Michigan pared down OSC's biggest lead, 66-54, in three minutes to five points, but the Beavers pulled away in the next ten minutes to a 10-point margin.

Oregon, with its fast break and rapid ball handling, cut down its halftime deficit on 11 quick points which gave a 57-56 Duck lead. Anderson, Ross and Bingham led this drive which kept Northwestern to two points for three and a half minutes.
