs. Kenneth Vollmar, Mrs. Robert Brownell, Mrs. Joseph B. Felton, Mrs. James Haworth, Mrs. Rex Adolph, Mrs. John Kolb, Mrs. Charles Gray, Mrs. Frank Ward.

Members of Salem Soroptimist club have been invited to a picnic to be given by the Corvallis club next Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Irene Hecker between Albany and Corvallis. The supper will be at 6:30 o'clock. It will be an intercity affair, members of the Eugene club also being invited to join the Salem and Corvallis groups.

Leaving Wednesday for Seattle will be Justice and Mrs. Walter L. Tooze. Justice Tooze will go on north for a fishing trip with a group of Portland and Seattle friends on the Campbell river. Mrs. Tooze to remain in Seattle for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Preston Faller.

William Seeman of New York City was a guest of the Toozes for the day, Friday.

Among those to take in the Shakespeare Festival at Ashland the latter part of the week will be Mrs. Prince W. Byrd and Mrs. A. C. F. Perry.

Mrs. Lila P. Crowe and Dale L. Sheridan were married on Friday night at a simple service at the First Methodist church. Dr. Brooks Moore officiated. Mr. Sheridan is the son of Mrs. Henry Ahrens of Turner. The church was decorated with red and white gladioluses and blue summer blooms. Martin Nelson and Ted Tuechek lighted the candles. Josef Schuelker was the organist.

The bride was given in marriage by Dr. George G. Roseberry, a friend of the family. She wore a pastel blue dress styled with fitted bodice and small pointed collar applied with roses. The skirt was flared. Over the dress was worn a white lace redingote. The white lace veil cascaded from a blue shell cap.

Miss Lois Willis was the maid of honor and wore a pastel blue dress with a short jacket. She carried the centers of white gladioluses surrounded by red netting.

Mrs. Donald Clark, the bridesmaid, was also attired in blue.

Donald Clark was the best man and Darrel Sheridan, brother of the bridegroom, was the groomsmen. Mr. Nelson, Mr. Tuechek and Harold Eschelman ushered.

Mrs. Ahrens wore a pink linen jacket dress and white accessories for her son's wedding. Her corsage was of pink roses. A reception followed in the carrier room of the church. The bride's table was set with a blue cloth with silver streamers and white gladioluses centering the table. Mrs. Eddie Ahrens cut the cake assisted by Mrs. Ferd Sothman.

Mrs. Howard Phelps and Mrs. Phyllis Beyer poured. Miss Marjorie Walter passed the guest book.

For a wedding trip to the coast, the bride wore a blue silk suit with white accessories. The couple will be at home in Salem after August 18.

By MARIAN LOWRY FISCHER

AN event of Monday evening will be the picnic supper planned by alumnae of Theta Sigma Phi, national journalism honorary.

The affair will be at 6:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Dewey, Jr., the supper no-host. Alumnae are inviting their husbands as guests.

Miss Alene (Peg) Phillips, executive assistant to Secretary of the Interior Douglas McKay, is to be speaker to tell of her trip to Europe, also to highlight some of her experiences in Washington. Miss Phillips is here for most of August.

VISITORS being entertained at a number of parties are Judge and Mrs. Thomas Grubbs of Mt. Sterling, Kentucky, who are guests of Mrs. Grubbs' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds Allen.

On Tuesday evening of next week, Mr. and Mrs. Allen are to be hosts at an at home for their guests, friends being invited to call between 5:30 and 8 o'clock. Assisting the hosts will be Mr. and Mrs. James C. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Skopil, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Homer L. Goulet, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Heltzel.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Skopil, Jr. are entertaining for the visitors at dinner on August 21, and Mrs. Leon Perry is planning a luncheon on August 23 for Mrs. Grubbs.

With Mr. and Mrs. Grubbs is their daughter, Sarah, who is observing her ninth birthday on August 22. Mrs. Allen is arranging a party that day for her niece.

DELTA Delta Delta sorority alumnae plan a picnic supper for next Monday night at 6:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Ralph Mercer, route 5, Box 23.

Active members of the sorority will be guests. Those attending are to take their own table service, and picnic supper.

On the committee with Mrs. Mercer are Miss Bertha Kohlman, Miss Zelma Busch, Mrs. George C. Huggins, Jr. and Mrs. Richard Jennings.

Mrs. Lucile Beeler, formerly of Salem and now of Inglewood, Calif., will arrive Sunday for a visit here next week with friends and relatives. Mrs. Beeler, who when she was in Salem was with the Capital Journal and is now with the Englewood Daily News, will be here until Friday when she leave here for Grants Pass where she will visit with Miss Harriett Dennis, also a former Salem resident.

(Arta studio picture)

MRS. JAMES GEORGE WIEMALS

BRIDE AT a ceremony this morning in St. Joseph's Catholic church was Mrs. James George Wiemals (Margaret Anne Bach), above. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Peter Bach and Mr. Wiemals is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clement C. Wiemals.

Pink, White Theme for Wedding

A pink and white decor marked the wedding of Miss Sandra Marion Van Blaricom and Barry R. Adams who were married this afternoon at a service in St. Mark Lutheran church. The vows were said at 4 o'clock, the Rev. John R. Cagle officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Van Blaricom and Mr. Adams is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Adams of Oswego.

The altar and organ were decorated with pink and white carnations and the altar baskets were filled with pink and white gladioluses. Pink ribbons decorated the pews.

Lighting the candles were Miss JoAnn Mary and Miss Zora Hiebert, the latter of Dallas. The two wore pink net over tulle frocks and pink and white wrist corsages.

For the music, Mrs. B. J. Williams sang and Maurice Breemen played the organ. For the wedding the bride wore a full length white embroidered organdy, a redingote covering a white tulle under dress and styled with Peter Pan collar and pointed sleeves. The fingertip veil of illusion was held by a crown of seed pearls. The bride carried a bouquet of white roses. Mr. Van Blaricom gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Marilee Berg of Vancouver, Wash. was honor attendant. She wore a pink and white dotted Swiss organdy, in strapless bodice style with small jacket. She carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

Patrick Adams was best man for his brother. Ushering were Robert Knight and Robert James of Oswego, David Stump of Monmouth, Glen Grant of Longview, Wash.

The bride's mother wore a gray dress with pink accessories and corsage of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a light blue suit with navy accessories and corsage of white carnations.

The reception was arranged in the church social rooms following the service. Cutting the cake was Miss Marcia Yoder of Molalla. Miss Beverly Blumh and Miss Mary Ann Pederson of Milwaukie poured. Others assisting were Miss Shirley Plummer, Miss Jeanine O'Hern, Miss Jean Patten, Miss Arlene Sneddon, Miss Sharon Bandy, all of Salem, Miss Glenna Ridenbous of Dallas, Miss Judi Adams, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Sally Van Blaricom, sister of the bride, Miss Irene Jensen of Monmouth.

For traveling the bride wore an avocado box-type suit with white gloves and hat and avocado accessories. Following a trip to the beaches, the couple will be at home at 140 North Knox, Monmouth.

Mrs. Clair Meisel has invitations in the mail this weekend for an informal coffee for which she will be hostess next Friday, August 19, at her home at McMinnville.

Guests are being invited to call between 10:30 and 1 o'clock and will include a large group of Salem friends, and friends of Mrs. Meisel's daughter, Susan Thomas, and their mothers.

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Gordon are to be hosts for a dinner next Friday night at their home to honor their daughter, Miss Patricia Gordon, and her fiancé, John S. Humphrey. The party will follow the rehearsal for the wedding of Miss Gordon and Mr. Humphrey, who are to be married on August 21.

Arriving in Oregon next Wednesday will be Mr. and Mrs. Bill Clabaugh and children, Sally and Mark. The Clabaughs are now residing in Redding, Calif. and formerly lived in Salem. They will be here five days.

Mrs. Henry M. Hansen and Mrs. Vernon Wiscarson will be hostesses for an informal coffee next Wednesday afternoon, guests to include neighborhood friends. The affair will be in the adjoining gardens of the two hostesses on South Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Specht and children, Susan and Gregory are spending the weekend in Tillamook at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Specht. Gregory and Susan will spend the week there with their aunt and uncle and then be at Neskonim the last week in August with their parents.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Atherton are his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Atherton and daughters, Judy and Susan, from American Falls, Idaho.

Mrs. Homer G. Lyon, Jr. was hostess for an informal supper, Friday night, a postponed birthday party for Mr. Lyon and Mrs. Albert Wiesendanger. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Wiesendanger, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Rowan, Mr. and Mrs. Hunt Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Lyon.

Mrs. A. J. Fromherz will present her piano and voice student in a recital on Sunday at 2 o'clock at 2475 Cherry street. The public is invited to attend. Students to be presented include Mrs. Fromherz' children, Rita Jo, Marie Therese and Allen as well as Connie Bishop, Jane Hamsberry, Paul Schomus and Freda Huertel.

Miss Bach Wed at Morning Rites

St. Joseph's Catholic church was the scene for a beautiful wedding this morning when Miss Margaret Anne Bach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Peter Bach, was married to James George Wiemals, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clement C. Wiemals. Large baskets of pink and white gladioluses decorated the front of the church for the service.

Verne Esch and Lorraine Nelke sang preceding the ceremony, Mary Barton playing the organ.

The service was at 11 o'clock, the Rev. Joseph Vanderbeek officiating.

Mr. Bach escorted his daughter to the altar. The bride wore a Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over tulle wedding dress. It was styled with fitted lace bodice, low rounded scalloped neckline formed of appliqued roses and short sleeves; and the lace blended at the hip level into the bouffant tulle skirt made in chapel length. The full length imported silk illusion veil was arranged from a tiara of seed pearls and sequins. For her flowers the bride carried a cascade shaped bouquet of pink elfe roses and stephanotis.

Five Attendants. Miss Norma Hamilton was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Paul R. Riley, Miss Shirley Coffey, Miss Mary Cecile Rocque, Miss Mary Angela Sung.

All the attendants were dressed alike in white waltz-length frocks of dotted Swiss nylon over tulle, fashioned with low square necklines outlined by embroidered lace, bouffant skirts, and the lace outlining the draped waistlines. The five wore embroidered lace half-hats studded with pearls and sequins. The maid of honor carried a cascade arrangement of pink carnations and pink gladioluses, and the four bridesmaids' bouquets were of pink carnations and white gladioluses.

John A. Wiemals was best man for his brother.

Ushering were Clement C. Wiemals, brother of the bridegroom, Paul R. Riley, Joseph J. Schuetz, and Virgil Webber.

The bride's mother wore a pink mauve suit trimmed in white, white accessories and a corsage of white elfe roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a pink mauve suit with pink accessories and corsage of white roses.

Reception at Club. The reception following the service was arranged at the American Legion club. The bride's table was set with a pink satin cloth and a five-tiered pillared cake surrounded by pink and white gladioluses and candles.

Mrs. Ralph S. Hamilton and Mrs. Willis L. Bach, sister-in-law of the bride, cut the cake. Pouring were Mrs. Joseph Bach, aunt of the bride, and Miss Ledwinne Wiemals, aunt of the bridegroom. Assisting were Mrs. Kenneth C. Hagg, Mrs. Joseph Schuetz, Mrs. Ray Christiansen, Mrs. John Archer, Miss Meredith Hayes, Miss Kathy Dardis, Miss Kathy Archer, Miss Jackie Larson, Miss Shirley Sommer, Miss Kathy Bischoff, Miss Marne Christensen, Miss Cheryl Schuetz, Miss Judy and Joan Hagg, twin nieces of the bride. At the punch bowl was Mrs. Clement C. Wiemals, Jr.

The couple left on a trip to Victoria, B.C., the bride wearing a pink linen and satin ribbon sheath dress with white coat, pink straw hat and shoes, and a corsage of pink elfe roses.

The couple will be living in Las Vegas, Nev., until after the first of the year.