

Some Notations . . .

By M. L. F.

A very enjoyable and hospitable gathering Sunday afternoon was held at home for which Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Wiscarsen were hosts at their South High street residence. Friends were invited to call between 2 and 7 o'clock. It was a garden party, really, guests soon finding their way to the spacious gardens at the home. . . . Numerous evergreens, fruit trees and beautiful rhododendrons in bloom now, as well as several border plants added to the enjoyment of the garden trek. . . . The hosts received informally in the living room. . . . The decor in the house also made a garden setting. . . . On the piano was a huge bouquet of rose-red peonies and pink blooms, and in front of the fireplace was a basket of spring flowers in the same shades. . . . The buffet was covered with a rose-pink hand-woven cloth shot with silver, at one corner an arrangement of deep pink snaps, peonies and roses with pink candles at either side. . . . Adding a refreshing note to the table was the center arrangement of a frosted half-melon shell filled with melon balls and strawberries. . . . The punch table, all in green, was set up under the apple trees in the gardens. . . .

Among those greeted during our late afternoon call Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Martin, Dr. and Mrs. Estill L. Brank, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Tindall, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Himmel, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Headrick, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Halvarson, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brazie, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Guldinger, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Goodenough, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Walling, Mr. and Mrs. Russell D. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Colgan, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie E. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hume, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Earl Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burlingham, Mrs. Tom Wolgamott, Mrs. Carl Aschenbrenner, Mrs. Everett Poe. . . .

Invitations came this weekend to Salem friends for the wedding of Miss Gail Joan Uplike of Portland and Thomas Watson Steeves of Salem, the ceremony to be solemnized the afternoon of Saturday, June 9, at 2 o'clock in All Saints Catholic church, Portland, the reception following there also. . . . The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Uplike of Portland and Mr. Steeves is the son of Mrs. Conrad Paulson of Salem. . . .

It was back to work this week end following a few days vacation at the beach. . . . And what perfect weather we "picked" at the beach while you valley folks were enjoying your warm temperatures up to 95! Seldom have we run into more perfect weather for the oceanside, and what a beautiful time to be along the coast—the rhododendrons being out, some hillside ablaze with the bright yellow Scotch broom (albeit it is such a pest), the wild violets, buttercups and other little flowers typical of the coast area coloring the ground. . . . We are lazy vacationers in that this individual forgets cooking along with the job when away, so the jaunt was not too good for the diet, what with alternating in enjoying the cuisine at the Dorchester House and the interesting specialties at Pixie Kitchen. . . . It's nice to be in that area during the midweek, too, the beaches not being so crowded—especially nice with the wonderful weather that prevailed this time. . . . We found some interesting sidelights about would-be "voters," too. . . . Late Thursday we noted many more people coming—election day, Friday, being a holiday for quite a group and meaning the vacationers would have until Monday for the holiday—and that meant they did not vote, because, from conver-

2 Groups Install Officers

Installation for new officers was staged for South Salem Lions club and auxiliary, Friday night. A joint buffet dinner for the group was given at the Senator hotel. . . . Edward Majek, deputy district governor for Lions clubs, installed the following officers for the Lions: Arthur Martin, president; Nels Johnson, first vice president; Frank Florey, second vice president; Robert Coe, third vice president; Daryl Jones, secretary; (John G. Marr, treasurer; absent); (Henry Sprick, fall twister, absent); (James McGillchrist, lion tamer, absent); Cecil Lantz and Frank Hamstreet, directors. A president's pin was presented to Arthur Martin. . . . Installing the auxiliary officers was Mrs. Harry W. Scott, past state auxiliary president. Those taking office were Mrs. George Morrow, president; Mrs. Robert Beane, vice president; Mrs. Daryl Jones, secretary; (Mrs. Henry Sprick, treasurer, absent). Clayton Jones, outgoing president of the club was master of ceremonies and was assisted by Mrs. Clarence Feller outgoing president of the auxiliary. Corraes were presented incoming officers of the auxiliary. Mrs. Clarence Feller was presented a gift. . . . Past president's pins were presented to the past presidents of the auxiliary (Mrs. Elton McGilchrist, president when the auxiliary was organized, not present); Mrs. Nels Johnson, Mrs. Charles Nielsen and Mrs. Clarence Feller. . . .

Two valley women were named to office in the annual meeting of the state organization of University of Oregon Mothers clubs in Eugene, Saturday. . . . Mrs. William L. Lidbeck of Salem was elected a director for three years; and Mrs. C. A. Frautke of Independence was elected vice president. . . . Mrs. James Walton of Salem went out of office as state president following a most successful year. . . . Mrs. Evely Fay of Portland is the new state president for the Mothers groups. . . .

BANANAS

Ripened a better way!

We get our bananas shipped in green, like everybody else does. Then we put them in special ripening rooms. Here we control humidity and temperature to build up rich natural flavor within the fruit. Our bananas ripen slowly . . . from the inside out . . . as nature does it. There is no "hurry up" methods at Safeway. We bring you bananas at their very peak for eating.
