Four Corners Church Class

FOUR CORNERS — An expanded educaion program for young people is being initiated Sunday during the 11 o'clock worship hour at Trinity Methodist church in Four Corners. Children attending kindergarten and primary classes will be offered an additional hour for Christian education. Parents who attend the service at this hour are invited to bring their children to these classes.

A new feature of the regular church school program during the general assembly period preceding the classes is the use of a large turn-over chart entitled, "Spiritual Life for Methodist Christians" on which Methodist history, beliefs and practices are illustrated.

The most important aspect of the extended educational program is the opportunity offered to members of the Senior and Intermediate Youth Fellowships to participate in the current Church Attendance Crusade.

Sunday, following the 11 o'clock service, members of these two youth groups will attend a hamburger fry following which they will visit in the Four Corners area inviting people to attend the church of their choice. A similar project was carried out by the college age group two weeks ago.

Church Seats New Officers

SILVERTON — At the Sunday worship hour of the First Christian church a special ceremonial period was observed when the recently elected officers of the church were installed. The Rev. I. M. Nelson was ceremonial director.

Members of the church board inducted include Ira Loron as chairman; Miss Marguerette Hallock, secretary; R. A. Fish as trustee; Miss Ina Harold, financial secretary; Frank M. Powell as Bible school superintendent.

Dedicated as elders were Ira Loron, Walter Ferguson, Lynn Neal, James Bonner, Orville Page and Frank M. Powell.

Inducted as deacons were Carroll Rold, Milton Knauf, William Bunting, Ray McKibben, A. E. Mccullpugh, Harold Park, Brad Jeffries, Dan Hillman, Clarence Plank, R. A. Fish and John Page.

Deaconnesses dedicated were Mrs. R. A. Fish, Mrs. O. Egan, Mrs. T. Myers, Mrs. A. E McCullough, Mrs Orville Page, Mrs George Elton, Mrs. Otto Dickman and Miss Ina Harold.

The dedicatory sermon topic given by the pastor, the Rev. I. M. Nelson, was "Your Responsibility and Mine."

Expansion for Church Planned

Fifty eight men and women who were elected at the annual meeting of the Court Street Christian church to serve as officers, will join in a service of dedication and consecration at 10:50 a.m. Sunday in the church sanctuary.

"Appointed to Service," will be the theme of the sermon by Rev. W. Harold Lyman, pastor.

The official board of the church has been authorized to secure plans and specifications for the construction of a building to replace the "bungalow", facing on 17th street which is now 42 years old. At the same time it was decided to negotiate and secure property that may become available at a reasonable price for off-street parking as required by city ordinances.

Salem Heights Baptist Plant Progressing

The Salem Heights Baptist church, 3530 Liberty Road, has made progress in their new Sunday School unit this past month. Under the supervision of Ted Lind, the basement and first floor sections are progressing as planned and are on schedule.

Volunteer help in the evenings and Saturdays has speeded up the work and the church hopes to be in the building by April 1, Easter Sunday.

The daylight basement will house the pastor's study, nursery room, kitchen, social room and nine class rooms. The ground floor will be used for a temporary worship place and five class rooms. Building committee chairman is Ferd Zurcher. Helping him on the committee are Ray Houser, Wayne Collins, Harold Childers, Charles Davidson and Rev. Elmer Hiebert. Architect is Frank Struble.

The church has been conducting all their services in the Community Hall, Liberty Road and Madrona Avenue, the past five years and is anticipating using the new Sunday School unit in the near future.

Bible Studies CourseOffered

The people of Salem and vicinity are invited to take advantage of the opportunity to improve their knowledge of the Bible by registering for the new term of Bible studies and instructions to be given at the interdenominational Capital Bible Training School. The new term begins on Monday evening with registrations at 6:45 o'clock and classes from 7:15 to 9:15, at First Baptist church, Liberty and Marion.

Eight courses of studies are being offered by the school this next semester of 15 consecutive Monday nights and each registrant may take two of the courses offered. A study of the provision God has made for man's need of salvation will be taught by Rev. John R. Turnbull. Dr. Lloyd T. Anderson, president of the school, will give an exposition of the Books of first and second Peter. Rev. Alex. H. Sauerwein, Dean of the school, who has recently moved to Tacoma, will be returning each week to teach two courses, one in the study of Genesis and the other a brief survey of each of the New Testament books.

The Life of Christ as presented in the Gospel of Matthew will be taught by Rev. Elmer Fast, and Rev. Robert Goertz will give an exposition of the Acts of the Apostles. Miss Ruth Backus, Portland missionary worker, comes to Salem each Monday to teach a class in the methods of approaching and winning our Jewish friends to Christ. A study of the major false cults is directed by Rev. Elmer Hiebert.

Vestrymen to Be Installed

Newly elected Vestrymen and church officers will be installed in a single ceremony at the eleven o'clock service Sunday morning (January 22nd) in Saint Paul's Episcopal Church. These will include: R. H. Baldock, Senior Warden; James G. Watts, Junior Warden; Elmer A. Berglund, Clerk of the Vestry, and William Rector, church Treasurer. Other new vestrymen to be installed are: Kenneth Sherman, Dr. Dean K. Brooks, Dr. Robert T. Boals. Churches to Participate in Observance of YMCA Program

In observance of National YMCA week, January 22-29, Governor Paul M. Patterson urges the "people of the state to take part in the many special activities planned for this period," in a proclamation issued Thursday.

After reciting that the "Y movement has done untold good and has meant so much to the hundreds and thousands of men and boys," the governor continued, "one of the reasons for this notable and heart-warming records is that the YMCA throughout the tumultous changes of 10 crowded decades has never compromised its high purposes."

January 22 has been proclaimed "YMCA Sunday" and in this connection 37 Salem churches have agreed to use some 7500 bulletins for distribution to the congregations. This will be one method of highlighting the close working relationship between the churches and the Y.

The Salem Y as scheduled a number of activities for the latter part of January and early February. The committee in charge of the special activities, includes Otto Wilson, Robert O. Smith, Douglas Chambers and Dr. Robert Anderson, all members of the Y board.

The downtown Kiwanis club will devote its program Tuesday to the Y and the evening of Jan. 31, North Salem Hi-Y clubs and their dads will assemble at the Y for a no host dinner. The YMCA will provide the program for the Salem Rotary club Feb. 1 and that same evening members of the South Salem Hi-Y clubs and their dads will have dinner at the Y. A similar affair for Parrish and Leslie junior Hi-Y clubs and fathers is scheduled for Feb. 2. The Y Mothers club is cooperating.

On Feb. 8 the Exchange club will recognize the YMCA in its program.

Many other social events are planned including swimming and wrestling meets with Portland Northeast Y.

Mission Film Will Be Shown Sunday Night

The third in a series of Sunday Evening School of Missions at the First Christian Church will feature a film at the 7:30 hour "Where the New Day Dawns", a picture of the spread of the Christian gospel in Thailand, the Philippines and Japan. At 5:45 the families will gather for their sandwich and dessert snack and for devotions around the family table. Again at 6:30 the individual age groups will meet for their study on "A World in Turmoil".

Another inspiration at 7:30 will be the presence of Roger Weaver, who was a delegate to the International DSF in Athens, Ohio, during the Christmas vacation. He will speak concerning the meeting of over 3,000 youth from all over the United States, including representatives from 80 different nations who are students in school in the United States. Roger is in school at the University of Oregon and has been a member of the church and the youth groups here for many years. Roger will also speak to the College Age group at 6:30.

Roseberry Helps Sunday Service

Dr. George Roseberry, superintendent of the Salem district of the Methodist church, will assist in the communion service to be held at Summit Methodist church at 11 a.m. Sunday.

Glen Murray, pastor, will preach on the subject "He Leadeth Me."

Albany Pastor to Conclude Meets

Rev. Rod Hulet, pastor of the Free Methodist Church in Albany, will bring the Youth Revival which has been in progress at the local Free Methodist Church during the past week to a close with services Saturday and Sunday nights. The young people of the church have been directing the services, providing leadership and special music nightly. According to the pastor, Rev. M. C. Miller, the meetings have been well attended. The closing services will begin at 7:30 o'clock and the public is invited to attend.
