

McKay Rests After Rugged Primary Race

Tired Candidate Happy Over Results of Voting

Exhausted after a strenuous campaign, Douglas McKay, successful Republican candidate for United States Senator in Friday's primary election, left early Sunday with Mrs. McKay for his beach home at Neskevin.

"I expect to get a lot of sleep and relaxation," McKay said. "I am tired but happy over the results of the primary campaign."

McKay said he would remain at the beach for a week or 10 days at least after which he may return to Salem and Portland to lay plans for the fall campaign.

A large number of congratulatory telegrams were awaiting McKay when he returned to the home of Mrs. Lester Green, a daughter, a home which the McKays occupied prior to his appointment as Secretary of the Interior.

The telegrams, McKay said, were from well wishers not only in Oregon but from many points in the nation. In addition he had scores of telephone calls, many of them from Washington, D. C.

McKay will oppose Wayne Morse, democratic nominee for re-election to his senate seat at the general election in November.

Rock-and-Roll Show Picketed

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—White Citizens Council pickets urged white persons to stay away from a concert by rock-and-roll music stars yesterday, but about 2,500 ignored the demonstration to see the show.

The concert was presented in the afternoon for a white audience and at night for Negroes. Both programs were heavily guarded by police.

Some 50 to 60 pickets appeared outside the municipal auditorium for the show for white persons. They were in turn picketed by about 12 teen-age white boys. The youths carried signs reading, "Rock-and-roll is here to stay, and 'Three cheers for Bill Haley,'" a nationally known recording artist who was the headliner of the show. He is white.

The demonstrators against rock-and-roll carried printed placards reading, "Down with be-bop," "Christians will not attend this show," and "Ask your preacher about jungle music." They didn't picket the program for Negroes.

Saturday Matinee Goes on Despite Furnace Smoke

Smoke which filled the basement and balcony of the Capitol theater Saturday afternoon failed to halt the children's matinee.

Cause of the smoke was backfire from the furnace, city fireman said. No damage was reported. Only one truck responded to the call and most of the children in the theater were unaware of what was wrong.

Marie Dionne's Flower Shop Sellout at Montreal Opening

MONTREAL (AP)—Marie Dionne's new flower shop—named Salon Emille after the dead quint sister—was a sell-out even before its scheduled opening today.

So many persons flocked to a preview opening yesterday and demanded flowers that the shop virtually was cleaned out.

"We had not planned to sell any flowers but so many people asked for bouquets to take to patients at the three nearby hospitals that we had no alternative," Miss Dionne's assistant, Ellen Bourget, said.

"Our stocks are running out and we've had to send for more." The Rev. Gastave Snyve of Ottawa University blessed the midtown shop in the glare of movie cameras. Marie wore a grey tailored dress set off with a white gardenia. Annette, a musical student, was on hand and Yvonne and Cecile, the other surviving quint, joined the party after work at the suburban hospital where they are student nurses.

Marie entered a convent as a

Police Clear Florida Beach To Avert Row

DELRAY BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Police ordered about 150 whites and Negroes off the public beach yesterday, breaking up an apparent dispute over use of the bathing strip.

Officers declined to discuss the incident. Observers said about 75 Negroes and an equal number of whites, mostly teen-agers, confronted each other near where the Negroes had been bathing.

Delray Beach city officials last week indicated Negroes were welcome to use the beach.

CD Observers Not Dismayed By Bomb Test

USS MT. MCKINLEY, off Bikini (AP)—Sixteen civil defense experts who witnessed today's H-bomb explosion said they were "not necessarily dismayed by the sight, awe-inspiring though it was."

Their statement: "The tremendous thermonuclear detonation we witnessed here emphasizes the vital need for increased civil preparedness to strengthen the weakest link in our total defense which is an essential deterrent to aggression.

"Dropped as it was from an operational jet aircraft, this bomb should bring home to Americans everywhere that the deliverable hydrogen weapon is a reality. However, civilians, too, can defend themselves and their industry and keep their determination to fight back, should the need arise, even against such a weapon as this.

"The civil defense observers here from state, city and federal organizations are not necessarily dismayed by the sight, awe-inspiring though it was. Individual and

Soviet Frees Poles, Balts

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Times said today that Poles and Balts, long prisoners in Soviet labor camps have written to relatives in the United States that they have been released and may be family preparedness, coupled with a growing support for civil defense is the key to national civilian strength so indispensable to a strong military organization."

able to emigrate to the United States.

A Washington dispatch to the newspaper also said: State Department officials who reported the development said about a dozen letters from former prisoners had come to their attention. The writers were said to have explained that with United States visas emigration was possible.

The State Department officials said the Soviet Union and its satellites had already permitted some individuals to emigrate and that they had been granted entry visas to join relatives in the United States.

Eight Perish In Ohio Auto, Train Smash

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP)—Eight persons were killed last night when a New York Central passenger train hit an automobile near the west edge of Elyria.

Only four of the victims had been definitely identified early today—several hours after the crash.

They were listed by Dr. S. C. Ward, Lorain County coroner, as Millard C. Martin, 37, Akron, Ohio; his wife Elyria, 33; their son David Martin, 13; and Warren Edwards, 46, Akron.

The sheriff's office traced license tags on the automobile to Martin.

The train was the NYC's Pace-maker, bound from Chicago to New York. Engineer W. C. Karchure of Toledo said it was going 70 to 75 miles an hour when he saw the automobile approach the crossing.

The car made no apparent attempt to stop, although the diesel locomotive's bell, whistle and oscillating headlight were operating.

Karchure said: "Some of the bodies and parts of wreckage were strewn along the tracks for about half a mile before the train could be brought to a halt. Other bodies were taken from the twisted ruins of the automobile."

good records are meant to be beaten

THE INFANTILE DEATH RATE in the United States is very low. From 1934 to 1936 we ranked seventh in the world, tied only by New Zealand, Holland, Australia, Norway, Switzerland, and Sweden.

Yet 70,000 infants die annually in the first month of life, and 53,000 more from the second to the twelfth month. How many of these precious infants might have lived had their mothers had adequate prenatal care under the direction of a competent physician?

It is now up to the mothers to take advantage of the knowledge and skill of the physician during the trying months of pregnancy. We are ready to supply the needed dietary supplements and other medication ordered by your physician.
