$600,000 for County From O&C Nearer

Marion county was one step nearer to the acquisition of a fund approximating $600,000 as the result of a decision reached by the United States district court for the District of Columbia. This information was contained in a letter received by the county court Wednesday from Frank S. Sever, executive secretary of the O & C Land grant counties, Portland.

The U. S. district court for the District of Columbia has allowed our motion for summary judgment in the case of Messrs. Lafferty and Merrick against all of the O & C counties, except Clackamas county, holding that the distribution of controverted monies was procured by legislation which Lafferty and Merrick opposed and therefore that no benefit was conferred upon the counties by their effort. It said Sever's letter. He added: "It is too early, of course, to tell whether or not they will appeal."

The controversy which has involved considerable litigation over a period of years, involved the distribution of several millions of dollars in receipts from the sale of timber growing on the O & C lands.

Marion county's share is comparatively small because of the lesser amount of acres involved in the controversy.

Lebanon Sets Spring Fete

LEBANON — Spring opening for downtown merchants will be held March 23-24. It will feature a two-day jamboree, free merchandise, band music and other treats.

Weldon Fuge, chairman of the retail merchants committee, said that the top attraction will be two clowns who tour downtown streets all day Friday giving tickets to all adults. Corresponding numbers on the tickets will be displayed on merchandise in participating stores. The fortunate ticket-holder will receive that merchandise free. No prize will be less than $1 in value.

The treasure hunt will proceed throughout Saturday and most stores will be open until 9 p.m.

An Elks band concert will be staged Friday evening.

Home Destroyed At Rural Dell

MOLALLA—The Elmer Widstrand house, Rt. 3, Rural Dell district, was a complete loss Monday afternoon when it was burned down, with nothing saved.

Molalla Volunteer firemen spent a busy time keeping the fire from spreading, as the stiff breeze blew burning shingles onto the nearby home of Raymond Killo.

Mrs. Widstrand was in Portland where she owns and operates a dress shop and Widstrand was not at the house. Cause of the fire was undetermined. The structure was an old frame house.

Transamerica Profit Slumps

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—Transamerica Corporation, one of the world's largest holding companies, reported yesterday its 1955 consolidated net profit was down nearly $7 million from the 1954 level.

Bel Transamerica President F. N. Belgrano Jr., told the stockholders in the firm's annual report that most of Transamerica's major subsidiaries showed continuing gains during 1955.

The 1955 profit was $33,872,926, down nearly $7 million from the $40,652,943 net profit the company reported in 1954. Last year's profit was $3.16 a share on 10,711,194 shares outstanding, compared with $4.13 paid the previous year.

The major reason for the decline Belgrano said, was that the 1954 figure included $6,200,000 in non-recurring profit which Transamerica got from the consolidation of certain banking interests.

Belgrano said the firm's emphasis throughout 1955 was directed toward broadening Transamerica's banking interests.

"Still further enlargement is in progress or is contemplated," he said.

Old Locomotive To Be Bought For Woodburn

WOODBURN — Efforts are being made to secure a Southern Pacific locomotive to place in one of the city parks in Woodburn as a monument to the early history of Woodburn in which railroads played an important part.

Gene Stoller and Winton Hunt make up an unofficial committee interested in obtaining an old locomotive for Woodburn and have been informed by B. S. Quale, passenger traffic and public relations manager for the SP, that Woodburn can have a locomotive if arrangements can be made for moving the locomotive from the SP tracks to the park site and maintenance of the piece of equipment thereafter.

Chicago Livestock

CHICAGO — Butcher hogs gained 25 to 35 cents Wednesday, an 85 head lot selling at $14.35. This was the best price for hogs since Feb. 3.

Most 190 to 270 pound butchers were taken at $13.50 to $14.00. Butchers scaling 280 to 330 pounds sold at $12.75 to $13.50 and 340 to 375 pounds at $12.25 to $12.75.

Top on prime steers was $25.00, set by one load. Choice and prime sold at $21.00 to $25.00 while most choice kinds brought $18.25 to $20.50. A few loads of choice and prime heifers brought $18.75 to $19.50.

Good to prime wooled lambs moved at $19.50 to $21.25.

Salable receipts were 8,000 hogs, 13,000 cattle, 300 calves and 1,500 sheep.

Chicago Grain

CHICAGO — Grains held within rather narrow price limits on the Board of Trade Wednesday, lacking any incentive for aggressive buying or selling. Trading proceeded at a listless pace.

Prices firmed early, led by May wheat. It hit a new seasonal high. Later the market drifted lower, most futures falling below the previous close. Prices firmed again late in the day.

Wheat closed 1/2-3/4 higher, May 2.24 1/4, corn 1/4-1/2 higher, May 1.38 1/4-1.38, oats 1/4-1/2 higher, May 63 3/4-64, rye 1/4-1/2 higher, May 1.29, soybeans 1 to 2 cents higher, May 2.64 1/4-2.64 and lard 2 cents lower to 5 cents a hundred pounds higher, May 12.22.

Wall Street

NEW YORK — The stock market backed down under profit-taking Wednesday with trading at a lively clip.

Although the general trend of the market was lower, a number of individual issues made good advances under the influence of corporate developments.

Losses went from 1 to around 3 points rather frequently. Gains usually were little, water than a point at the outside.

Trading came to an estimated three billion shares. That compares with 2,960,000 shares traded in Tuesday's market when prices on average hit another record high mark.

St. Paul Hop Voting Heavy

Special Referendum on Commission to End Wednesday

More than a third of the total number of ranchers eligible to vote in the hop commission referendum now underway cast their ballots at the special St. Paul polling place Tuesday evening.

Thirty three votes were cast at St. Paul, Marion County Extension Agent Hollis Ottoway reported Wednesday. The state department of agriculture reports that a total of 93 persons are listed as eligible to cast ballots in the election.

Polls at the county extension offices are close at 5 p.m. Wednesday.

In addition to the 33 votes at St. Paul, nine farmers have voted at the county extension office in Salem, Ottoway said.

At Dallas, John Hansen, county extension agent, said that "a pretty good percentage" of the hop growers in Polk county have voted either at the courthouse there or at a special polling place at Independence Tuesday night.

The balloting is on a proposal to establish a commodity commission for hops. The action was sought in a petition from 52 hop growers.

Most of the hops in the state are now grown in Marion and Polk counties with Marion county the leading producer.

Results of the referendum will not be known until Friday or Monday.
