Purge Director Named Boss of Poland's Reds

VIENNA (AP)—Edward Ochab, who purged Polish farm trade union and army ranks, has been named to succeed Boleslaw Bierut as boss of Poland's Communist party.

Warsaw radio today announced the election of Ochab as first secretary of the Communist United Workers' party. Bierut died in Moscow March 12. Ochab, now 50 and a long-time Red, rose through the ranks to such key posts as boss of the peasant cooperatives, head of the trade unions, political chief of the army and Politburo member.

Sources in Vienna have predicted that the new secretary will share a "collective leadership" of Communist Poland along with Premier Josef Cyrankiewicz and President Alexander Zawadzki, with Moscow exercising even closer supervision than in the past. Ochab has been a frequent party critic and whip. At the party's second Congress in 1954, he criticized it for bad political organization and called for a fight to "purify" the ranks
