

Boots and Spurs

By THELMA YOUNGQUIST

With the summer riding season soon to be here many members are acquiring horses that they will enjoy on the trail rides, show participation and to ride in the drills. Gayton Steinknecht purchased Nick Brinkley's horse "Duchess." "Duchess" is familiar to the barn for Nick rode her in the drill. The George Slender family have two new horses, one for Jean and one for Danny. Jean's is a four-year-old chestnut mare named "Penny" and Danny has a brown gelding, whose name changed from day to day. Danny just can't quite find a suitable name for her wonderful new pet. The Stenders enjoy the trail rides and now all three of them can saddle up and enjoy the fun.

Another new tanbarker was added to the list last Friday night.

Lee Edwards hit the tank, he was not injured nor was his horse. The Mollets and Kurtzes were hosts to a good fast fun night for the many riders last Friday night. Shirley Gandy won the special prize, a small table clock, and was proudly showing it to everyone. Stephanie Kurtz was unable to help with the fun night for she was having a wonderful time at Mt. Hood skiing. Brand new skis had to be tested and she was taking advantage of the few weekends of good skiing that are left this season. She can ride all summer but the snow will soon melt.

Fred Lawrence, his wife Joanne and their small daughter arrived back in Salem last week. Fred is now out of the Army, having served a good portion of his time in Japan. Joanne resided in California with her parents while Fred was overseas. Fred will no doubt be out to the barn soon to visit with his many friends.

The Glenn Conklines have a new Shetland horse colt, the pet of the ranch. It is very tiny and just as full of pep as a puppy. Glenn works hard training his Shetlands but this past week he has had an enforced vacation from that duty. He found that anything can happen when a Shetland is hitched to a cart and becomes frightened. Glenn was in the cart when this happened last Sunday and when the fracas was over he was lying on the cement. It injured his back and we imagine his feelings, too. He was not seriously injured, but moved with caution for a few days.

At the monthly meeting Monday night five new members were voted in to the club. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Livesley, Philip Jackson, Harold Davis and Raymond Hart. Also at the meeting Gene Southwick was appointed ring steward. Gene's duties will be to enforce the ring rules and he will be glad to help any new members familiarize themselves with the ring rules. The old members should know the rules by now, but they too sometimes forget. Gene will appoint two assistants each riding night. Holly Jackson announced that there will be a Baseball Kick-off parade April 28 at 4 p.m., and asked that the club have a representation of riders in the parade.

The show committees met last Thursday night to iron out more plans for the coming May show. Everything is progressing smoothly and the show promises to be better than ever. The list of events is about completed, and they are events that will please both the contestants and spectators.
