

Gates Covered Bridge, Once a Picturesque Landmark

When the old covered bridge spanning the North Santiam gorge between Marion and Linn counties at Gates was razed in 1938 residents of the community regretted the passing of a structure regarded as one of the more picturesque of its kind in Western Oregon. Gates covered bridge was built in 1902 and had a span of 174 feet.

Barbara Given Year in Prison

Joseph Eugene Barbara, 40-year-old Silverton painter, was sentenced to one year in the state penitentiary Monday for obtaining money by false pretenses. He had been found guilty of the charge by a circuit court jury last week.

Wesley Lee Norris, 20-year-old former instructor at the Arthur Murray dance studio, waived grand jury hearing Monday and pleaded guilty before Circuit Judge George Duncan to the theft of a typewriter and adding machine from the studio. Sentence was postponed pending a presentence investigation.

NEW PASTOR COMES
SHERIDAN — Rev. Kenneth McCarty, Fresno, Calif., is new pastor of Assembly of God church. He succeeds Rev. C. E. Wasson, who has gone to Beaverton.

France produced 42 billion pounds of milk in 1955.

Pins Given Plywood Men

LEBANON — In an address Sunday evening, Charles W. Fox, president of Cascades Plywood corporation, said that 72 per cent of the company's employees have been there five years or longer. He noted that 387 workers have served five years, 192 have been with the company 10 years and 66 have been on the payroll 15 years.

Pins were given in all three categories at the banquet held in the IOOF hall. Alvin E. Anderson, vice-president and director of the firm, received a 15-year pin in addition to a special gift from the employees, and a special 15-year service pin presented by Hugh Kirkpatrick, member of the board of directors.

Entertainment was furnished by the Lebanon high school mixed choir, directed by Lynn Sjolund.

Cub Scout News

EAST SALEM — This will be a busy week for the Cub Scout Pack 42. Cub Scouts and their parents have been invited by Scoutmaster Roy Rice and his troop for an evening of roller skating at Rickreall rink this Tuesday night. The Scouts are treating their guests for the evening's entertainment from funds raised at Christmas time by sale of trees.

Friday night the annual Blue and Gold dinner for Cub Pack 42 will be held at the schoolhouse.

Woman Keeps Puma as Pet

THOUSAND OAKS, Calif. — Most housewives would flee in terror, with their husbands keeping pace, at the sight of Mrs. Melvin Koontz' kitchen pet.

THOUSANDS OAKS, Calif.—Kimbo, a fairly-domesticated 350-pound puma who likes to sit on the kitchen sink, lounges in his favorite position as his owner, Mrs. Melvin Koontz does the dishes. Mrs. Koontz acquired Kimbo five years ago as a baby. She bottle-fed him and reared him as a pet. Now he romps around the house, sometimes watching TV, and consumes ten pounds of horse meat and a gallon of milk a day. Kimbo, who spends some of his time in a cage leading to the kitchen, is fond of Mrs. Koontz but doesn't care much for her husband or strangers. (AP Photo-fax) cated as a kitten—well, almost. She bottle fed him and reared him although Mrs. Koontz has a few scratches. She acquired the puma, named Kimbo, five years ago as a baby.

Pin Presented Old-Time Mason

DALLAS — Presented with a 50 year pin at a meeting of the masonic lodge recently was Frank M. Hobson, Eldon Bevins, master, made the presentation.

Mr. Hobson became a mason 50 years ago at Pacific lodge No. 50 at Salem.

Past masters of Jennings lodge present for the event were Clifford Jones, Clark Leamer, Walter Muir, George Kurre, Robert Kreson, Maurice Dalton, Edward J. Himes, Paul Johnson, W. L. Soehren, Jack Hayes and Wilson Webb.

Clifford Jones, recently retired master, was presented a past master's certificate by Jack Hayes. A short talk was given by Wilson Webb who was master of Jennings lodge in 1898.

Progress Club Is Opposed to Clinic

Opposition to a proposal to a zone change at Kearney and High streets to permit construction of a medical clinic is being given by the South Salem Progress club.

The organization voted its disapproval at its meeting Monday night. At the session, members also heard the club president,
