CANTON, Mass. (UP)—Fearless Fraley's fairway facts and figures from the PGA golf championship:

Eddie Sawyer who managed the Phillies to the 1950 National League pennant and now is a manufacturers' agent, took time out from peddling golf balls to reveal that he has received nine offers from five major league clubs in the past four years to manage again.

"I've received one offer within the last month, but the way the game is today, it's not for me any longer," he said. "The players today are too complacent because they make too much money and have too many outside interests. They play for money instead of for a love of the game.

"The chief trouble is in the bonus rule," Sawyer added. "Because so many kids are sitting on the bench with a big lump of money in their pocket and don't do anything to earn it, pitchers who win five games expect a raise. In my day they would have been sent back to the minors."

"Ground Under Repair"

The Blue Hill Country Club course, on which the PGA is being played, has been under constant fire from the pros because it is in such poor condition.

"They should have a sign on the first tee," cracked Jimmy Demaret, "saying 'Ground Under Repair'."

PGA officials are wearing new bright scarlet coats. It prompted one history - steeped Bostonite to remark to Vice President Harold Sargent:

"You fellows had better be careful. Around here we shoot Redcoats."

When drawling Tex McReynolds, now out of Winchester, Mass., was beaten 6 and 5 in the first round by Jerry Barber, a young reporter asked him what were his troubles. Tex threw up his hands and said:

"Just say a multitude, son, a multitude."

After Golf Comes the Hay

Gene Sarazen, the 54-year - old veteran, isn't too worried about how far he'll go in this one. The squire of Germantown, N. Y., says "After all, I've got to get home and get some hay in the barn."

Toney Penna is stunning everybody around the putting green with a new Mac Gregor putter which has the trickiest innovation in years. It's a conductor's change-making gadget built into the top of the grip which holds a half dozen markers.

Charlie Prentice, the South Carolinian who upset Tommy Bolt in the first round, comes from a coterie of upsetters. Charlie recently was best man at the wedding of Lee Mackey who, you may remember shot a record 64 in the first round of the 1950 U.S. Open at Merion. Charlie hopes he does a bit better in the second round than Mackey did. Lee was so shaken up he fired an 82.

The newest golf story making the rounds at the PGA concerns the two hackers who met in the locker room after a club tournament. One announced disgustedly that he had been beaten.

"But what are you gonna do," he moaned, "against a guy who throws five straight nines at you."

Charles Prentice Surprises Tommy Bolt in PGA Tourney

By HUGH FULLERTON JR

CANTON, Mass. (AP)—What ever became of Lee Mackey Jr.?

There was an answer today for that question, grown hoary with repetition since the unknown from Birmingham, Ala., shot a record 64 in the first round of the National Open golf championship at Merion in 1950 and then disappeared into obscurity.

Charles Prentice, a boyhood buddy of Mackey, pulled the same sort of stunt in the first round of the PGA championship at Blue Hill when he eliminated Tommy Bolt, the short-tempered Texan rated among the top tournament favorites.

But unlike Mackey, who faded almost out of sight the day after his record feat, Prentice, who plays out of Columbia, S.C., figures to be around a while longer.

No 'Names' Until Sunday

His opponent in the second round this morning was Chuck Du Pree, a 38-year-old Independence, Mo., pro also playing in his first PGA championship. A victory there would send Prentice up against either Al Smith, a very slightly surprising conqueror of ex-champion Vic Ghezzi in a 22-hole match, or Terl Johnson, a 46-year-old club pro from Wilmington, Del. Charlie doesn't figure to run into another "name" player before Sunday's double round.

Apart from the defeat that sent Bolt home muttering to himself and refusing to talk to writers, the first day's surprises were rather mild.

Ed (Porky) Oliver, the home club pro and a tournament player of considerable stature ran into long-hitting Mike Krak of Steubenville, Ohio, a solid player who shot two-under-par golf for 16 holes and won, 3 and 2.

'54 Winner Still In

Stolid Henry Williams Jr., runner-up to Chandler Harper in 1950, carried 1954 winner Chick Harbert to the 20th hole in one of the day's best matches before he was beaten. Felice Torza, the little "tiger" who went to the finals against Walter Burkemo in 1953, yielded, 2 and 1, to steady Freddie Hawkins.

Some of the stars had a few bad moments on the 6,634-yard, par 36-35—71 Blue Hill course. But players like defending champion Doug Ford, three-time winners Sam Snead and Gene Sarazen, former open champions Ed Furgol and Jack Fleck, and the well-liked Burkemo, Ted Kroll, Jackie Burke and Jimmy Demaret managed to win one way or another.

Bailey and Dellinger To Run at Vancouver

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) —Australian Jim Bailey and Bill Dellinger of Springfield, Ore., both students at the University of Oregon, will match strides in the mile run at the Caledonian Games here Aug. 4.

Bailey broke the four-minute barrier May 5 when he upset fellow countryman John Landy in Los Angeles. Bailey's winning time was 3.58.6. Dellinger's best mile time is 4.04.

Bobby Doerr Named as Scout for Red Sox

BOSTON (AP) — Bobby Doerr, one-time great Boston Red Sox second baseman now an Oregon rancher at Agness, has been named a scout for the club.

Doerr's appointment to scout for players on the West Coast was announced Friday night by general manager Joe Cronin. The two teamed to form the Red Sox keystone combination for many years.

Yankees Increase AL Lead

Milwaukee Keeps 2-Game Edge In 10-0 Win

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Where in the world would the World Champion Brooklyn Dodgers be in that National League without big Don Newcombe? Or without the St. Louis Cardinals, for that matter.

Newk and the Cards have become regular mealtickets for the so-called "guless wonders." The strapping righthander has been manager Walt Alston's stopper and the Redbirds, who once staged those thrilling pennant scraps with the Brooks, are keeping the Dodgers healthy.

After dropping two of three at Cincinnati and slipping six games behind the leaders, Brooklyn stopped the skid with a 4-1 decision over the Cards last night as Newcombe pitched a five-hitter for his 13th victory. It was Newk's seventh straight over the Cardi-eighth victory in 11 games with St. Louis for third place Brooklyn.

Milwaukee Keeps Lead

Milwaukee retained its two-game edge with Bob Buhl tossing a two-hitter for his 12th victory and Hank Aaron pumping across four runs in a 10-0 frolic against Philadelphia. Runnerup Cincinnati, scoring all its runs on homers, beat Pittsburgh 6-4 in 12 innings on Smoky Burgess' two-run shot.

The Chicago Cubs whacked the last place New York Giants 7-4.

In the American League, Whitey Ford tied an AL record with six straight strikeouts while winning his 12th as the New York Yankees defeated Kansas City 6-1. That caused their lead in a nip of 11 games over Cleveland, rained out at Baltimore. Detroit stumped Boston 9-6. Chicago and Washington also were idled by rain.

Stan Musial was the only Card to give Newcombe any trouble, lining his 17th home run and a single in three trips. Newk got the first of four third-inning singles as the Dodgers scored three to beat Tom Poholsky. Pee Wee Reese had four hitsincluding his fifth homer.

Aaron, upping his NL leading average to .337 with three hits in five trips, socked a two-run homer in the first off Stu Miller. Toby Atwell did the same in the second—in his first at bat since being picked up as a reserve for injured catcher Del Crandall. The Phils got only singles off Buhl—one by Gran Hamner in the third, and one by Richie Ashburn in the sixth. It was Milwaukee's 10 victory in 11 games.

Smacks 3-Run Homer

Pittsburgh scored four runs on six hits in four innings against Don Gross, but the Redlegs finally drew even as Ted Kluszewski walloped a three-run homer in the fifth, his 24th, and Wally Post smacked his 17th in the seventh to tie it. Burgess' breakup blow came off reliefer Fred Waters. Johnny Klippstein won it in relief.

Monte Irvin, the ex-Giant, hit his 9th and 10th homers for the Cubs as Jim Brosnan won his third. Windy McCall lost it. The Giants have dropped 10 of 11 to sink deep into the cellar.

Ford, notching his 13th complete game, fanned Joe Ginsberg to end the second inning, then knocked off Joe DeMaestri, Cletus Boyer, Jack McMahon, Hec Lopez and Al Pilarcik. Whitey hit Enos Slaughter with the next pitch. He lost his shutout on Pilarcik's two-run-ground rule double in the eighth.

The Tigers pounded 15 hits, three by Charley Maxwell who drove in two runs, to hand the Red Sox their second straight defeat after a 10-2 streak. Virgil Trucks won his fourth with Willard Nixon losing his fourth.

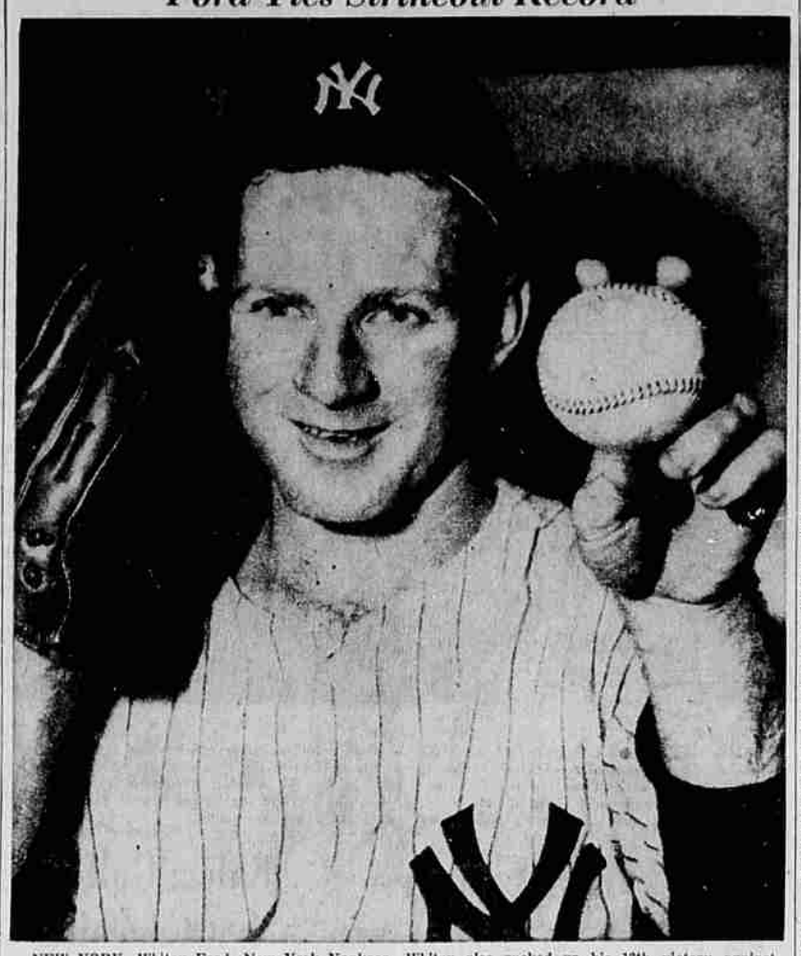
Ford Ties Strikeout Record



NEW YORK—Whitey Ford, New York Yankees left hander, obliges cameraman with this clubhouse pose after he tied an American League record by striking out six successive batters last night. Whitey also racked up his 12th victory against 4 losses as the Yanks defeated Kansas City, 6-2. Ford is the seventh pitcher to tie the consecutive strikeout mark. (AP Wirephoto)

Press Angers Red Sox Star

Williams Renews Long Feud With Boston Writers

BOSTON (AP) — Boston Red Sox slugger Ted Williams is mad at some baseball writers again—and displaying his contempt publicly.

No longer "the Kid" but a veteran approaching 38, the temperamental outfielder made contemptuous gestures to the press for the second time within four days last night while being cheered by 28,308 fans for a fine catch.

Williams manjudged a line drive by Jim Bridewesser of Detroit but backtracked and made a one-handed stab for the final out of the top of the seventh inning.

Crowd Roars Approval

As the crowd roared its appreciation Williams fired the ball some 50 feet into the air. He tossed his glove high as he reached the infield.

Then, standing at home plate to lead off the Boston seventh, Williams turned his head toward the press box and spat. Next he turned and spat toward the first base stands.

Williams first made a spitting gesture toward the press last Tuesday night as he crossed home plate following the 400th home run of his major league career.

"Gutless" Writers

After last night's game, won by Detroit 9-6 and telecast by a Boston TV station, Williams lined up local writers in the clubhouse and sounded off. "Gutless . . . no good" were some of his words.

Since joining the Red Sox as a youth in 1939, Williams often has feuded with Boston writers.

Williams, hobbled by an instep injury earlier this year, appears in fine shape and is hitting at a .365 clip. He has hit seven homers and driven in 35 runs.

Racers After Boat Records

PENTICTON, B.C. (AP) — Hydroplanes from the United States and Canada will attempt to break existing records for a mile on Lake Osoyoos Wednesday.

Ray Gassner of St. Petersburg, Fla., present holder of the 122 miles an hour record and winner of the Seafair Trophy in Seattle last year, will attempt to beat his present record.

Others will be Jimmy Hutchinson, Vancouver, B.C., holder of the 198-cubic inch record; Rocky Stone, Willamina, Ore., Class C outboard record holder, Hugh Entrop, of Tacoma, Class F record holder; and Harold Coelho of Merced, Calif., world high-point champion.

Bob Miller Recalled

DETROIT (UP) —Lefty Bob Miller, who celebrated his 21st birthday six days ago, was back with the parent Detroit Tigers today. The six-one, 175-pound pitcher was sent to Charleston in the American Association in June. Pitcher Duke Maas and infielder Buddy Hicks were sent to Charleston in Miller's place. Maas on 24-hour recall and Hicks on outright release.

Two American Girls Fight Bulls Sunday

TIJUANA, Mex. (UP) — Two American girl bullfighters, Patricia McCormick and Bette Ford, will try to settle the world's feminine supremacy in bullfighting at Tijuan Arena tomorrow.

It will be the first time that two American girl bullfighters will show on the same bullfight card.

Yost Chasing Ruth's Record

Washington Third Baseman Has Walked 97 Times

WASHINGTON (AP)—Let the rest talk about Mickey Mantle. In Washington, it's Eddie Yost who is assaulting Babe Ruth's record.

Not the Babe's unequailed 60 home runs of 1927—but Ruth's 170 walks in 1923.

No other ball player has received so many bases on balls. But Yost, Washington's third baseman, is a real threat. With 63 games to go, he's been passed 97 times.

How come he is walked so often? Yost is no runt. He stands 5 feet 10. The homer hitting Ruth may have struck fear in pitchers' hearts but Yost's record with the bat is not such as to draw many intentional passes. Right now he's batting .260, and he's hit only seven homers.

Yost Has a 'Rep.'

To Jim Wilson, the Chicago righthander, the answer is "mainly in the pitcher's mind."

Yost has a reputation for a good eye, excellent bat control and coordination. Night before last he slammed two homers against Cleveland, the second one winning the game.

"A pitcher thinks about that," Wilson said today. "You know he can size up a pitch and you also know you can't come down the middle on him because he hits well enough to hurt you.

"The umpires also know he has a good eye and may go along with him sometimes when he lets one go by."

Only 29, Yost has been with Washington since 1944, except for two years in the Navy. His lifetime total of walks is 1,066. Only Ted Williams, with 1,572 through 1955, leads him in the American League.

Pitching — Bob Buhl, Braves — Won his 12th by allowing just two singles in 10-0 decision over Phillies.

Hitting — Hank Aaron, Braves — Upped his National League leading average to .337 with three hits in five trips, one his 13th homer, and drove in four runs in 10-0 victory over Phillies.

Princeton's Leighton Ford from Glen Riddle, Pa., allowed only two earned runs in 47⅔ innings of Eastern Intercollegatie League pitching this spring.

Pitcher Dobrino of Iowa led the Big Ten in strikeouts with 41, one more than Galen Cisco of Ohio State.

Ford-powered Midgets Return To Hollybowl After Absence

The Ford-powered midgets, absent from the Hollywood Bowl oval for two years, make their return tonight with over 20 top drivers on hand.

Time trials will begin at 7:45 with the trophy dash set for 8:30 followed by the heat races and Class B and A main events.

Gordy Youngstrom, long a popular driver here, makes his return to Hollywood Bowl tonight after a session of racing on Eastern tracks.

Smokey Blake of Seattle recently won the midget event at Jantzen Beach by defeating Chuck Tontz of Portland by a bumper and will be hard to beat tonight.

Other favorites of the fans on hand for the events tonight are Wild Bill Hyde, Dick Pace and Don Guth.

The Offenhauser engine has been eliminated from midget racing because it crowded out the Ford. The Ford-powered cars promise a more evenly-matched, more exciting race.

Beavers Execute a Triple Play, But Hollywood Wins

Grounder to 3rd Starts 3-Ply Killing

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Portland turned in an infield ground-ball triple-play, but it was not enough to defeat Hollywood Friday night.

The Stars beat Portland, 5-4, at Hollywood despite the unusual triple play.

R. C. Stevens and Danny Kravitz led off for Hollywood in the third inning with singles. Then Joe Duhem hit a sharp ground ball to third baseman Eddie Basinski. Basinski stepped on third to force Stevens, then fired to second baseman Dick Young to force Kravitz. Young completed the triple killing by pivoting and throwing Duhem out at first.

The triple-play was quite a lift for Portland pitcher Bob Darnell, seeking his 11th victory of the season. But Darnell was not quite up to it, yielding three runs in the eighth inning. Carlos Bernier singled home the winning run after a costly error by Portland first baseman Ed Mickelson.

Threaten in 9th

Portland threatened in the ninth inning on a single by Luis Marquez, a .340 hitter now, and a double by Mickelson. But pitcher Luis Arroyo halted the drive by retiring Jack Littrell.

Los Angeles trimmed the San Francisco Seals 5-1 Friday night and stretched its Pacific Coast League lead to 3½ games over the Seattle Rainiers, who were shut out 1-0 by Sacramento.

Angel pitcher Johnny Briggs allowed eight hits, giving no more than one an inning. He fanned three pinch hitters sent in by Seals manager Joe Gordon in late inning efforts to salvage the game.

Sacs Win 2nd Straight

Earl Harrist gave up five hits while pitching the Solons to their second straight victory over Seattle. The Rainiers' Howie Judson allowed only six hits, but two of them and a walk plated Sacramento's Nippy Jones in the fourth inning.

Last-place Vancouver razzle-dazzled a triple steal in the ninth inning during a four run rally that beat San Diego 7-5. The Padres came back with a two run spurt but failed to close the gap after the relief of triumphant hurler Charley Beamon.

Los Angeles scored all the runs it needed in the first frame with a three-run spree as Bob Speake tripled. The lone Seal tally was made by Marty Keough who walked in the eighth and scored on Frank Malzone's single.

Smith Caught at Plate

Seattle nearly ruined Harrist's shut out in the eighth inning when Milt Smith tripled with one out. Third baseman George Risley stopped a sizzling grounder and whipped the ball home to catch Smith at the plate. Bill Glynn followed with a long drive to deep center, but Solon Al Heist wheeled, his back to the ball, and gloved it.

Vancouver's three-way steal scored Angelo Dagres after two runs were singled in by Beamon. Padre pitcher Dave Hoskins issued a walk later that inning, forcing in the inning's fourth run.

Vancouver's Fred Marsh, who scored the Mounties' first run, was ousted in the eighth after an argument with umpire Al Somers.

Japanese Bar Soil of Texas

TOKYO (UP) —Japanese customs and quarantine officials branded Texas soil as "dangerous" today. They banned its import into Japan.

They ordered that 31 pounds of Texas soil be burned to kill any organic matter. The charred remains, they said, will be buried Monday in a vacant lot near Tokyo's International Airport.

The soil from a downtown Dallas lot was air-expressed to Japan by Pollard Simons of the Del Murray Associates advertising agency last month as part of the Tokyo press club's "Texas Night" celebration.

Yoriki Ishii, an employe in the Haneda quarantine office, assured United Press that "we have nothing against Texas soil."

"It doesn't look harmful," he said, "but you never can tell."

Ishii said the package from Texas must be "flame-fumigated" with hot coal to kill roots and other organic life in the soil which may carry dangerous plant diseases. Then it must be buried under at least three feet of Japanese ground.

"Under Japanese law, to prevent pests and harmful diseases from coming into the country we must either return foreign soil or burn it and dispose of it," he explained.

A member of the board of the press club said a Texas flag may be erected over the spot where the earth will be buried.

PITCHING TIPS

SULLIVAN FAST BALL

YOU MUST WANT TO WIN TO BE A SUCCESS — SULLY

(The following was written especially for AP Newsfeatures by Frank Sullivan, Boston pitching ace.)

By FRANK SULLIVAN

BOSTON, (AP)—I throw all my pitches off the same grip. I hold the two big fingers of my right hand on the narrow part of the seams, or rather where the seams come closest together.

I throw sidearm and what we call a three-quarter motion. I do not throw overhand like most pitchers. I won 18 games last year and the pitches I use suit me just fine.

A lieutenant in the Army, Ray Gestaut, helped me a lot in Chicago after I came back from Korea a little more than two years ago.

I was a sergeant then and Lt. Gestaut went at the game as to mental attiude. He believed that you didn't need much talent. He got across the point to make the most out of what you have.

At first I didn't like the idea but after awhile I began thinking like the lieutenant.

It's all in the head. You must want to win to be a success. You must be up mentally.

I believe the secret of Robin Roberts' success is in his thinking. Each spring in Florida he gets a pounding around in the exhibition games. Yet he wins between 20 and 28 games a year. Even while he's being hit in the spring I believe he is getting himself ready mentally for the league games ahead.

Sure, a good arm helps, but if you don't approach the game right in your thinking nothing is going to help.

Yogi Berra batted only .253 when he broke in with Norfolk, Va., in the Piedmont League in 1943.
