Rhoten-Doughton Wedding Of Interest on Wednesday

One of the beautiful weddings of early summer here took place Wednesday night in the First Methodist church when Miss Coralee Joyce Doughton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Millard B. Doughton, was married to David Alexander Rhoten, son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Rhoten. Dr. Brooks H. Moore officiated at the 8 o'clock rite.

All white flowers were used in decorating. At either side of the steps leading to the altar was a basket of gladioluses, stock and fluffy white chrysanthemums in a sunburst arrangement. On the altar were bouquets of the same flowers, a candelabrum with white tapers standing out from each altar bouquet.

Lighting the candles preceding the service were Richard Meyer and John Beakey. For the music, Mrs. Peter M. Gunnar and Mrs. Robert F. Anderson each sang solos, and later a duet, Mrs. Jesse Jones playing the organ.

Escorted down the aisle by her father the bride was charmingly attired in a simple but elegantly styled dress of pure silk with a white and pink feathered bodice. The princess bodice was adorned only by linked medallions of re-embroidered alencon lace to form the cateau neckline, and the sleeves were heavily embellished with seed pearls. The material flared into a bouffant skirt to terminate in a chapel train. The veil was arranged from a headpiece of nylon tulle and lace. The bride carried a white fan of imported lace bedecked with a cluster of baby pink orchids and white stephanotis.

Attendants in Pink
The bride's attendants were all in pink crystalite frocks, ballerina length, and styled with embroidered panels. They all wore pale pink feathered caps jeweled with tiny rhinestones, and they all carried imported ebony fans trimmed with pink Elfe roses.

Mrs. Richard D. Jewett of Medford was her sister's matron of honor. Miss Merle Rhoten, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Joanne Ellis and Mrs. Richard Mase of Troutdale were the bridesmaids. Sylvia Doughton, niece of the bride, was flower girl, wearing a dress matching those of the attendants, and Steven Doughton a nephew of the bride, was ring-bearer.

Michael Deeney, just home after graduating from Stanford university, was best man. Ushers were Wallace Carson, Jr., Charles Bales and Kenneth Doughton, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Doughton wore a powder blue lace over taffeta dress with pink feather hat, long pink gloves and a corsage of pink feathered carnations and baby pink roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a sheath dress of shirred chiffon in desert rose color, a pink horsehair hat and accessories matching her costume. Her corsage was of feathered white and pink carnations with baby pink roses.

Reception Follows
Following the service guests were invited to the church social rooms for the reception. Mrs. D. B. Doughton, Mrs. P. F. Doughton, Mrs. I. M. Doughton and Mrs. E. A. Brown cut the cake. Pouring were Mrs. E. A. Rhoten, grandmother of the bridegroom; Mrs. William Michelson, Mrs. Dorothy Bryant, Mrs. C. R. Ellis. Acting as hostesses about the room and assisting were Mrs. William E. Deeney, Mrs. Merrill D. Ohling, Miss Gloria Doughton, Miss Anne Jewett, Miss Gay Lewis, Mrs. Gladys Lee, Mrs. William Patton, Mrs. Gary Jones, Mrs. Douglas Baines, Mrs. Stanley Kerzel, Mrs. Jerry McCallister, Mrs. Robert Morris III, Mrs. Robert Walker, Mrs. James Knapp, Mrs. Ronald Ashby, Miss Marcia Webb, Miss Leslie Wilkins, Miss Georgann Bradburn, Miss Irene Granberg, Miss Carolyn Jones, Miss Beverly Reif, Miss Gloria Stok, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar I. Paulson, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace P. Carson, Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Woodmansee.

The couple left for Victoria and other points in Canada, the bride wearing a black and white silk sheath dress and jacket, white and patent accessories and corsage of baby white orchids.
