

Miss Adams Heads Molalla JD Bethel

MOLALLA—Miss Cora Jeanne Adams was installed as honored queen of Bethel No. 48, Job's Daughters, Saturday, the ceremonies taking place in the IOOF hall. Officers installed with Miss Adams were: Misses Carol Shaver, senior princess; Alice Burns, junior princess; Virginia Palmer, guide; Karen Morrow, marshal; Lois Burns, chaplain; Harryette Swerter, recorder; Carolyn Landsem, treasurer; Gloria Landsem, musician; Barbara Hull, librarian; Ginger Bentley, senior custodian; Leanne Lehman, junior custodian; Pam Younce, Irene Lamberti, Vina Harshman, Cheryl Younce and Dee Ann Shaller, first through fifth messengers respectively; Marcy Walters, inner guard; Kathy Howell, outer guard; Betty Hull, historian; Patty Bentley, lady of the lights; Jeannie Sharp, Sharon Casen, Gwen Dilley, Bonnie Tibbs and Joan Olsen, choir.

Installing officers were honored queen, Miss Joan Hall; installing guide, Miss Sharon Marston; marshal, Miss Kay Morrow; chaplain, Miss Nancy Shaver; musician, Miss Joan Lance; recorder, Miss Gay Marshall; senior custodian, Miss Kathleen Walden, and junior custodian, Miss Sonja Ball. Taking part in the crowning ceremony were Order of DeMolay of Molalla, headed by master councillor, Jack Bussard. Numerous presentations were made to the new queen and the junior past honored queen, Miss Joan Hall. Various introductions were made, including the new guardian, Mrs. Gladys Burns and associate guardian Alfred Burns. On the program, Joan Babcock sang, songs were sung by Miss Chord's quartet, and solos played by Sandra Peltz. A drill was given honoring the junior past honored queen.

A reception in the dining hall closed the installation. Mrs. Eldeene Marshall, junior past guardian, served punch. Mrs. S. B. Powers and Mrs. J. V. Robertson presided at the coffee urn.

Reception Honors Mr. and Mrs. Woods

DALLAS—Honored with an open house and reception at their home, Sunday, were Mr. and Mrs. George Woods. The affair, given in honor of their 50th wedding anniversary, was arranged by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl N. Kubitz of Portland and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Woods of Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Woods were married June 6, 1906, at the Salt Creek home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Baxter. They lived at Salt Creek until 1940 when they moved to their home in Dallas. The couple were parents of four children two of whom still survive. House guests of Mr. and Mrs. Woods were Mrs. James White, Volcano, Calif., and Mrs. John Klapp, Kansas City, Kan. Guests honoring the couple came from several Oregon cities.

The punch bowl, in the garden, was flanked by gold tinted Calla lilies and peonies. Pouring the punch were Mrs. Lewis Woods of Oregon City, daughter-in-law of the couple; and Miss Jane Woods, granddaughter. Serving at the tea table were Mrs. Fred Bruders, Eugene; Miss Ora Scovell, Mrs. Carl Black, and Mrs. James White. In charge of the gifts were Mrs. Josie Johnston, Mrs. Lester Minnich, Mrs. Everett Trent, and Mrs. Carl Black. Passing the guest book were Misses Carol Woods and Teresa Woods, granddaughters. Assisting about the rooms were Misses Sally Smith and Peggy Corpron.

The reception table covered with a gold cloth, a gift of the children, was centered with an arrangement of gold carnations and white Esther Reed daisies. A three tiered cake was on the buffet. Gold tapers were on the buffet and reception table.

Mrs. Woods, who wore a dress of rose lace, wore a white orchid corsage.

FAIRVIEW—Mrs. Grace Duren was hostess to a Flowers family gathering in the social rooms of the Hopewell Evangelical United Brethren church Sunday. Those who enjoyed the day were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Flowers and son Donald of Redmond; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Flowers and children of Tigard; Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Stoutenberg and family of Dayton.
