Hounsell Gets Apology From Labor Council

PORTLAND (AP) — The Oregon State Federation of Labor Friday apologized for an error in its recent evaluation of the voting records of members of the State Legislature.

The evaluation came under the attack recently of State Sen. John P. Hounsell, Hood River Republican. He said the AFL incorrectly identified a bill which he was reported voting against.

James T. Marr, executive secretary of the federation, said it was a "most regrettable" error that a wrong description of S. B. 7—listing it as the bill making Portland State College a degree-granting institution—had been carried. S. B. 7 actually called for raising the minimum salaries of teachers.

Marr said only a few copies of the erroneous report had been distributed before the mistake was discovered. The remainder are being corrcted, he said.

Hounsell also complained of the wording in the description of a memorial to Congress on John Day Dam. Marr offered no apology on this point.

The group voted to recommend to the officials of the city center that the Community hall be made available one night each week to Boy Scout Troop No. 106.

ADENAUER REVIEWS UNITS

ANDERNACH, Germany (AP) — Chancellor Adenauer Friday made his first formal inspection of units of the new West German army, navy and air force. The 80-year-old chancellor was conducted along the ranks of 1,500 men drawn up on the parade ground at a training camp here. They are about half of the total number now taking training in the first step toward forming the future 500,000-man West German armed forces.
