Washington Mothers Install Officers at Thursday Meet

EAST SALEM—A musical program and installation of new officers were special features of the program for the last meeting of the school year of Washington School Mothers club meeting at the school Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Dale Mallicoat, a past president, installed the following officers: president, Mrs. Fred Anunsen Jr.; vice-president, Mrs. Carl Komyate; secretary, Mrs. Herbert Aplirgton, and treasurer, Mrs. James De Laney. Each was presented with a corsage.

Committees announced for the new year are: ways and means, Mrs. O. T. Logan, chairman; Mrs. Bruce Thompson, Mrs. Virgil Wilson; room mothers, Mrs. Donald Weber and Mrs. Paul Brandon; publicity, Mrs. Claude Borszich; representative to Salem school council, Mrs. Merle Peterson; health, Mrs. Kenneth Elwood.

The retiring president, Mrs. Gordon Davidson, was presented with a gift by the club members.

Beginning the musical program were numbers by the third graders of Mrs. Lorna Nash and the first grade of Mrs. Clarissa Glenn. English songs were sung by the second grade of Miss Margaret Henley and Rhythms were presented by the fourth and fifth grade of Miss Eva Wolfe. The sixth grade chorus, under the direction of Lawrence Miller, sang several special numbers.

The members of the chorus were dressed in new white robes purchased by the club and made by a volunteer group of mothers of the club.

Brief talks were given by representatives of youth groups the club sponsors: Mrs. D. D. Delp, the Blue Birds; Mrs. Max Nettleton, Camp Fire Girls; Cub Scouts, Mrs. O. T. Logan and 4-H clubs, Mrs. Amunensen.

Camp Fire girls sang two numbers and each group displayed work accomplished throughout the year.

A committee was appointed to purchase a tea service set for use by the club with a portion of this year's funds. The treasurer, Mrs. Gemmell, reported a balance of $165. Attendance awards for mothers present went to the rooms of Mrs. Glenn and Mrs. Otto. Following the meeting a voluntary silver tea was conducted to present Miss Henley, the school's exchange teacher, who will return to England this summer.

U.S. Girl and Greek Romeo Finally Wed

ATHENS, Greece (AP) —Elaine Milton of Dayton, Ohio, and her Greek Romeo - by - mail finally made it to the altar yesterday. Their nine-month correspondence courtship nearly went on the rocks when Elaine's mother brought abduction charges against Sideris.

Elaine, 22, fell in love with John Sideris, a 31-year-old fishmonger, after seeing his photograph in Dayton. They became engaged with her parents' approval after corresponding for nine months and Elaine came to Greece with her mother to see him.

After arriving, Mrs. Milton changed her mind and decided the marriage was off. Elaine fled to John, and Mrs. Milton brought abduction charges.

Mrs. Milton dropped the charge after the pair insisted they were in love and Elaine showed police documents attesting her father, a Dayton restaurant owner, approved the match.

The couple were married in a small suburban church while Mrs. Milton looked on.

Within a few minutes, Marlatt was doing a thriving business in the lobby of the hotel which will soon be torn down. "I'll have those chairs paid for in no time," he said and, as it turned out, he was right.
