

Polk County DA Seeks to Block Cahill

Foster Files Answer to Cahill's Motion For Release

Walter Foster, district attorney of Polk county, has filed an answer to Otto Cahill's motion for release from the state penitentiary pending an appeal to the United States supreme court. Cahill, convicted of theft of $750 from a joint water district on the coast, is in the state prison serving a one-year sentence for the crime.

Attorney for Cahill filed a proceeding with the supreme court requesting his release, pending the outcome of the appeal. Foster, in his answer relates the history of case, pointing out that the Polk county sheriff's deputy, took Cahill in custody at the Portland air base hospital prior to the filing of the appeal.

The Polk county district attorney in his answer said that the order to take Cahill into custody was made as soon as competent physicians held that Cahill could be safely moved away from the army hospital. Cahill is suffering from a heart ailment and is now confined in the prison hospital.

Cahill's attorneys declared that they thought they had 20 days in which to file the appeal. They also assailed prison authorities for not permitting Cahill's wife to visit him in the prison hospital.

YM Wing May Be Part Ready In Six Weeks

Construction of the new youth wing of the YMCA, fronting on North Cottage street is progressing on schedule and it is anticipated that portions of the half a million dollar annex will be ready for occupancy early in August. October 1 has been fixed as the completion date.

Forms have been stripped off the north wall which is receiving a finishing coat, while the sheathing for the roof is in place.

The gymnasium of the new wing, considerably larger than the old one, will not be finished at this time. However, it will be floored and it is probable it may be used for certain games.

Entranceways connecting the old and new buildings, a project that took considerable study on the part of the architects, have been roughed through.

Paper Executive Visits Longview

Nelson M. Hickok, Salem, president of the Pacific Northwest Advisory board, which deals with traffic problems, is in Longview, Wash., for two days to preside at a meeting of the organization.

Among those attending will be some 350 members and their guests and representatives of several railroad systems.

New Store Opening Delayed One Week

Delay in delivery of merchandise has caused a postponement in the opening of the new Cornet variety store in the Candalaria shopping district.

The store, one of a series being operated by the owners, was scheduled to open Thursday. The new date is June 28.

The chain will open a new store in West Salem in about two weeks.

12 Marion County Students Honored At Oregon Tech

Twelve Marion county students were placed on the honor roll for the spring term at Oregon Technical Institute at Klamath Falls. Five of the group made 4.0 point grade average or straight "A's".

Those making the 4.0 grades were Julian Gregory, auto body and fender repair; Edwin Culbertson, cabinet making; Harry Juhl, diesel mechanics; and George Van De Coevering, all of Salem and Patricia Schaefer, medical technology.

Others on the honor rolls included Carol Gavette and Donald Mickey, both of Turner and the following from Salem: Beverly Nunn, Glen Wagers, Paul Kirsh, Stewart Wells and Robert Pendergraft.
