

Many Florida Voters Hot for Ike --- And Demo Governor

BY ERNEST B. VACCARO
TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—Joseph Samuel Havespian typifies some of the confusion you run into in trying to figure out whether Florida will go for President Eisenhower again in November.

Havespian is a red-hot Eisenhower booster. But he is just as hot for Fuller Warren, a Democratic former governor and now one of five men contesting Gov. Leroy Collins' bid for re-nomination in the May 8 primary.

hours of looking and it's almost as hard to find an Eisenhower Democrat or Republican of 1952 who blames Eisenhower personally for the integration movement.

A couple of Negro bellboys in a local hotel said they would vote Democratic. "I think times will be better for working people like us if the Democrats get in," one of them said. "But, for goodness sake, don't put my name in the paper."

Knowledge of California entered against the Eisenhower slate in the Republican presidential primary May 29. But it is described as a sort of "standby" slate in the event that Eisenhower should, for any reason, withdraw his candidacy.

Joe Miller Jr., Florida chairman of the Florida-for-Knowland organization, said, "Our entire program is one of supporting the President if at the time of the convention he is a candidate."

Lioness Ignores 3 Cubs; Zoo Men Bottle-Feed 'Em

PORTLAND (AP)—Three lions are getting individual care from zoo employees because Tanya, the lioness to whom they were born Monday, will have nothing to do with them.

Jack Marks, zoo superintendent, said he was taking one home to be bottle fed, trainer Al Knowles is taking one and the third is unassigned.

The zoo now has nine lions—Tanya, Pasha the father, Tom, Cleo, two cubs a year and a half old and the latest three.

It doesn't strike Havespian as unusual that Warren, whom he champions so stoutly, is a strong booster of Adlai Stevenson both against Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee for Florida's 28 votes in the Democratic National Convention, and against Eisenhower in November.

But, to quote Havespian, a pipe organ builder and a Democrat: "If Ike wasn't in it, I'd vote for Kefauver. Next to Ike, I think he's another statesman. Stevenson is a politician."

Vice President Nixon is not his choice for Ike's running mate. "Nixon seems to agitate people," he said. "He could lose Eisenhower Florida." Nevertheless, Havespian predicts Florida will vote for Eisenhower again.

That view differs greatly from those of former Gov. Warren and Gov. Collins, who say the Democratic party is stronger today and better financed than it was four years ago when Eisenhower got 544,036 votes to 444,950 for Stevenson.

Political reporters and both Democratic and Republican politicians say Stevenson has an edge on Kefauver for Florida's Democratic convention votes. They are contesting in the second, or runoff Democratic primary May 29. Sen. Russell (D-Ga.) bested Kefauver in the preferential primary four years ago.

Sen. Holland (D-Fla.) is lukewarm to both Stevenson and Kefauver. Sen. Smathers (D-Fla.) has boosted Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex.) as the party's 1956 standard bearer.

Peyton Yon, assistant treasurer of the Republican State Executive Committee, registered as a Republican after a tour of duty in 1952 as a Democrat-for-Eisenhower worker.

He told this reporter he and a lot of his neighbors switched to Eisenhower four years ago because they thought the national Democratic organization had gone too far in pushing civil rights.

And while he said he is confident Eisenhower will carry the state again, he said the people he has talked to in west Florida "aren't too strong for Nixon," adding: "He'll have to do a selling job for himself down here."

Southern opposition to Nixon, where it is expressed, stems almost directly from his recent New York speech in which he claimed credit for the GOP stand in the civil rights field.
