Oh, What a Tasty Dish Second-Day Thanksgiving can be!

Vary Serving of Snap Beans With Peanuts

We westerners often fix poultry, fish and vegetables almondine, because we've plenty of almonds and because we like their crunchiness and flavor. In colonial times, cooks fixed up this peanut sauce for fresh snap beans. We use frozen french green beans for this. Either peanuts or almonds, try this:
Snap Beans, Peanut Sauce
Melt 1/4 cup butter in a saucepan. Heat until brown; add 1/4 cup chopped roasted peanuts or almonds, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper and 1/2 teaspoon ground nutmeg. Pour over (any) vegetable. We often add a good healthy squeeze of lemon juice to this for a special filip.

Season for Mulled Cider Now at Hand

Mulled cider is definitely a winter-season hit, so here is our set recipe. Be sure to have plenty of good tasty apple cider on hand, because there will be calls for "more."
Mulled Cider
2-3 cup brown sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
6 whole cloves
6 whole allspice
4 sticks cinnamon
Combine all ingredients in saucepan and place over low heat. Bring to boiling point and simmer for about 5 minutes. Remove from heat and strain. Serve hot in cups or earthenware mugs. Makes 10 to 12 servings.

Good Duo

Walnuts and sweet potatoes go hand in hand for a glamorous extra to serve on a partyish menu. Arrange layers of sliced cooled sweet potatoes and broken walnuts in a shallow baking dish. Make a sauce of one cup brown sugar, 1/2 cup orange juice and 1/4 cup butter or margarine thickened with 1 tablespoon cornstarch. Pour over potatoes and walnuts and bake in moderately hot oven about half hour.
Heat pieces of cooked lobster in butter and use as an omelet filling.

Barbecue Sandwich Of Turkey

For that group who make no bones about it in saying they like turkey better the second day than on the first, here is an open turkey barbecue sandwich.
Open Turkey Barbecue Sandwiches
8 slices bread, toasted
Sliced left over turkey
1/2 cup sliced onion
1/4 cup butter or margarine
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
2 tablespoons lemon juice
2 tablespoons sugar
1/2 cup ketchup
1 cup canned apple sauce
Place toasted bread slices in shallow baking pan. Cover bread slices with turkey. Saute onion in butter or margarine, until light brown; add salt, Worcestershire sauce, lemon juice, sugar, ketchup and apple sauce. Heat, stirring occasionally, pour over open sandwiches. Bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees F., 20 minutes or until thoroughly heated. Serve immediately.
Yields 4 servings.
