

Salem Invites Church Council For Next Year

An invitation to the Oregon Church Council to hold its annual meeting here next year was extended by the Salem Council of Churches at a meeting Monday night. Dates for the state meeting are February 19-20.

The state committee in charge of plans for the convention will meet in Portland next Monday. Salem members of this committee include Rev. Louis White of Knight Memorial Congregational church and Rev. Ernest Goulder of Jason Lee Methodist church.

Rev. Julian Keiser of First Congregational church announced that Dr. Clarence Pickett, former executive secretary of the American Friends Service committee will be the speaker at the March 8 meeting of the council's Christian Life and Work committee.

A report that there were 29 persons enrolled at the second meeting of the "Looking at Marriage" series held weekly at the YMCA was made by Dr. Charles Derthick, psychology professor at Willamette University.

A total of 83 registrants for the leadership school which closed a six week session at the First Methodist church last week was reported by Dr. Burton Bastwick, professor of rural sociology at Willamette University.

The next meeting of the Salem Council will be held at Knight Memorial church on March 19 when the guest speaker will be the Rev. Leonard Osborne, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian church of Portland.
