Miss Groshong Wed Saturday Morning

Mount Angel—St. Mary's Catholic church was the setting for a pretty wedding Saturday morning, when Miss Barbara Jean Groshong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Marion Groshong of Scotts Mills, was married to Earl Landon, son of Roy Landon of Scotts Mills, and the late Mrs. Landon.

Daffodils and white blossoms with greenery and tall lighted tapers in candelabras decorated the altar and sanctuary for the service. The Rev. Hildebrand Melchior, O.S.B., officiated at the 10 o'clock double ring ceremony and nuptial high mass in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends. Serving as altar boys were Billy and David Worley. For the music, the St. Mary's church choir sang the mass and Miss Helen Keber was organist. Miss Patricia Anderson sang before the service and again preceding the recessional while the couple knelt at the side altar of Our Blessed Mother.

Mr. Groshong escorted his daughter to the altar. The bride wore a Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over white satin dress. The fitted bodice of lace, styled with a sweetheart neckline and long lace sleeves, tapered over the hands. The full bouffant skirt of nylon tulle over satin terminated in a chapeau-length train. Scalloped Chantilly lace bordered the skirt and the sides of the front inset of pleated tulle. A Juliet cap of lace and tulle with rhinestone and seed pearl trim held in place a fingertip illusion veil. The bridal bouquet contained large orchids with a cascade of yellow cymbidium orchids and yellow centered white daisies.

Miss Helen Groshong was the honor attendant for her sister. She wore a frock of light green polka dot nylon over tulle, fashioned with fitted bodice and pleated tulle portrait collar. Her full bouffant skirt was floor length.

Bridesmaid was Miss Shirley Landon, sister of the bridegroom, who wore a frock of light blue nylon styled identically to the honor attendant's dress.

Flower girl Patricia Spolski, cousin of the bride, wore a light blue dress of the same design as the dresses of the other attendants. She carried a nosegay of yellow centered white daisies and blue flowers were pinned centered on her dress.

PLAN SPECIAL DAY FOR SORORITY

Sorority Luncheon

An event for next Saturday, April 28, attracting visitors from all over Oregon will be the annual International Reunion Day for Alpha Gamma Delta alumnae. "To cherish friendship" is the theme for the day's program.

with greenery. Their single strands of pearls were gifts from the bride.

Ring bearer was Tommy Landon of Coos Bay, nephew of the bridegroom.

Robert Landon of Coos Bay was best man for his brother, and Harold Jackson of Scotts Mills was groomsmen. Ushers were Henry Spolski of Salem, uncle of the bride, and Donald Frey of Canby.

Mrs. Groshong, mother of the bride, selected a blue nylon dress for her daughter's wedding. With it she wore a matching blue hat and red accessories, and a corsage of peonies.

The reception which followed the church service was arranged in the dining room of St. Mary's school, where a noon luncheon was served to more than 200 guests. Daffodils and spring blossoms and candles decorated the tables and the reception room. The bride's table, covered with a white linen cloth, was centered with an arrangement of candles and flowers. A three-tiered wedding cake decorated in white with daisies was topped with a triple wedding bell ornament.

Cutting the cake were Mrs. Joseph Ferlan of Molalla, godmother of the bride, and Mrs. John Spolski, aunt of the bride. Presiding at the coffee urn were Mrs. Henry Spolski of Salem, aunt of the bride, and Miss Elsie Dale of Scotts Mills. Mrs. Anthony Beilenberg served the punch, and was in charge of the gift table. Miss Dana Landon, sister of the bridegroom, circulated the guest book. Assisting in serving were the Misses Caroline Sorenson and Carol Boyce, both of Scotts Mills, Mary Jean Wyland of Molalla and Marilyn Beyer and Helen Farnest of Mount Angel. Miss Judith Taylor and Miss Mary Ann Biemeier assisted with the gifts.

For her traveling attire, the bride wore a black and white spring cotton with duster to match, complemented with pink accessories, and the bride carried a nosegay of yellow centered white daisies.

From their return from a wedding trip the couple will be at home in Silverton.
