The Saturday 10:45 a.m. junior confirmation class will meet with the Immanuel Lutheran group under instruction of the Rev. Arnold W. Nelson at Immanuel Lutheran church.

Education to Be Honored

Each year at this time, churches observe National Higher Education Week with special emphasis on brotherhood colleges. At the First Christian church next Sunday there will be the observance of this day for Northwest Christian college at Eugene. This college is supported by the Christian churches of this area of the country and offers training for those wishing to go into full time Christian service.

John Boosinger will be the speaker at the morning worship service. Formerly Mr. Boosinger was minister for the Christian church at Sunnyside, Wash., and in Forest Grove, Ore. He is now in the capacity of assistant to the president at Northwest Christian college. At the evening service the Youth Choir under direction of Page Bailey of Willamette university will bring a special number for the worship hour.

Methodists to Hold Dinners

All members of First Methodist church will participate in a series of Fellowship dinners based on the district and neighborhood plan with the stress on Know Your Church and the stewardship phase of the church program, Dr. Brooks H. Moore, minister announced this week.

The dates for the covered dish dinners to be held in the church dining room promptly at 6:30 p.m. are:

District A and D — Tuesday, April 24th.

Districts C, E, and F —Thursday, April 26th.

Districts B AND G — Friday, April 27th.

The assimilating committee of the church of which Dr. and Mrs. Waldo C. Zeller are chairmen is in charge of the arrangements.

Guest Speakers Mission Street United Brethren

Mission Street United Brethren will have two different guest speakers in their Sunday services. At the morning worship hour, Rev. and Mrs. Logan and Miss White, a nurse, from the American Indian Mission at Farmington, N.M., will speak. Rev. Logan is of the Seneca Indian tribe of New York and his wife is a Navajo. They will present their work among the Navajos and Rev. Logan will preach the morning sermon.

In the evening, the Rev. Donald McFadden, youthful evangelist from Portland, who has been conducting an evangelistic campaign at this church through the past week, will speak again using as his topic: "And They Wearied Themselves to Find the Door". A chalk artist of note, he draws a chalk picture each night.

The regular pastor, Rev. R V. Kilmer will be out of town for both services, speaking at the Overland Park church in Portland, a church which he started in 1950 as a student pastor.

Missionary at First Baptist

Ron Esson, missionary from Bukidnon in the Philippines will speak and show colored pictures at the 7:30 Sunday night service at the First Baptist church. Esson, a pharmascist, has assisted in medical work among the natives, as well as in a preaching and evangelistic ministry. He is the son of Mrs. Edna Esson of Salem and will spend the following week in her home. He and his family will return to the Philippines on July 13, leaving from Seattle on the China Mail.

In addition to the missionary service, Pastor Anderson will give a preview of his forthcoming trip to the Holy Land by means of a large map which will be projected on the screen. Rev. Stanton Irvine, youth director of the church, will perform on the cornet for the special music of the evening.

Evangelism on Mission Street

Mission Street United Brethren church is engaged in a series of Evangelistic meetings this week and next with the Rev. Donald McFadden of Portland as evangelist. He is a chalk artist and musician. Each evening one of the large pictures is given to the person who brings the most guests. Each picture is a gospel illustration, highlighted by realistic black light with a background of special music and authentic sound recordings.

ANGEL IN EBONY

The motion picture "Angel In Ebony" will be shown at the North Howell Community church at 8 o'clock Sunday night.

Taylor university, Upland, Ind., produced the picture which tells the story of an African prince as a challenge to Christian groups.

Salem Bahais To Hear Newport Sunday at YWCA

The Baha'is of Salem and Marion county are sponsoring a meeting at the YWCA, 3 p.m. Sunday, to which the public is invited. Marvin Newport will speak on the subject, "Is World Peace Possible?" following which there will be an open discussion period.

Newport has been a Baha'i for 19 years and has lectured on the Baha'i Faith before high school and college groups, service clubs and church groups. He has taught and lectured in conferences and summer schools from coast to coast.

This year Mr. Newport will represent Oregon as a delegate to the Annual National Baha'i Convention in Wilamette, Illinois.

The building of the U. S. aircraft carrier Saratoga required four miles of blueprints a day for 20 months.
