San Diego Scores 5 Times in 2nd Inning

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
SAN DIEGO stretched its lead in the Pacific Coast League to 1 1/2 games Friday night by thumping Seattle, 8-2, scoring five times in the second inning.

Albie Pearson, a 145-pound, 5-6 outfielder, tripled with two outs in the last of the ninth and drove in the winning run as San Francisco defeated Los Angeles, 6-5.

The ninth-inning fielder's choice scored Bill Henry and boosted the Seals into a tie for second place in the league. Henry ran for Don Lenhardt, who walked.

Portland Sh. I. Out
Charley Naranjo of Hollywood shut out Portland 7-0, and Vancouver scored three times in the 13th inning to beat Sacramento, 6-3, in the other two PCL games.

Naranjo, a Cuban, limited Portland to three blows and struck out seven men. Helping him were a two-run homer by Bill Mazeroski and another homer by Paul Pettit. Joe Taylor doubled home both Seattle runs after Carmen Mauro hunted safely and Milt Smith walked in the sixth.

Ted Says First Month Will Determine Fate of Red Sox

Running Start Needed to Overcome Yankees, Slugger Thinks

By JOE REICHLER
NEW YORK (AP)—Ted Williams thinks the first 30 days of the season will determine the fate of the Boston Red Sox.

If Boston can get off to a running start and stay in front of New York at the mid-May mark—say by three or four games—the Red Sox will have a good chance to upset the favored Yankees. That's the opinion of the Red Sox slugger who never has been known to avoid saying exactly what is on his mind.

"Better Team Than Last" "I'm not yet ready to say we've got as good a chance to win as the Yankees have," he said. "I think we have a better team than last year but we can use some help. I think we need just a little more hitting—one more thumper, whether he's left-handed or right-handed."

The kids—Don Buddin and Frank Malone—look like they'll help, but the key to our offense is Sammy White. If he can add about 10 home runs and pick up 20 or 25 RBIs he'd be the greatest catcher in the league.

Need Southpaw Pitching "We can use more balance in the pitching department. All our front line pitching is right-handed. If either of our southpaws—Mel Parnell or Frank Baumann, or both—come through, we'll give the Yankees or any other club a real headache."

Williams pointed out that the schedule gives the Red Sox a tremendous early season break.

"We play 18 of our first 23 games at home," he said. "If we can win 13 or 14 of those home games and hold our own in New York and Baltimore, we might put some pressure on the Yankees right from the start. That should give our kids added confidence and prove a great morale builder for the entire club."

Fell Apart on Road "The Red Sox' record is 3-1 following yesterday's 7-1 loss to the Yankees. A year ago they won six of their first seven but fell apart on the road, losing 12 of 15.

By the time they returned home they were in seventh place. On June 4, they were 15 games out of first place. A spectacular second half season, during which they played nearly 750 ball, failed to boost them higher than fourth."

Cardinal Hurlers "Cousins" to the Home Run Sluggers

Eight Allowed in 3 Games, Hangover From '55

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press
It's a new season, all right, but the St. Louis Cardinals' pitching staff is still staggering around with a homer hangover.

The Redbirds were clipped for 185 home runs last season, a major league record. Now it looks like the mark may not last the year.

In three games, St. Louis pitching has been picked for eight he drove in four runs as the New York Yankees walloped Boston's Red Sox 7-1; the Chicago White Sox remained unbeaten and in first place by beating Kansas City 6-3 as Ron Northey triggered a three-run ninth with a pinch-run homer; Cleveland won its first home game, 3-2, behind Early Wynn's five-hitter; and Baltimore gained its first victory with Gus Triandos' two-run homer that beat Washington 3-2.

Won in Eighth Milwaukee homers came off starter Tom Poholsky, the big right-hander who gave up 20 gophers last season. Reliever Stu Miller was the loser, however, and Baltimore's sacrifice fly that scored Mathews with an unearned winning marker in the eighth.
