Michigan and UCLA Working on Defense

Duffy Daugherty Gloomy After Workout

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Like a pair of fighters respecting each other's punch, Rose Bowl football opponents Michigan State and UCLA both were concentrating on defense Wednesday.

Usually carefree MSU Coach Duffy Daughterty was a little bit gloomy when he talked about his first all-out scrimmage on the Coast.

Second stringers versed in the UCLA attack tried out Bruin single-wing tactics against the first team and Duffy was unhappy because his scouting team picked up a lot of ground.

Must Stress Defense

"We're going to have to spend more time on defense in our practices," Daugherty said, "because we just haven't played a team with that type of attack.

"That UCLA type of offense is awfully effective. I'm thinking of picking up a few of their plays to throw back at them."

UCLA Coach Red Sanders said the emphasis at his workout would be on stopping the Michigan State offense.

The Bruins have finished their hard contact work for the game and Sanders is satisfied with their condition.

There was a 20-minute passing drill Tuesday under pressure with Sam Brown, Gerry McDougall and Doug Bradley doing the pitching.

Ronnie Knox was in practice uniform and he told the coaches he would be ready to run through signal practice next week. He has been taking therapy on the bone which was cracked in the Washington game, Nov. 12. Although Sanders is not counting too strongly on Knox, the team's best passer, he said that if he is ready by Jan. 2 "We'll be just that much stronger."

Football Players Have Much Fun as Shrine Hospital Kids

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Don't ever get the idea that a hospital for crippled children is always a place of sadness. It isn't.

It's doubtful whether there was any place in the country with any more genuine happiness Tuesday than the Shrine's Crippled Children's Hospital here.

Two wards full of youngsters with twisted arms, legs, spines and feet chortled with glee as they were visited by two busloads of college football stars. And as they chortled they chattered—about their families, their books and dolls, their pets at home.

There wasn't a tear shed in the place. The football players, members of the East and West squads who will meet in the 31st annual Shrine Game Dec. 31 at Kezar Stadium, had as much fun as the kids.

Each player on both squads had a special "buddy" in the spacious wards. The player's name and the youngster's, typed on cards, were attached to the individual beds.

The school colors of each player—lemon yellow and green for Oregon's Lon Stiner, maize and blue for Michigan's Tony Branoff, scarlet and gray for Ohio State's Howard Cassady, Frank Machinsky and Ken Vargo—decorated the beds of each buddy. The little girls wore the colors in their neatly combed hair, the boys sported appropriate sweaters.

The day, said one of the floor nurses, is the highlight of the year for the young patients.

It even beats Christmas," she said.
