District Meeting For Two Chapters

MOLALLA—About 35 members of Orchid chapter, drove to Silverton last week to take part in the district meeting with Silverton chapter. It was the official visit of worthy grand matron of the grand chapter of Oregon, Mrs. Carlotta Wiesman. Also honored were associate grand worthy matron Mrs. Bertha Burton; grand Ada of Silverton chapter Mrs. Merle Lamarr; worthy matron from Woodburn chapter Mrs. Edna Peterson; worthy matron, Gervais, Mrs. Merle Ramo; worthy matron and patron of Orchid chapter, Mrs. Edna Engle and Leonard Marshall. Chapter members from Gervais and Woodburn also were present.

Silverton chapter opened and closed the district meeting. Molalla chapter exemplified balloting and initiatory work. A degree was given to the worthy grand matron by the star points of Silverton and Orchid chapters, in which a gift was presented. In her message to the two chapters, Mrs. Wiesman stressed the endowment fund for the Masonic Eastern Star home at Forest Grove, and complimented the chapters on their work during the evening's session. A dinner preceded the district meeting; refreshments were served afterwards.

The refreshment committee appointed for Orchid chapter meeting of February 21 is Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dilley and Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Johnson.

WOODBURN—Mrs. Tom DeArmond will be hostess to members of St. Mary's Episcopal guild at a dessert Tuesday, February 14, in the parish hall. The dessert will be served at 1:30 p.m. followed by the business meeting.

SILVERTON—Mr. and Mrs. Tom Barbour (Ruth Melbye) and two children of Portland spent the weekend at the Silverton home of Mrs. Barbour's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Melbye.

SILVERTON—Mr. and Mrs. Larry Carpenter entertained at a birthday anniversary dinner Sunday, Feb. 11, at their home. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dahl, Jr., their two daughters, Janet and Mary Beth of Longview, Wash., the parents of Mrs. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Neal of Silverton and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter.

The Dahls were overnight guests at the Arthur Dahl, Sr., home, Saturday, and returned to their Longview home Sunday afternoon.

Mt. Angel Club Plans Annual Primrose Show

MOUNT ANGEL—Plans for the annual Primrose Flower show scheduled for Sunday, April 22, and a demonstration on flower arranging using dried materials, were highlights of the Mount Angel Garden club meeting last week, in the Mount Angel City hall. Nearly 35 members and guests were present.

Garden club president Mrs. George Schmidt appointed Mrs. O. J. Williams general chairman of the Primrose Flower show. The show will again be staged in the dining room of St. Mary's school, and a plant sale will be conducted to help defray show expenses.

Duane McHalleck, son of Mr. and Mrs. John McHalleck of Monitor, and David Fredrickson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fredrickson of Canby, demonstrated table arrangements using driftwood and dried materials, also demonstrated with materials gathered in home gardens at this time. The two 17-year-old high school seniors have chosen flower arranging as a hobby.

Mount Angel Garden club members will decorate the room and tables and act as room hosts at the open house to honor Mr. and Mrs. Volna J. White on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary. The event will be celebrated Sunday, February 19, from 2 to 5 o'clock in the Legion Memorial hall. Mr. White, vice-president of the club, and Mrs. White have been active members of the local garden club for many years. Friends of Mr. and Mrs. White are invited "through the press" to the afternoon reception.

Club members have been asked to bring flowers from their gardens and help with the decorating on Saturday afternoon, February 18.

Miss Mae Schaefer, a new resident of this city, joined the club, and special guests were Mrs. John McHalleck and Mrs. Charles Brandt, both of Monitor. Mrs. Lucy Kahut received the attendance award.

Mrs. Edna Willig and Mrs. A.E. Loe arranged the program and served refreshments. The buffet table, covered with a white embroidered linen cloth, was centered with an arrangement of daffodils.

BUENA VISTA—An anniversary party for Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Busby was given recently at their home when their children surprised them. The couple were entertaining at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sharp of Independence when their family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Busby and Gary, and Mr. and Mrs. John O'Donnell and son, of Monmouth, arrived.
