Swim Program Ends Friday; 251 Graduate

Regular Schedule to Resume at Pools Saturday

Salem's annual "Learn to Swim" campaign closed Friday with 251 of more than 800 passing their swimming tests, Vern Gilmore, city recreation director reports.

Gilmore said that volunteer help was a contributing factor to the success of the 10-day program. He added that many of those taking part in the program made improvement.

The pools return to their normal schedule today.

Beauty's Win Celebrated in Old Ottumwa

OTTUMWA, Iowa (AP) — There was a gala New Year's Eve atmosphere last night and early today in this home town of Carol Morris, the newly crowned Miss Universe.

Numerous private parties were held in this community of 34,000. Others gathered in night clubs and other public spots.

Station KTVO-TV stayed on the air until 3 a.m. to show wirephotos of the new winner. Radio station KBIZ of Ottumwa also stayed on overtime.

Telephone lines buzzed as radio listeners called their friends with the news the home town entry had carrid off the big award.

The Des Moines Register and Tribune bannered the news with this headline: Carol Wins—Miss Universe."

Beauties Win Preliminaries

SEASIDE (AP) — One girl from Portland and two from Lane County were named preliminary winners in the Miss Oregon competition here Friday night.

Patti Ann Haines, Miss Portland, was best liked in a swim suit. Patricia Berg, Miss Eugene, won the evening dress event, and Sonja Jorgensen, Miss Springfield, was first in the talent division.

Half of the 14 contestants were in the swim suit-formal dress competition Friday night. The other seven competed in the talent contest. The two groups switch events for Saturday's competition.

The final winner, who will represent Oregon in the Miss America contest, will be selected Sunday.
