

California Home For Newlyweds

MOUNT ANGEL—A wedding of interest to a wide circle of friends was an event in Redwood City, Calif., April 24, when Miss Norma Ann Oswald was married to John Schultz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Schultz of Aurora. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto J. Oswald of Woodside, Calif., former residents of Mount Angel.

The Rev. Alcuin Heibel, O.S.B., Portland, officiated at the 10 o'clock morning nuptials in the Our Lady of the Wayside Catholic church.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a white embroidered nylon tulle over tulle dress. She carried a cascade arrangement of white lilacs and stephanotis.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Ralph Oswald, the bride's sister-in-law. Mrs. Yvonne Saubaly of Salem, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Theresa Stadler, Oakland, Calif., cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids.

Flower girl was Lynn del Mercado, and Jeffrey Taylor was ring bearer. Both are cousins of the bride.

Best man was Ralph Oswald, the bride's only brother, and ushers were Al Gentile, San Francisco, and Walter Kruse, Mount Angel, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

The reception was at the Skywood lodge, Woodside.

The couple will live on Grand View Drive, Woodside, California. Other guests from Oregon attending the wedding were at the bridegroom's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kruse of Mount Angel, and another sister, Mrs. George Schmidt of Corvallis.

Miss Purdy Wed At Recent Rites

MOUNT ANGEL—Miss Jeanette Purdy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark J. Purdy of Mount Angel and Frank R. Kepler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Kepler of Warsaw, Indiana, were married May 6 at the Sacred Heart Catholic church, Portland, the Rev. Paul Benedict, O.S.B. officiating.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a white Chantilly lace and nylon tulle waist-length bouffant frock. A seed pearl crown held in place a fingertip tulle veil, and the bride carried white orchids and stephanotis.

Attendants were sisters of the bride, Mrs. Valentine Wolf, as matron of honor, in aqua blue, and Lind-Mae Purdy as flower girl in pink.

Valentine Wolf was best man. Among the guests at the wedding were the bride's grandparents, Mrs. Frank Purdy of Woodburn, and Mr. and Mrs. William Harrarhill, Mt. Angel.

A reception at the parish hall followed the ceremony. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Arthur Purdy of Yamhill, the bride's aunt and godmother, and her sister, Mrs. Arlin Stahl of Salem. Presiding at the coffee urns were Mrs. Richard Foltz of Mount Angel, an aunt, and Mrs. Charles Hess, Silverton, a sister. In charge of the gifts were Miss Harriet Purdy, Mt. Angel, a sister, and Miss Judy Foltz, Mt. Angel, a cousin. Miss Agnes Purdy, a sister, circulated the guest book.

The couple left the same day on a short wedding trip, and later on will travel to Indiana to visit the bridegroom's parents. They will live at Moses Lake, Wash., where the bridegroom is stationed with the air force.

Mrs. McKay Speaks To BPW Club Members

WOODBURN—Mrs. Douglas McKay of Salem was the guest speaker at the monthly social meeting of the Woodburn Business and Professional Women's club Thursday night at the Woodburn library club rooms. About 50 members and guests were present.

Mrs. C. C. McKay accompanied Mrs. McKay to Woodburn, and introduced her.

Two numbers were sung by Mrs. Thomas P. Gorman who played her own accompaniment, and group singing was led by Mrs. N. A. Mann with Miss Gladys Adams at the piano.

The room was decorated with baskets of snowballs and peonies, and the tea table was centered with yellow tulips, green tapers, and candleabras. Mrs. J. A. Evans poured coffee and Mrs. Walter Miller served punch.

The health and safety committee was in charge of arrangements, with Miss Livesay, chairman, Mrs. Walter Miller, Miss Hildegard Dierkising, Mrs. Eleanor Vickers, Mrs. Evelyn Daland and Mrs. Betty Meick. They were assisted by Mrs. Frank Bentley, Mrs. Ray Glatt, Mrs. N. A. Mann and Miss Gladys Adams, assisting.

The next meeting will be June 7 at the library at 8 p.m., when early day pictures of Woodburn will be shown. The public is invited.
