

Police Shoot Loco Horse

A loco horse was shot near Hubbard Sunday afternoon after the animal broke through two fences and led a Hubbard farmer and state police a mile-long chase.

The horse escaped from the Jim Gehris farm after knocking down the corral fence and plunging through a wide fence, state police said. Gehris contacted a patrolman and the two chased the horse for more than a mile. After Gehris gave permission to shoot the horse because it constituted a dangerous animal, the officer drove a patrol car alongside the horse and shot it with his service revolver.

Young Hooker, who was making his early morning deliveries when he collapsed, was taken to his home later Sunday and was reported as being greatly improved.

Motorist in Fair Condition

James Perry Wells, 22, Gervais, was reported in fair condition at Salem Memorial hospital Monday, following a one-car accident one mile south of Hoppmere Sunday.

Wells received head injuries and face lacerations, hospital attendants said. State police said Wells was traveling south on Highway 219 when his car skidded and rolled over 600 feet.
